PORTLAND (UPI) — Center Glenn Moore, who supposedly was recovering from a sprained ankle, scored 21 points and led Oregon to a 62-54 basketball victory over Portland Tuesday night.

The Pilots' big man, 6-8 Steve Ansett, picked up three fouls in the first 10 minutes and spent most of the rest of the game on the bench. Ansett, who averaged more than 20 points per game in Portland's first 12 contests, finally fouled out with only four points.

Portland led through much of the first half as Jim Dortch scored 14 points in the first 20 minutes. Oregon moved ahead late in the half and led 32-28 at intermission. Oregon salted the game away in the opening moments of the second half when Jim Johnson hit a field goal and Moore added two.

Don Shula Named To Succeed Ewbank

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Don Shula, the 33-year-old defensive backfield specialist named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Baltimore Colts, faces at least one potential psychological hurdle in his new job.

The man who coached the Detroit Lions' defensive backfield before being elevated to his first head-coaching job Tuesday by Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom will be joining a club that still has 11 players who were his teammates when he played with the Colts from 1953 to 1957.

The question cropped up in Baltimore earlier this week when Shula was reported the likely successor: "How will these veterans accept taking orders from a former teammate, one who was cut in fact while many of them remained with the club?"

The answer, of course, remains to be seen. Nonetheless, this could be a source of friction in a sport known for fraying nerves.

Learns From Shula
It's not going to bother at least one player, so he says: Bill Pelington, who now calls defensive signals for the Colts and who was on the club when Shula played, said he learned from Shula in those days and expects to learn more now that he's head coach.

Rosenbloom said Shula had a two-year contract. The salary was not disclosed.

The Colts' new coach will hold a press conference Thursday, at

Signs Of Peace In Fight Between NCAA, AAU Seen

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The first dove of peace made a preliminary pass over the battle lines between the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Amateur Athletic Union today, prompted by President Kennedy's efforts to settle the fight.

The conciliatory move was made by the NCAA at its 57th annual convention. An announcement of an exchange of telegrams between the President and the collegiate group was followed by the statement that NCAA threats of ineligibility against athletes would be withdrawn.

The convention call had included a proposed amendment to the by-laws under which any athlete who participated in a track and field meet not sanctioned by the NCAA-sponsored U.S. Track and Field Federation would be ineligible for collegiate national championship competition.

An NCAA spokesman, after reading the President's telegram to the convention and the NCAA reply Tuesday, announced plans to withdraw the controversial amendment, which had drawn the fire of the AAU and the apparent retaliatory suspension of Jim Dupree of Southern Illinois University for participating in a track federation open meet.

Back Federation
But NCAA stalwarts, including Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the vast Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference, were quick to point out the move did not mean the colleges were opening the doors for their athletes to compete in AAU meets, including the big indoor events about to get underway in the East.

Bushnell said the ECAC would stand firm behind the track federation until assured the arbitration requested by President Kennedy was certain to take place. Bushnell, however, said the boycott of the indoor meets carried no threats of punishment against violators in his conference and was the result of a vote by members. Other major business scheduled at the NCAA convention's final session included consideration of reports of committees.

In his message to the NCAA, President Kennedy said: "Plans for arbitration are progressing. The AAU and the U.S. Track and Field Federation have agreed to arbitrate. General (Douglas) MacArthur is ready to leave for Stanford his Oklahoma political future would be about as bright as General Custer's at the Little Big Horn."

The associate told United Press International: "Bud has said that if he ever left Oklahoma he would like to coach at Stanford, one of the real pure football schools."

Wilkinson, according to the associate, was offered the Stanford job in 1958 before it was given to Curtice, who took over that season.

Wilkinson met and impressed Stanford president J. Wallace Sterling, said the close friend of Wilkinson's who insisted on remaining anonymous. "And Sterling still wants Bud to be the Indian coach."

"However, my guess is that Bud will stay at Oklahoma and will run for governor when the time comes."

Endorse Efforts
The NCAA's statement of reply to the President declared its council unanimously endorse and commends the President's efforts and those of the attorney general to settle the breach in amateur athletics. But it was careful to say that the negotiations were between the Track and Field Federation and the AAU.

"Inasmuch as the AAU and the U.S. Track and Field Federation are agreed, we see no reason why the proceedings should not begin," the telegram to the President said. "The U.S. Track and Field Federation will represent all of its component members, including the NCAA. The NCAA pledges its full and complete support of this effort."

The NCAA, however, left it up to the track federation to work out with the AAU and the government or Gen. MacArthur the details of the arbitration.

Sign For '63 Season
CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago Cubs reported 11 players signed for 1963 today. Latest additions were pitcher Larry Jackson, obtained from St. Louis in an Oct. 17 trade, and outfielders Lou Brock and Bob Will.

Merrill Downs Fighting Malin Mustangs, 60-32

By JERRY WAGGONER
Herald and News Sports Editor
MERRILL—The Merrill Huskies after having an extremely cold first quarter, broke from that cold spell in the final three stanzas here Tuesday night to overwhelm outmanned and under-experienced Malin in a Klamath County League basketball game, 60-32.

The Huskies, improving with each game in an attempt to retain their league title which is being threatened by Chiloquin, was colder than the weather outside in the first period and they hit only two of approximately 20 field attempts. But they seem to find their shooting "eyes" in the final three quarters when sophomore Larry Connor came in to ignite the spark they needed.

The hapless Mustangs stayed with the Huskies in the cold first period but were unable to find the basket often enough themselves or to grab off enough rebounds to stay in the game. The Mustangs don't have a senior on the team and not one player who had seen varsity action before this season. Coach Andy Travis lost the first eight from his team of last season.

Malin took the early lead when Randy LeQuiou hit a fielder with 1:45 gone after the Huskies had put up six shots and missed them all. Bob Moore and Ken Smith combined for three points to put the Huskies into a 3-2 lead which didn't last.

The lead was tied three more times and changed hands three more times before guard Dale Kurtz hit his only basket of the night on a driving layup just before the first period buzzer sounded. It was 9-7.

But the Huskies broke out of the deep-freeze in the second period behind Connor who was high for the night with 20 points. And he could have had 30 easily enough had he been able to hit his easy short shots. The Huskies burned the nets for 20 points in the second stanza and rode a 29-13 lead going in for their intermission rest.

The Mustangs made a game of it in the third although they were outscored by three points, 15-12. Tom Toffel and Randy LeQuiou kept them in the game with long one handers. Ken Smith got hot for the Huskies and scored 14 of his 19 points in the last half, mostly on jump shots from around the key. Toffel and LeQuiou were the only Mustangs to score in the first half. LeQuiou finished with nine points and Toffel with 14.

The Merrill B team also won the preliminary game by downing the much smaller Mustangs, 56-25.

Machen May Get Pass In Future

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Eddie Machen, the erstwhile heavyweight contender undergoing psychiatric treatment, soon may get a weekend pass to leave the hospital.

"He is getting along as well as can be expected," his physician, who asked to remain unidentified, said Tuesday. "He's continuing to do real well."

The doctor said that Machen had been leaving the Presbyterian Medical Center regularly to do roadwork and meets with "carefully screened" visitors.

Machen was committed to Napa State Hospital Dec. 16 after a California Highway Patrol officer found him parked in a car with a loaded pistol. Hospital authorities said at the time that Machen was "an acute schizophrenic, dangerous to himself and others."

On New Year's Day, the Portland, Ore., boxer was transferred in the Presbyterian Medical Center here.

Friends of Machen said that he had been depressed by financial troubles and inability to get fights. He had been listed as the No. 1 contender by the World Boxing Association for Sonny Liston's heavyweight crown. The WBA dropped him because of illness and Floyd Patterson moved into Machen's spot.
