This one with various lighted candles and twinkling lights on gilded dry material was particularly effective against the large buffet mirror. Retired Dean Couple Greet To Be Speaker Twin Sons

E. B. Lemon, chairman of the State Scholarship Commission, will address the American Association of University Women on Saturday, Jan. 19, at the Winema Hotel.

The scheduled speaker, retired from the faculty of Oregon State University in 1959, has served in various capacities during his 48 years of service: first as professor of accounting and business management, second as registrar, and finally as dean of administration. He is a member of Who's Who in America and Who's Who in Education. "Why Higher Education Scholarships?" is the keynote of his address.

SPEAKER — E. B. Lemon, retired dean of administration of Oregon State University, will address AAUW on Saturday, Jan. 19.

WHAT COMES NATURALLY — Fluffing, sometimes called "shedding," is natural in most new carpets. Loose bits of pile show up on the surface. Regular vacuuming will soon remove these loose bits, and fluffing does not affect the quality of the carpet.

Mrs. Pat Gerlach, arts chairman, announced that original art work such as paintings, sculpture, jewelry, silk screening and weaving by members of AAUW will be on display at the Saturday luncheon. All members, especially those who have recently joined, are invited to call Mrs. Gerlach at TU 4-9100 in order that proper arrangements may be made to display their original work.

Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Richard Wylie and Mrs. Harry Todd. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Stan Neilling before Thursday noon, Jan. 17, at TU 2-5332.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery are the proud parents of twin boys born Jan. 3 in Sacramento. Mrs. Montgomery is the former Rose Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Valk, longtime Klamath Falls residents.
