

Illinois Builds Up Head Of Steam For Crucial Game With Bearcats

By TIM MORIARTY
UPI Sports Writer
Illinois is continuing to pick up steam for its head-on collision with top-ranked Cincinnati at the Chicago Stadium Jan. 26.

Sparked by Tal Brody, Bill Small and Dave Downey—who totaled 66 points between them—the Illini showed plenty of fight in turning back Ohio State, 90-78, Monday night at Champaign, Ill. Brody scored 23 points, one more than Small, and Downey added 21 as Illinois ran its season record to 10-1 and gained revenge for a 102-79 clobbering by Ohio State last season when the Buckeyes ruled the college basketball world. Ohio State, which took over the No. 5 spot in this week's UPI ratings, led during most of the first half and reached the intermission with a 37-36 advantage. Then Brody and Small started clicking for the third-ranked Illini. Brody, an "import" from Trenton, N.J., scored 15 points and Small added 16 after intermission to hand Ohio State its second defeat in 11 games. Gary Bradds scored 33 points for the Buckeyes but appeared to tire in the second half, hitting for only 13 in the final 20 minutes. Illinois has two more Big Ten Conference engagements—against Purdue and Northwestern—before running into Cincinnati in what should be the season's top game. Indiana kept pace with the Illini in the Big Ten race by whipping Purdue, 85-71, Monday night at Bloomington, Ind. Jimmy Ray

Stanford Invades Hot California In League Play

West Coast Basketball Roundup
By United Press International
Stanford, only untested Big Six quietest, jumps into the race with both feet tonight when it invades the red-hot University of California.

The Golden Bears have come out of nowhere to top the Big Six with a 2-0 record after a pair of impressive wins over USC last weekend. Guard Dick Smith hit 39 points in a brilliant display, but outside of him the Bears have been a strange club with eight players of about equal caliber shuffling in and out. Coach Rene Herrieras never knows who will be on target from night to night. Stanford has an All Coast and All America candidate in center Tom Dose and an 8-2 record, but in the Los Angeles tourney it appeared that Dose was not getting any help at all from his co-starters. If they can hit enough outside shots to keep the defense from sagging in on Dose, the Cards still could be the West's best.

closed the gap to 40-39, but the Dons kept pumping and pulled out the game. Forwards Ed Thomas and Dave Lee each bagged 15 for USF as did Harry Dinnell of the losers. Santa Clara dispatched Loyola, 66-56, as that huge front line of Gene Shields, Joe Weiss and LeRoy Jackson just had too much size for the toothless Lions. Shields and Weiss each had 16 points. In WCAC action tonight, it's Pacific and St. Mary's at Oakland Auditorium, where the Gems are playing the rest of their home games this year. The Coast's two leading scorers clashed Monday night at Pocatello, Idaho, where Seattle defeated host Idaho State, 79-72. The Bengals' Art Crump was a giant in defeat as he hit 32 points and hauled down 18 rebounds. Seattle's Eddie Miles was held to 17 points while Greg Vermillion added 22. Seattle's record is now 9-3 and Idaho State's 6-5. In other action Monday night, Carroll College belted Westminster, 78-68, as nine players hit in double figures for the winners. Touring Hawaii fell at Memphis State, 96-60. In other action tonight, Portland is at Oregon in a battle of havenot Northwest independents.

Pro Football Hit By Two Troubles

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Football League was faced by trouble on two fronts today with one of its stars ready to battle for his right to run a tavern and the possibility of an investigation by the Senate racket committee.

Along with the disclosure here that an investigator from the Senate racket committee was bound for Chicago to conduct a preliminary inquiry into the pro football situation, the Detroit News reported Monday that defensive tackle Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions has been ordered to sell his share of a tavern. General manager Edwin J. Anderson of the Lions was quoted by the News as saying: "I don't like the idea of a player owning a part of a bar where he might run into undesirable people."

Klamath Pels Get Top 10 Ranking

PORTLAND (UPI)—North Eugene ranked in first place today among Oregon's class A-1 high school basketball teams in the Journal coaches' poll. Marshall of Portland was second with Corvallis third. Others in the top included, in order, South Eugene, Astoria, Grants Pass, Medford, Milwaukie, Klamath Falls and Pendleton. Pleasant Hill headed the A-2 list followed in order by Henley, Myrtle Point, Central, Seaside, Illinois Valley, Elmira, Coquille, Eagle Point and Newport. The Pelicans of Klamath moved into eighth spot in the Oregonian
