Dick Powell's Estate Tops $1 Million Mark

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Actor-producer Dick Powell left most of his million-dollar estate to his wife, actress June Allyson, and their two children.

Terms of his will, filed for probate Wednesday, disclosed Powell's estate was "in excess of $1 million." His attorney Eugene S. Goodwin said it still was too early to tell exactly how much it will amount to.

The 29-page will of the actor who died of cancer Jan. 2 also left 2,000 shares of Four Star Television Co. stock to each of his two children by a previous marriage.

Clark Named

Leon Clark, general secretary of the Klamath County YMCA, has recently been named to membership on "Work with Younger Boys and Girls" of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian Association, according to Ralph S. Mason, New York City, chairman of the committee on youth program.

The committee is composed of men and women representing all sections of the United States. It is charged with the responsibility of developing major YMCA program policies and strategy in work with boys and girls not yet in high school.

"I feel my appointment an honor and an opportunity to serve the greater 'Y' movement," said Clark.

Congress Opening Likened To Gangster Funeral

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mental impressions are not always as reliable as plaster of Paris. There is no warmer camaraderie than the reunion of politicians who have survived an election.

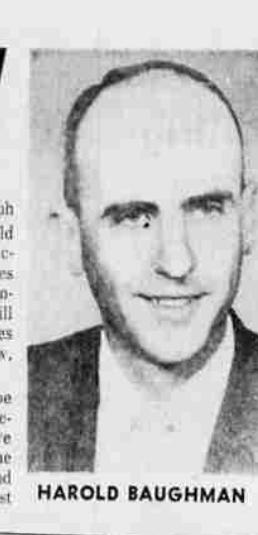

Among other things, there were gatherings of relatives dressed in the nines, profuse sproutsings of hot house flowers and lines of caustic onlookers.

Such trappings are associated in my mind with the last rites of a prohibition era crime czar. I had expected to see a horse-shoe book hands with each other in breath with a streamer reading "So long, pal."

Papp Award and the Heywood Brown Award, both for achievements in investigative reporting at the national level.

South Carolina Governor Supports Desegregation In Farewell Speech

COLUMBIA, S.C. (UPI) — Gov. James F. Hollings told the legislature Wednesday in a farewell address which sparked a scathing attack by South Carolina are the only Southern states with no school integration, offer the "fastest resistance" to desegregation and "never surrender."

Hollings said that interposition, sovereignty, legal motions, and personal defiance all have been applied to constitutionalize the law of the land and all attempts have failed. South Carolina, he said, is running out of courts. Hollings' speech was in sharp contrast to Tuesday's goodbye address to the Alabama legislature by Gov. John Patterson. Patterson urged that Alabama, which with South Carolina are the only Southern states with no school integration, offer the "fastest resistance" to desegregation and "never surrender."

Jacoby On Bridge

Even as Hollings spoke, the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals in Alexandria, Va., was hearing arguments on a suit by Harvey Grant, a Negro, to enter Clemson College later this month. He court took the case under review.

Weak Bid Backfires

By OSWALD JACOBY

 Howard Schenken is a contemporary of mine; while his partner, Peter Leventritt, is about half a generation younger. Peter is a partner in New York's Card School, which is the most successful teaching group in the country. I have known Peter since he was a baby. His father used to play bridge with my father in those days. When Jim was a baby, Mrs. Jacoby and I used to play tennis against Peter and his brother who were students at Princeton at that time.

Peter is a former President of the American Contract Bridge League and has been one of our top players for 20 years. Peter's opening was one of those weak two bids which are very popular in expert circles. This time the bid backfired since it gave Peter the trick to make his contract.

It wasn't really a tough play, but the weak two bid invariably indicates a six card suit so Peter simply let the jack of spades hold the first trick. West continued with the ace and another spade. Peter won and tried the heart finesse. It lost but East had no spade to lead and Peter made one spade, three hearts, two diamonds and four clubs for a total of 10 tricks.
