

HAPPY WITH SCORE — Art Wall of Pennsylvania is elated with his total after scoring his third consecutive sub par round, a 67, to take a two-stroke lead over the field at the three-quarter mark of the Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament. Four others are tied at 207 and eight at 208.

Winless Golfer Holds Lead In Rich LA Open

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Veteran Art Wall, without a tournament win in nearly three years, sought to remedy the situation going into the final round of the $50,000 Los Angeles Open today with a two-stroke lead.

Often in contention here, but never a victor, he held the slim margin over the quartet of Johnny Pott; Paul Bondeson, a long-bitting youngster; Bud Holscher, a hometown choice; and sentimental favorite Ed Furgol.

And only another stroke back—in excellent challenging position—were 11 others. Heading this group were Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler and Billy Casper.

Wall, 39-year-old Pocono Manor, Pa., pro who last won a tourney in 1960 when he took the Canadian Open, shot into the undisciplined lead at the end of 54 holes with a four-under-par 67 Sunday.

His near perfect round was witnessed by a large portion of an almost record 21,500 golfing enthusiasts who turned out at the Rancho Park course in 89-degree weather.

"Pretty good for a guy who was shoveling snow in Pennsylvania," Wall said in assessing his round, wiping perspiration from his brow.

He credited his approach game for the subpar round which put him in front of the second round leaders—the rocking chair set of E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Bob Rosburg and Furgol. All were tied at 136 at the end of round two. But all had their troubles.

Rosburg's 75 and three-round 211 all but eliminated him from the front-running chance.

However, Harrison (whose 73

VanderKelen Leads North To Victory In Hula Bowl

HONOLULU (UPI)—An improvised pass play; a fumble recovery and a stalwart defense were the ingredients the North all-stars combined in their 20-13 victory over the South eleven in the 17th annual Hula Bowl football classic at Honolulu Stadium Sunday.

More than 22,000 fans sat in sunny 80-degree weather to watch the North team, coached by Rip Engle of Penn State, bounce back from a 13-7 halftime deficit with two touchdowns—both engineered by Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen—in the late stages of the fourth quarter to down the fired-up South coached by UCLA's Billy Barnes.

VanderKelen, harassed all afternoon by the hard-charging South linemen and linebackers, wriggled free time and again to hit his receivers in the bruising contest.

With little less than seven minutes left in the game and with the North in possession of the ball on the South 17, the Badger signal-caller ducked away from three on-charging South linemen, tripped, regained his balance, faded to his right and pitched a perfect strike to Hugh Campbell of Washington State in the end zone.

That made the score 13-13 and moments later Washington's Ray Mansfield converted to put the North ahead for the first time in the game.

Then on the first play after the ensuing kickoff, Ray Poage of Texas, a terror on offense as a lead blocker, fumbled and Michigan State's George Saines recovered on the south 35 to set up the final North score.

George Reed of Washington State, who rolled up 43 yards on nine carries during his short stint of offense, carried over two yards out with 50 seconds left in the game.

The South scored the first time it got the ball in the first quarter with Baylor's hard-running Ronnie Goodwin skirting right end for 11 yards to cap a 67-yard march.

The North came right back after taking the kick-off, going 64 yards in 12 plays. Saines bulled over from one-yard out.

The only other score in the first half came on a 70-yard march with the game's outstanding back, Kermitt Alexander of UCLA, taking a six-yard pass from Texas Christian's Sonny Gibbs.

OSU Rolling Now; Stanford Next foe

CORVALLIS (UPI)—"We're really coming along now but it's going to be a tough series against Stanford."

That's the way Oregon State basketball Coach Slats Gill today summed up the Beavers' upcoming two-game series with the Stanford Indians at Palo Alto, Calif., Friday and Saturday nights.

"Stanford has one of the finest teams in the nation," Gill said. "They're good shooters. And remember, we'll be playing in strange country."

Oregon State, which rolled up its sixth straight victory by defeating Washington State 61-50 here Saturday night, has an 8-3 record. Stanford has a 7-2 mark.

Gill said one of the keys to the Beavers' chances of victory was the ability of 7-foot center Mel Counts "to be able to handle" 6-8 pivotman Tom Dose of the Indians "on a one-on-one situation. He was able to handle Dose last year and we beat them twice. I think he can do it again this season."

Four players scored in double figures as Oregon State beat Washington State for the second straight night. The Beavers won 74-47 Friday night.

Sophomore guard Frank Peters led the way for the Beavers with 13 points, Counts and guard Terry Baker each scored 11 and 6-7 sophomore forward Jim Kraus hit 10. Counts collected 22 rebounds and Kraus bagged 12.

West Coast Cage Scene Scrambled By Surprises

By United Press International

The West Coast basketball picture looked scrambled today with a pair of schools named Washington and California the main trouble-makers.

Washington, which has only a 3-5 mark for the season, knocked off fifth-ranked UCLA twice last weekend in Seattle while the Bears proved to be equally bad hosts by sweeping a pair from Southern California.

And what's with Montana State, which belted potent Seattle, 71-59, on Saturday after getting worked over by the Chieftains, 103-79, on Jan. 11?

Some confusion also was apparent in the West Coast Athletic Conference where Pepperdine, a pre-season choice to hang onto its League crown, lost a 75-74 overtime squeaker to Santa Clara.

Washington, which had dropped all three of its games in the Los Angeles Classic that was won by UCLA, nicked the Bruins 62-61 on Friday, then slapped on a 67-63 convincer Saturday. This gave the Huskies a 2-0 mark in Big Six play and put them into a first place tie with Cal.

UCLA took a 59-57 lead with four minutes to play but then Charlie Hart and Bob Flowers came through with a brace of driving lay-ups that put the Huskies on top to stay. Walt Hazard of the Uclans led all the scorers with 20 points while Ed Corell had 19 for Washington.

Miles Contained

Dick Smith, California's nifty guard, accounted for 24 points and did some tremendous stealing and feeding to spark a 76-69 win over Southern California. The Bears always were in command despite the shooting of USC's Gordy Martin who matched Smith's totals.

The Bobcats of Montana State only had beaten Seattle once in 15 games until Saturday. Then they dethly handled the Chieftains with the aid of a 21-point spurge by Milt Horton. Don Hae of Montana State held Eddie Miles to 14 points and scored the same total.

Santa Clara and USF still are in Los Angeles where they change partners tonight. The Broncos meet Loyola this time while the Dons face Pepperdine in WCAC games that find the Southland schools trying to pull even.

The Waves and Santa Clara battled to a 66-66 tie after 40 minutes of regulation play Saturday. The Broncos' Russ Vrankovich gave them a 72-70 edge in overtime which was followed by a free throw on the part of Gene Shields and a fielder by Joe Weiss. Baskets by Pepperdine's Harry Dinnell and Bob Warlick came too late.

The Dons of USF muscled their way to a 69-49 win over Loyola in the other end of the twin bill at the Sports Arena. USF hit 90 per cent of its shots from the floor with sophomore Ollie Johnson swishing in 17 points.

OSU Wins Again

In another overtime WCAC game, San Jose State got past University of Pacific, 42-41 on a pair of pressure free throws by Bill Robertson. There was one second of overtime remaining when he made them.

Tenth-ranked Oregon State swept to its seventh straight win, a 61-50 triumph over Washington State, in other major Saturday action.

California seeks to build up its over-all mark of 16-2 this week when it faces Stanford Tuesday night, then takes on UCLA Friday in Santa Monica. Washington faces Southern California in Los Angeles twice this weekend in another pair of Big Six games. After its conference tilt with California, Stanford hosts Oregon State in a weekend series.

Friday night's WCAC action features San Jose at St. Mary's and Loyola at Santa Clara. On Saturday it is Loyola at San Jose and UOP at USF.

JIM BEATTY

Beatty Gets Top Award

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jim Beatty, who came out of retirement to become the first man to break the four-minute mile indoors, has been named the 1962 winner of the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award.

The 27-year-old former University of North Carolina track and field star was the fastest miler in the United States last year when he was clocked in 3:58.9 indoors at Los Angeles Feb. 10.

Beatty was credited with one world and six American records during the year, five of them coming while on a summer tour of Europe.

Beatty, who never won a national championship while in college, received 329 first-place votes of the 636 ballots cast for the Sullivan Award, given annually to "the athlete who, by performance, example and good influence did the most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship during the year."

Weightlifter Tommy Kono of Honolulu was runner-up in the voting for the second straight year.

KEY INTERCEPTION — QB Bill Mrukowski, Ohio State (26), got little chance to play in the 17th Annual Hula Bowl game at Honolulu Sunday with Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen in the game, but his third quarter interception in the end zone robbed South's Ronnie Goodwin, Baylor (44), of a sure score. North won 20-13.

Bearcats, Loyola Face Easy Games

By GARY KALE UPI Sports Writer

Cincinnati and Loyola of Chicago, the nation's two top college basketball teams, have easy pickings this week if they don't run into that unlucky number, 13.

The No. 1 Cincinnati Bearcats, two-time NCAA champions, start their remaining 13 games of the regular season with contests against North Texas State and Tulsa this week. The 'Cats swamped both twice each last season.

Second-ranked Loyola also has 13 games remaining on its schedule and opposes Marquette and Western Michigan during the week. The Ramblers split a pair with Marquette during the 1961-62 season and defeated Western Michigan twice en route to a 23-4 record.

Cincinnati made eight-ranked Wichita its 29th victim over a two-season span with a 63-50 victory Saturday night. The Bearcats, now 11-0, were hampered by an all-court press at the start and were in front by only 54-47 with five minutes left. Ron Bonham and Tom Thacker then combined for seven straight points to clinch the decision.

Loyola, held to a five-point lead at halftime by Loyola of New Orleans, scored 19 straight points early in the second half for an 88-83 triumph that upped the Ramblers' record to 13-0. Jerry Harkness tallied 21 points for the Chicagoans.

Third-ranked Illinois defeated Iowa, 85-76, and fourth-ranked Arizona State skinned past Texas Western, 63-60, but the No. 3 UCLA Bruins dropped a 67-63 game to Washington and seventh-ranked Kentucky was beaten by Georgia Tech, 84-85.

Hornsby To Lie In State

CHICAGO (UPI)—The body of Rogers Hornsby, the man the late John McGraw called "better than Babe Ruth," will lie in state tonight at a North Side mortuary.

Funeral services were scheduled at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Drake & Sons mortuary chapel. The body will be taken to Hornsby's old home town, Hornsby's Bend, Texas, near Austin, for burial Thursday.

Hornsby, baseball's greatest right handed hitter, who set the modern major league batting record of .424 in 1924, died Saturday of a heart attack while apparently recovering at a hospital from eye surgery and a stroke.

Hornsby was an active player in the majors leagues from 1915 to 1937 with the St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants, Boston Braves, Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Browns. He managed the Cardinals, Braves, Cubs, Browns and Cincinnati Reds along with five minor league clubs. Last season he was batting coach of the New York Mets.

Baylor Leads Lakers To Overtime Victory

By United Press International

At the rate Elgin Baylor is going, he should get time and a half for overtime.

Baylor scored on a layup with 16 seconds left in a five-minute overtime period Sunday night that gave the Los Angeles Lakers a 120-119 victory over the Cincinnati Royals.

The Western Division leaders, on a four-game winning streak, retained their 4 1/2 game margin over the St. Louis Hawks, who beat San Francisco, 114-103. Detroit edged New York, 103-102, and Syracuse defeated Chicago, 114-102, in other National Basketball Association action.

A jump shot by Dick Barnett enabled Los Angeles to tie Cincinnati at 112-all at the end of regulation play. Jerry West led the Lakers with 32 points and Oscar Robertson scored a game high of 33 points for the Royals.

Cliff Hagan scored 34 points and Bob Pettit added 27 for St. Louis as the Hawks trampled the Warriors for their 13th straight home court victory. Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco led all scorers with 41 points.

Detroit defeated New York for the fifth time in six meetings this season, although the Knicks made a game of it with 10 straight points in the final minutes that cut deeply into the winners' lead.
