

Flyweight Title Scrap Tops Boxing Schedule

NEW YORK (UPI)—A world flyweight title fight in Thailand and a nationally televised New York fight between two good young heavyweights feature this week's boxing schedule.

Masahiko "Fighting" Harada of Japan, an explosive little man, makes his first defense of the flyweight (112-pound) crown in a return bout with Pone Kingpetch of Thailand at Bangkok, Saturday night.

Harada, only 19, registered a major upset Oct. 10 when he knocked out Kingpetch in the 11th round of their fight at Tokyo. Because of the punch he displayed that night, he is a 3-2 favorite to win again.

Meeting Opened By NCAA

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The 57th annual National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) convention opened officially today.

High on the list of topics was the suddenly renewed battle between the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) and the NCAA-sponsored U.S. Track and Field Federation.

The two days of pre-convention committee meetings produced a variety of decisions and discussions, including the following:

- Es-Stanford football coach Jack Curfio, president of the American Football Coaches Association rules committee, said his group strongly was in favor of unlimited substitution and would recommend adoption of the idea to the NCAA's football rules committee.

Casualties High In Playoff Scrap

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Some guys are pure gluttons for punishment.

That includes those thoroughly worked-over casualties from the weekend's bowl games who still haven't had enough football and plan to play some more next Sunday.

Hardest hit of all were the poor Pittsburgh Steelers, who not only dropped a 17-10 decision to the Detroit Lions in the National Football League's Playoff Bowl game at Miami, Fla., Sunday, but also suffered three severe injuries.

Steelers fullback John Henry Johnson was kicked in the left eye, suffering a concussion which sent him to the hospital.

Halfback Bill Daniel suffered a broken jaw and went along with Johnson to the hospital.

Dan James, the Steelers' 260-pound tackle, got off a little easier with a possible chipped ankle bone.

The Lions, each of whom collected $500 as compared with $400 for each of the Steelers, didn't come away unscathed themselves.

Detroit fullback Kenny Webb was knocked cold by one swipe of Big Daddy Lipscomb's arm and halfback Pat Studstill was flattened in his collision with Daniel.

Milt Plum's passing and Webb's running made the difference for the Lions. Webb took a 20-yard touchdown pass from Plum in the second period and scored again on a two-yard plunge in the third period.

For all their lumps and bruises, some of the Lions and Steelers will be back for more next Sunday when the NFL's Eastern Conference stars meet the Western Conference standouts in the Pro Bowl game at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

They'll have company, too, because the American Football League holds its All-Star Game the same day at San Diego.

More Tame
Four other bowl games were played during the weekend but they were more tame. Maybe it was because all four involved collegians instead of pros.

In the two other games played Sunday, Ron VanderKelen of Wisconsin led a North team to a 20-13 victory over the South in Honolulu's Hula Bowl, and Louisiana State quarterback Lyn Amodee sparked the East to a 38-10 triumph over the West in the Crusade Bowl at Baltimore, Md.

On Saturday, the South defeated the North, 33-27, in the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala., and the National All-Stars downed the South, 33-13, in the first Southwest Challenge Bowl game at Corpus Christi, Tex.

Coming off his fine Rose Bowl performance, VanderKelen completed 29 of 33 passes for 244 yards at the Hula Bowl. He connected for the winning touchdown on a 17-yard toss to Hugh Campbell of Washington State in the final period. Kermit Alexander of UCLA was a consistent gainer for the losers and was awarded the Governor's Cup as the most valuable back of the game.

In the Crusade Bowl, Amodee, a 5-foot-11, 180-pounder, kicked a field goal, passed for one touchdown and ran for another before a disappointing crowd of only 2,394. The game was composed generally of draft choices of the eastern and western conferences in the NFL.

Although the South won the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, the North came in for most of the headlines by fighting back from a 27-6 halftime deficit to almost pull it out.

Lynn Griffing of Mississippi, who quarterbacked the South, threw three touchdown passes and was voted the game's outstanding player. Jerry Gross of Detroit starred for the North, breaking two Senior Bowl records with 23 passes good for 317 yards.

Every time the Spokane Comets get to feeling cocky, along comes Portland goalie Don Head to throw ice in their face.

Head registered his second Western Hockey League shutout of the season Saturday night—and his second whitewash of the Comets—as the Buckaroos roared past Spokane, 4-0.

It was the only WHL game of the evening and it sent Portland into a rosy 9-point lead over second place Los Angeles in the Southern Division.

Spokane had been on the move recently after a rocky start. The Comets had won their last three in a row before they encountered Head. He shut them out 2-0 earlier in the season.

Gerry Goyer led the Portland offense with two goals, one coming in the second period and the other with only 1:16 remaining in the game. Tommy McVie and Tom McCarthy had the other goals.

There are no games scheduled tonight.

Joey Archer Beats Moyer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Middleweight contender Joey Archer of New York, an impressive victor in Saturday's television fight, will be matched today with Blair Richardson, champion of Canada, for Madison Square Garden Feb. 18.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner said: "Archer proved himself perhaps the smartest boxer in the middleweight division by outpointing Denny Moyer Saturday night. Now, how will he stack up against Richardson, a knockout specialist?"

Richardson scored 34 knockouts while winning 30 of his 40 professional fights.

Archer achieved his 23rd victory in 34 fights Saturday night on an 8-2, 8-2, 6-3-1 decision. It was Moyer's ninth defeat in 43 bouts.

TRIAL RESUMES MONDAY
NEW YORK (UPI)—The trial of former Columbia University basketball star Jack Molinas will resume Monday with both sides presenting summations before the case is turned over to the jury Tuesday.

The defense and prosecution rested their cases Thursday before Judge Joseph A. Sarafate of the state Supreme Court. Molinas is charged with conspiracy, bribery and subornation of perjury in the recent college basketball scandals.

LAKERS LEAD ATTENDANCE
NEW YORK (UPI)—The Los Angeles Lakers, who have grossed a higher attendance so far this season than any other team in the 17-year history of the National Basketball Association, led a general rise in attendance around the league.

League President Maurice Podoloff reported Thursday that attendance this season is up 31 per cent over a comparable period last year with Syracuse showing an 80 per cent boost and St. Louis also showing a big rise.

PLAYOFF PULLS 36,000 Fans

MIAMI (UPI)—What could have been the NFL Playoff Bowl's finale in Miami turned out to be perhaps its finest hour Sunday when 36,284 fans defied drizzles to watch the Detroit Lions overpower the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-10.

Officials said the turnout—10,672 more than last year—probably saved the game for Miami's Orange Bowl.

Had not at least 35,000 attended, the game probably would have been shifted to some other city.

But now, National Football League owners, who meet later this month at Miami Beach, are expected to continue this Playoff Bowl which started here in 1961 before 25,362 persons.

The crowd that came, spattered by rain as it watched a bruising contest, was not disappointed.

Milt Plum's pinpoint passing and Kenny Webb's running told the difference as Detroit's big line—the "Fearsome Foursome" that handed world champion Green Bay its only loss this year—held Pittsburgh to 10 points.

It was a rough-and-tumble game with Pittsburgh's Jim Henry Johnson starting to swap punches at one point and three players being knocked groggy in two successive plays.

Counts Third In Rebounding
NEW YORK (UPI)—Oregon State center Mel Counts tumbled out of the top 10 in basketball scoring this week, but the seventh junior moved up to third in rebounding.

Counts has collected 159 rebounds in nine games for a 17.7 average. The leader is Paul Silas of Creighton with a 19.2 average.

Nick Wekman of Seton Hall holds the scoring lead with an average of 36 per game. Seattle's Eddie Miles is third with a 29.2 average on 267 points in nine games.

Counts' second points and grabbed 37 rebounds in three games in the Far West Classic last week. Miles was the Classic's leading scorer with 70 points.
