Celtics, Lakers In Fight

By United Press International
It looks like Boston and Los Angeles again in the two divisions of the National Basketball Association.

The team that wins them on the road picks up the marbles in the NBA, and the Celtics and Lakers Tuesday night captured victories in enemy gyms.

Boston took its fifth straight from San Francisco with a 118-112 decision at the Cow Palace as Bob Cousy tanked 19. Los Angeles broke a St. Louis Hawks 13-game home court win streak with a 99-96 victory.

In other action it was: Detroit 109 New York 93, and Syracuse 119 Cincinnati 116.

San Francisco moved out to an 87-85 lead over Boston late in the third period, but then the Celtics put on a 12-0 spurt that shot them ahead.

Wilt Chamberlain hit 45 for the Lakers as 8,623 sat in at the Cow Palace.

Elgin Baylor was the difference at St. Louis. His two field goals in the last 30 seconds decided the issue and he had 28 altogether.

Jerry West added 27 while Bob Pettit had 23 for the Hawks.

Detroit's win was its third straight and moved the Pistons past San Francisco into third place in the Western Division.

Los Angeles leads second-place St. Louis by five and a half games.

The Detroit-New York game was played at Toledo, Ohio, and Bailey Howell of the winners led the scoring parade with 28 points.

John Green had 16 for New York before leaving in the third period with an eye injury. There was no report on the extent of the injury.

Syracuse and Cincinnati also played on a neutral court at Dayton, Ohio.

Two guards led the way with Syracuse's Hal Greer scoring 21 points and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson meshing 27. Jack Twyman of the Royals hit 35.

The win gave Syracuse a three-game edge over the Royals in their battle for second place in the Eastern Division. Boston leads Syracuse by three and a half games.

Alexander Led UCLA Gridders
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Workhorse Kermit Alexander led 29 UCLA varsity football lettermen by playing a total of 456 1/2 minutes out of a possible 600, according to the list released today by Athletic Director Wilbur Johns.

Second highest on the list was Mel Proffit, a junior who played both ways at either end, with 380 minutes.

Although Coach Bill Barnes will lose Alexander for next season because of graduation, he will have a nucleus of 26 returning lettermen to build his 1963 club.

West Favored In Pro Bowl
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — The oddsmakers favored the West by 3 1/2 points over the East today in both of Sunday's All-Star games — the American Football League All-Star Game at San Diego, and the National Football League Pro Bowl game at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The West has won the last three games of the NFL Pro Bowl series, and leads, 8-4. The West team whipped the East, 47-27, in last year's initial AFL All-Star battle.

Molinas Convicted; Faces 36-Year Prison Term

NEW YORK (UPI) — Impassive Jack Molinas faced a possible 36-year jail term today after being convicted as the "master fixer" in a bribery scandal that took in 49 college basketball players in 51 different cities.

Unable to raise $25,000 bail after being found guilty on a five-count indictment in the criminal part of New York's Supreme Court Tuesday night, Molinas was taken to the city jail.

Justice Joseph A. Sarafite set Feb. 11 as the date of sentencing for the 30-year-old attorney and one-time basketball star.

Molinas' attorney, Jacob Eversoff, said he planned to appeal the case. The jury of eight men and four women found Molinas guilty of conspiracy, three counts of bribery and subornation of perjury.

The crimes could bring a sentence of 36 years in jail and a fine of $35,500.

Eyes On Jury
The six-foot, six-inch Molinas stared directly at the 12 members of the jury as they filed into the courtroom following nearly eight hours of deliberation.

He seemed as if he were trying to read their faces for some sign of a verdict.

"They didn't keep him waiting long," "Guilty," said the jury foreman.

Familiar with the courtroom and its procedures because he is a lawyer himself, Molinas remained icy calm.

He didn't even bat an eyelid.

Nor did he betray the slightest emotion when, after Eversoff asked that the jury be polled individually, each of the 12 said: "Guilty."

Asks High Bond
Asst. Dist. Atty. Peter D. Anderson asked the court to hold Molinas in custody under $25,000 bail and the request was granted.

Then Molinas, the man who had once said, "When this matter is finally resolved, my innocence will be fully established," was led away by a court guard.

The rugged, good-looking Molinas, who broke all scoring records as a member of Columbia University's basketball team and later starred for the Fort Wayne (now Detroit) Pistons until he was barred from the National Basketball Association for admittedly betting on his own team in 1954, was arrested on May 17, 1962.

His arrest culminated more than two years of investigation by Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan, who called Molinas the "master fixer."

Covers Three Bribes
Molinas was charged specifically with paying a former Bowling Green player, William Dennis Reed of Flushing, N.Y., three separate bribes of $1,000 each to "shave points" in 1959 and 1960.

Hogan, who charged Molinas headed a ring that also included 11 other co-conspirators, cited the games in which Reed was bribed were: Bowling Green vs. DePaul at Chicago, Dec. 10, 1959; Bowling Green vs. Bradley at Peoria, Ill., Dec. 12, 1959; and Bowling Green vs. Canisius at Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 3, 1960.

The subornation of perjury charge on which Molinas also was found guilty involved his attempt to persuade Reed to lie about the bribes before the grand jury.

None of the players involved under criminal prosecution, having been granted immunity in testifying before the grand jury.

JINX
IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI) — The University of Iowa lost 21 straight football games over 62 years on its home field to Michigan before breaking the jinx in 1962 with a 28-14 victory over the Wolverines.

LEADING FIRST-BAGGER
CINCINNATI (UPI) — Ted Kluszewski led the National League's first basemen in fielding five straight years from 1951 through 1955 as a member of the Cincinnati Reds.
