

Oregon Tech Dumps Mountaineers For Fourth Win

Pelican Wrestlers Ax Medford, Henley Teams

The Klamath Union wrestling team is back on the winning road again. The Pelican grapplers won their second Southern Oregon Conference dual in three attempts Friday night by defeating Medford, 25-16, and came back Saturday afternoon to down Henley's A-2 group, 4-3.

The Jayvees also won both meets. They beat Medford's Jayvees, 35-14, and took Henley's second unit, 46-8.

The Pelicans got off to a rough start against Medford by dropping three of the first four matches. But then they came on to take six of the last nine bouts and drew two others. There were no pins in the dual.

Mike Christy, wrestling his first varsity match, lost the opener to Medford's Rick Orr, 9-0. Then Dave Davis fell to Rod Smith, 7-2. Jim McClung got the Pelicans back into winning ways with a 13-5 slaughter of Mike Orr. It was an easy decision for the unbeaten Pelicans.

John Stilwell, wrestling in place of Grant Humphrey in the 123-pound class, lost a 4-2 decision to Mike Horton. But it was virtually all KU from there on. Humphrey, who moved up to 130 pounds, clobbered John Swartz, 13-1. Tom Miles kept things going in the 136-pound event with a 4-2 decision over Tom Owens.

Ron Head, who has a winning streak going for himself after a slow start, beat Denny Schmaltz, 4-2. Paul Wilson decisively Tom Gilman, 10-2, and Ron Hitchcock beat Ray Laurietzen, 4-1.

Mike McKibben, taking over at 168 while Bob Daulton moved up, had to settle for a draw with Medford's very tough Tom Metz, 4-4. Kent Puckett lost the only other bout when he was decided, 4-2, by Terry Winetrou in the 178 class.

Daulton, a 168-pounder, wrestled at 191 Friday night and beat the rugged Mike Mayfield, 4-3. Mayfield was one of the touted tornado grapplers. Thurston Henzel had a penalty point go against him in the closing seconds and it cost him the match and he had to settle for a draw with Jeff Hardrath.

It was a big win for the Pelicans and puts them back into contention with Grants Pass which is still undefeated. Coach Delance Duncan said that McClung, Humphrey and Daulton looked very good in their victories.

The Pelicans handed Henley its worst defeat of the season but Duncan said that he could see the improvement in the Hornets. Henley managed to win only one match of the 13 and suffered four pins.

Christy beat Rex Smith, 3-2, in one of the closer bouts. Davis took Dick Rodriguez by 4-1, and McClung beat previously unbeaten Fred Rodriguez by a 10-4 nod. Stilwell took Roger Peters, 4-0, and Humphrey blanked Bob Farmer, 12-0.

The only loss came in the 148-pound division where Chuck Milovanich applied a pair of take-downs and a three-point near fall for the victory.

Hitchcock got the second pin when he stopped Rick Hudson in the second round at the 3-22 mark. He flattened Hudson while leading 5-0. McKibben decisively Lyle Bergstrom, 5-2, before Puckett landed KU's third pin of the day. He pinned Tony Vassallo in 3-21 of the second and was ahead by 5-0 when he got the pin.

Daulton took a 13-0 decision from rugged Leo Hill and Henzel got the final pin in the heavy-weight division in the second round. He pinned John Riggs, 3-14.

The only loss came in the 148-pound division where Chuck Milovanich applied a pair of take-downs and a three-point near fall for the victory.

Hitchcock got the second pin when he stopped Rick Hudson in the second round at the 3-22 mark. He flattened Hudson while leading 5-0. McKibben decisively Lyle Bergstrom, 5-2, before Puckett landed KU's third pin of the day. He pinned Tony Vassallo in 3-21 of the second and was ahead by 5-0 when he got the pin.

Daulton took a 13-0 decision from rugged Leo Hill and Henzel got the final pin in the heavy-weight division in the second round. He pinned John Riggs, 3-14.

The only loss came in the 148-pound division where Chuck Milovanich applied a pair of take-downs and a three-point near fall for the victory.

Hitchcock got the second pin when he stopped Rick Hudson in the second round at the 3-22 mark. He flattened Hudson while leading 5-0. McKibben decisively Lyle Bergstrom, 5-2, before Puckett landed KU's third pin of the day. He pinned Tony Vassallo in 3-21 of the second and was ahead by 5-0 when he got the pin.

Daulton took a 13-0 decision from rugged Leo Hill and Henzel got the final pin in the heavy-weight division in the second round. He pinned John Riggs, 3-14.

The only loss came in the 148-pound division where Chuck Milovanich applied a pair of take-downs and a three-point near fall for the victory.

Hitchcock got the second pin when he stopped Rick Hudson in the second round at the 3-22 mark. He flattened Hudson while leading 5-0. McKibben decisively Lyle Bergstrom, 5-2, before Puckett landed KU's third pin of the day. He pinned Tony Vassallo in 3-21 of the second and was ahead by 5-0 when he got the pin.

Daulton took a 13-0 decision from rugged Leo Hill and Henzel got the final pin in the heavy-weight division in the second round. He pinned John Riggs, 3-14.

Herald and News SPORTS

Sunday, January 13, 1963 PAGE 1-B

Henley's Rally Defeats Phoenix

The Henley Hornets, playing very sluggishly after the big 87-70 win over Illinois Valley Friday night, had their hands full of the Phoenix Pirates at Henley Saturday night before catching fire and pulling far ahead in the last three minutes of the game to win 71-54.

The Hornets, now holding a 10-0 record for the season and a 4-0 mark to lead the Rogue League as the only unbeaten team, had to fight for most of the game until they caught fire with three minutes left.

The Pirates stayed right with the sluggish Hornets for nearly all the game. Henley took a 15-14 first quarter lead and Phoenix matched their output in the second period and the Hornets went in for a rest at intermission still leading but by only a point, 30-29.

Coach Jerry Johnson's crew widened the margin in the third but by only three points and led going into the fourth quarter by 44-41. Then with three minutes left and still leading by four, they suddenly caught fire and bombed the nets at a torrid pace to put the game out of reach and a little more respectably.

It was big Kent Gooding for the Hornets again Saturday night. He had his best night of the season Friday night in tallying 40 points. He notched 29 Saturday night. He hit 13 baskets and three of five from the charity line. He hit 10-13 from the line Friday night. The fouls were few and far between Saturday night. Henley got only eight and Phoenix only 14.

Mike Beymer was second for the Hornets with 16 points, all from the field. Earl Allbritton had 14 points but he hit only two of nine from the charity line. He hit eight of nine Friday night. The Hornets were atrocious in that category Saturday night in connecting on only seven of 20 attempts.

John Granby paced the losers with 19 points. John Barker hit for 12 more and Rick Bolz for 11 for the pesky Pirates.

The Hornets hit a very respectable 43 per cent from the field and Phoenix tallied on 35 per cent of its attempts. Henley had the measure of the rebounds with 38 to 33, which helped make the difference in the game.

The Pirates stayed right with the sluggish Hornets for nearly all the game. Henley took a 15-14 first quarter lead and Phoenix matched their output in the second period and the Hornets went in for a rest at intermission still leading but by only a point, 30-29.

Coach Jerry Johnson's crew widened the margin in the third but by only three points and led going into the fourth quarter by 44-41. Then with three minutes left and still leading by four, they suddenly caught fire and bombed the nets at a torrid pace to put the game out of reach and a little more respectably.

It was big Kent Gooding for the Hornets again Saturday night. He had his best night of the season Friday night in tallying 40 points. He notched 29 Saturday night. He hit 13 baskets and three of five from the charity line. He hit 10-13 from the line Friday night. The fouls were few and far between Saturday night. Henley got only eight and Phoenix only 14.

Mike Beymer was second for the Hornets with 16 points, all from the field. Earl Allbritton had 14 points but he hit only two of nine from the charity line. He hit eight of nine Friday night. The Hornets were atrocious in that category Saturday night in connecting on only seven of 20 attempts.

John Granby paced the losers with 19 points. John Barker hit for 12 more and Rick Bolz for 11 for the pesky Pirates.

The Hornets hit a very respectable 43 per cent from the field and Phoenix tallied on 35 per cent of its attempts. Henley had the measure of the rebounds with 38 to 33, which helped make the difference in the game.

The Pirates stayed right with the sluggish Hornets for nearly all the game. Henley took a 15-14 first quarter lead and Phoenix matched their output in the second period and the Hornets went in for a rest at intermission still leading but by only a point, 30-29.

Coach Jerry Johnson's crew widened the margin in the third but by only three points and led going into the fourth quarter by 44-41. Then with three minutes left and still leading by four, they suddenly caught fire and bombed the nets at a torrid pace to put the game out of reach and a little more respectably.

It was big Kent Gooding for the Hornets again Saturday night. He had his best night of the season Friday night in tallying 40 points. He notched 29 Saturday night. He hit 13 baskets and three of five from the charity line. He hit 10-13 from the line Friday night. The fouls were few and far between Saturday night. Henley got only eight and Phoenix only 14.

Mike Beymer was second for the Hornets with 16 points, all from the field. Earl Allbritton had 14 points but he hit only two of nine from the charity line. He hit eight of nine Friday night. The Hornets were atrocious in that category Saturday night in connecting on only seven of 20 attempts.

John Granby paced the losers with 19 points. John Barker hit for 12 more and Rick Bolz for 11 for the pesky Pirates.

The Hornets hit a very respectable 43 per cent from the field and Phoenix tallied on 35 per cent of its attempts. Henley had the measure of the rebounds with 38 to 33, which helped make the difference in the game.

The Pirates stayed right with the sluggish Hornets for nearly all the game. Henley took a 15-14 first quarter lead and Phoenix matched their output in the second period and the Hornets went in for a rest at intermission still leading but by only a point, 30-29.

Coach Jerry Johnson's crew widened the margin in the third but by only three points and led going into the fourth quarter by 44-41. Then with three minutes left and still leading by four, they suddenly caught fire and bombed the nets at a torrid pace to put the game out of reach and a little more respectably.

It was big Kent Gooding for the Hornets again Saturday night. He had his best night of the season Friday night in tallying 40 points. He notched 29 Saturday night. He hit 13 baskets and three of five from the charity line. He hit 10-13 from the line Friday night. The fouls were few and far between Saturday night. Henley got only eight and Phoenix only 14.

BAKER SCORES AGAIN — Oregon State's Terry Baker goes up for two points during the first period of action against Stanford in Palo Alto Friday night. Behind Baker is Stanford's Bob Sommers. At left is Oregon State's Jim Kraus. Baker was recently All-America quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner. He led the Beavers Friday night with 25 points as they beat the Indians, 65-58.

West 5 Favored In Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The top stars of the National Football League as selected by their coaches get in their final football fling Sunday in the 13th annual All-Star Pro Bowl game between the Eastern and Western conferences.

Coaches Vince Lombardi of the Western team and Alie Sherman of the Eastern squad reported their players were in good shape for the charity clash.

Although Bart Starr of his own Green Bay Packers was on the West squad, Lombardi announced he planned to start Unitaas whose performances in the last three Pro Bowl games largely were responsible for the West win.

Joining Unitaas in the West's starting backfield will be Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams, Lenny Moore of the Colts and Jim Taylor of the Packers.

Title starts for the East squad as quarterback with little Eddie LeBaron available to relieve him. John David Crow, who was feared injured, reported himself ready to go at halfback and the St. Louis player will be flanked by Tommy McDonald of the Philadelphia Eagles and Jim Brown of the Browns.

Largely because of Lombardi's winning record and the fact that the West holds an 8-4 edge in the series, the West squad is favored to make it four straight in Sunday's game.

Referee Arthur Mercante explained he had stopped the bout just as Alongi went down the third time but "from a push," not a punch.

The action was halted at 2:50 of the fifth round in an exciting bout in which the six-foot-four Alongi seemed on his way to a knockout victory over Daniels, who is only one inch shorter.

Alongi, weighing 195½ pounds to Daniels, 186, had been giving Daniels a thorough beating in the fourth round and had buckled his knees with a right to the chin early in the fifth.

Midway in the fifth round, Daniels suddenly nailed Alongi with a straight right to the chin that knocked him into the ropes, and another right dropped Tony to his knees. He was up at the count of two and took the mandatory eight-count on his feet.

Another right to the chin dropped Rocky Marciano's art protégé to his haunches. Alongi rose at the count of three and took "eight" on his feet.

Daniels then tore after Tony and bargained him. It appeared that he had dropped Alongi with another right to the chin, but referee Mercante said Tony had merely been bumped by Daniels' shoulder and not struck, just as he was stopping the fight.

Referee Arthur Mercante explained he had stopped the bout just as Alongi went down the third time but "from a push," not a punch.

The action was halted at 2:50 of the fifth round in an exciting bout in which the six-foot-four Alongi seemed on his way to a knockout victory over Daniels, who is only one inch shorter.

Alongi, weighing 195½ pounds to Daniels, 186, had been giving Daniels a thorough beating in the fourth round and had buckled his knees with a right to the chin early in the fifth.

Midway in the fifth round, Daniels suddenly nailed Alongi with a straight right to the chin that knocked him into the ropes, and another right dropped Tony to his knees. He was up at the count of two and took the mandatory eight-count on his feet.

Another right to the chin dropped Rocky Marciano's art protégé to his haunches. Alongi rose at the count of three and took "eight" on his feet.

Daniels then tore after Tony and bargained him. It appeared that he had dropped Alongi with another right to the chin, but referee Mercante said Tony had merely been bumped by Daniels' shoulder and not struck, just as he was stopping the fight.

Owls Grab OCC Lead, Win 79-69

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick

but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.

The Owls led at the half time, 33-31 and came on strong in the second half for the margin of victory. Bob Myers paced the losers with 21 points while Dick Turley was the only other Mountaineer in double figures with 13 points.

LA GRANDE (Special) — The Oregon Tech Owls romped to their fourth straight Oregon Collegiate Conference victory here Saturday night when all five of the starters, three of them playing with penicillin in them for colds, scored in the double figures to win, 79-69, over Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers.

The Owls, playing in the coldest place in the state at 18 degrees below zero, weren't especially hot themselves as they hit only 29 of 91 shots for 31.9 per cent. But it was enough for the victory.

"Sweet!" Sammy Smith led the parade with 22 points, his best output of the four games he's played in. Hewlett Nash contributed 18 points, Willie Anderson and Van Zitek 14 each and Norman Johns 11.

The Owls were in control of the game all the way and played pretty well. "We had three boys sick but the doctor gave his consent for them to play and gave them some shots. We didn't play too badly considering that." Coach Jim Partlow said.