

Oregon Tech, SOC's Red Raiders Clash Tonight At Owl Gym

By JERRY WAGGONER
Herald and News Sports Editor

The high-flying Oregon Tech Owls, standing atop the heap of the Oregon Collegiate Conference with a 4-0 record, put that unblemished mark on the line tonight at 8 p.m. in Owl Gym when they host traditional rival Southern Oregon.

This will be the first meeting of the season for these two clubs and the Owls will be favored tonight. Southern Oregon is coming on surprisingly strong in league play after having a lack-luster non-conference slate and are standing second behind the Owls with a 3-1 record.

The Owls have just returned from a long road trip where they went to La Grande and defeated the Eastern Oregon College Mountaineers in a pair of games in a very cold climate.

Coach Jim Partlow says that his Owls are back in shape now and should be ready to go tonight.

and says that he could have a surprise or two up his sleeve for the Red Raiders. The Owls are 8-5 for the season. They are undefeated since the return of "Sweet" Sam Smith although he hasn't quite yet reached his peak.

The Red Raiders downed Eastern Oregon twice on the SOC home court, 73-69, beat OCE 80-57 and lost 61-55. The other winning score was unavailable.

Coach Jim Partlow will go with his usual lineup. He will begin with 6-6 Smith at center, 6-4 Willie Anderson and 6-2 Norman Johns at forwards with 6-0 Hewlett Nash and 6-0 Van Zitek at guards.

Anderson is leading all categories for the Owls. He has a total of 237 points in 13 games for an 18.2 average. He also is the leading rebounder with 157 for an average of 12 per game. He is hitting 42.3 per cent from the field and 21.8 from the charity line.

Nash is second in scoring with 194 points for a 14.9 mean and Zitek is right on his heels with 186 points and a 14.3 average. Johns has 113 points for an 8.7 mean and is the only starter not in double figures. But his rebounding has improved considerably in the past few games.

Smith has played in four games for 63 points and a 15.7 average. He also has 57 rebounds already for an average of better than 14 per game. He is the defending champion in scoring and rebounding for the past two seasons. But he will have to go all out to beat out teammate Willie Anderson for the scoring title.

Three of the Owls were down with the flu at La Grande but got the doctor's permission to play with a penicillin injection which carried them through. Partlow says they are all recovered now.

The Red Raiders probably will go with high scorer Dave Hughes, Ed Hill, Bill Franks, Larry Hink and Dick Shults. Hughes is the big gun for the Red Raiders. But the Raiders are a scrappy and well-balanced club and the Owls will have a big fight on their hands.

The Owls would also like to avenge the humiliating 50-0 loss the Owl football team suffered at the hands of the brilliant Red Raider eleven. And the battle is a traditional rival game and a game which the fans should enjoy.

Kings, Clowns To Play In Crosby's Clambake

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—The kings and the clowns of golf pair off Thursday in the $50,000 National Pro-Amateur championships—sometimes known as the Crosby Clambake.

Headlining the cast are Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus among the golf pros; and such clowns of comedy as Phil Harris, Dean Martin and Desi Arnaz.

It's the 22nd annual charity affair and the prospects today were for good, clear, warm weather—and if they get it, both the promoters and the golfers will be shocked.

They've had snow, rain, hail, winds and just about every other type of inconvenience in the past.

"If the weather stays good, like it is now," says Al Wall, a former winner here, "it will take a score of 278 to win it. But if it turns to the usual, then about 280."

Last year's tournament, played in snow, sleet and rain, was won by Doug Ford with a 286 score. That was the highest winning total of any tournament in America in 1962.

This will be the second head-on clash of the year between Palmer and Player. In the Los Angeles open, Palmer won by three strokes, with Player finishing in a tie with Al Balding for second.

At San Diego, Player won—but Palmer ducked the tournament to attend an awards banquet in New York. Palmer is the leading money-winner of the year, so far—as usual—with $9,000 to his credit. Player has collected $7,300.

Defending champions in the pro division are pro Bob McCallister and little Albie Pearson, the Los Angeles Angels center fielder, however, Albie sported a 10 handicap last year and this has been cut to five this time around.

Tournament officials are expecting another record-smashing crowd for the four days. The Monterey Peninsula cities already have taken on a festive air with motels, hotels and private homes jammed.

During the four days of the tournament, ending on Sunday (if there is no postponement), about 75,000 fans usually watch. Last year in the snow and cold, only 35,000 showed up.

About half come to watch the golfers. The other half, running through traps and over greens, come to see the entertainment celebrities.

From movies and television this year are such men as Dennis O'Keefe, John Raitt, Guy Madison, Buddy Rogers, Ray Bolger, Jim (Mago) Backus, Gordon MacRae, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Fred MacMurray and Bob Crosby.

From the world of sports are baseball managers Bill Rigney of the Los Angeles Angels and Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants; Stan Musial, Jackie Jensen, Lee Walls, Bob Lemon, Jim Davenport, Navy football coach Wayne Hardin, Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson, Ernie Nevers, New York Giants end Del Shofner, coach Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State and quarterback John Brodie and coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco Forty Niners.

They'll attract just as much attention as such great professionals as Stan Leonard, Mike Souchak, Doug Sanders, Bo Winingler, Bob Rosburg, George Bayer, Ed Furgol, Jack Fleck, Dr. Cary Middlecoff and many other brilliant shotmakers.

The tournament is played on Pebble Beach, Monterey Country Club and Cypress Point, the first three days with the teams alternating each day. The final 18 holes are played at Pebble Beach on Sunday.

West All-Stars Picked To Whip East Tonight

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Western All-Stars, with a starting lineup built around Willie Chamberlain and Elgin Baylor that is averaging 160 points a game, throws its offensive power against the defensively minded East tonight in the 13th annual National Basketball Association All-Star game.

A sellout crowd of 15,000 was expected at the Memorial Sports Arena, while thousands more were to watch the game on a special 21-station national television network throughout the United States.

The West, which won the last two games without Chamberlain, was a 57-point favorite now that it had the addition of the huge San Francisco warrior center, who is averaging nearly 40 points a game.

However, the Eastern All-Stars this season gained Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati—which traded divisions with the Warriors—and his smooth back court play, combined with the equally great play of Boston's Bob Cousy—was expected to make the East go.

Russell at Center

And the East was able to counter some of the West's scoring punch with Bill Russell of the Celtics, possibly the finest defensive basketball player in the history of the game.

Joining Chamberlain in the West starting five, for the game which hits the television lanes at 8:15 p.m., PST (11:15 p.m. EST) are Jerry West and Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers at guards, and Walt Bellamy of Chicago and Bob Pettit of St. Louis at forwards.

Baylor, normally a forward, was put at guard by West coach Fred Schaus of Los Angeles, to give the team more scoring. Baylor is averaging 33.6 points a game, second only to Chamberlain in the NBA. Bellamy is fourth in NBA scoring with a 29.6 average. Pettit is tied for fifth with a mark of 27.1 along with West.

Combined, they're averaging 162 points a game.

May Change Lineup

Boston's Red Auerbach, coaching the East, said there might be a change or two in his lineup if the West starts Baylor at guard—which it is going to do.

Russell, of course, is at center. Robertson, only Easterner in the top six of NBA scoring with a 28.6 average, will pair with Cousy at guard. Boston's Tom Heinsohn and Cincinnati's Jack Twyman are the East two gunning forwards, but they usually don't hit as well as the West pair of Bellamy and Pettit.

Chiloquin Downs KU Sophs From Charity Line, 48-41

By JERRY WAGGONER
Herald and News Sports Editor

The Klamath Union sophomores really fell short here Tuesday night in Pelican Court when the alert Chiloquin Panthers picked up a few missed passes, turned them into fast breaks and foul shots to down the Wildcats, 48-41, in a non-conference battle.

The Panthers took the lead to stay when Al DeBortoli swiped an errant KU pass and drove for a layup as the gun sounded ending the first quarter. That put the Panthers, unbeaten in the Klamath County League action, up by 13-11 and they never again trailed nor allowed the Wildcats to tie the game.

In the end it was foul shots which won the game for the Panthers. Each team managed 15 field goals but the Panthers hit on 10 of 30 charity attempts and KU's sophomores on 11 of 17. The Wildcats drew 29 fouls to Chiloquin's 15.

The Wildcats were hurt in that they threw the ball away entirely too many times during the course of the game and it cost them dearly. They just couldn't seem to find the range, either for some time. They finally began to come on in the fourth period when it seemed it was too late.

But the scrappy Wildcats made a game of it for a while. They trailed by eight going into the final period and then dropped to a deficit of 12 points when DeBortoli and Tony Wilder combined to put the Panthers into a 38-26 lead early in the fourth. Then the Wildcats began to come alive.

With Lester Thurman hitting from the wings with some aid from little guard Rob Sandmeyer, the Wildcats chopped the lead down to one mere point with 1:56 left in the game. But the Panthers used the foul route from there on out to salvage the game. The Wildcats missed their chance with Arie DeGroot stole one pass and stuck it in to slice the margin to 33-29. But then he stole another pass and the Wildcats missed two shots and the golden opportunity. Wilder, DeBortoli and Tony DiUlio carried the Panthers home from the free line by making seven charity tosses and one field goal within the last 1:24 of the game.

The KU freshmen also lost to the Chiloquin Jayvees, 49-29. The second Jayvee unit of KU got the lone victory for the Pelicans Tuesday when they stopped the Henley Jayvees in a surprisingly easy manner with a 40-34 victory.

Gary Benson led the KU attack with 11 points while Doug Stiles, Oran Teter and Alan Kenyon each had eight points in the well-balanced attack. Elton Schiro was the Henley leader with 13. Teter was the big gun for KU on the rebounds.

Round-Up Gets City Loop Win

Round-Up won over Klamath Gas Tuesday night in the City Men's Basketball League, 79-61, and Drumstick got a forfeit over Butler's Organizers in the first game.

Hagler led Round-Up with 21 points while Perkins had 16, Oavongs 15 and Young 10. R. Roberts led Klamath Gas with 12 points with DePuy and Crabtree and Reed each notching 10 points.

Butler's had only four players and had to forfeit but picked up one other player and scrimmaged Drumstick with Drumstick winning in the last second of play on a pair of free throws by Larry Zitek, the team manager.

There will be two more games Thursday night at O'Neill School Gym, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Top Stars Assured For LA Track Meet

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A star-studded field of Athletes was assured today for the fourth annual Los Angeles Invitational Indoor Track and field meet in the Sports Arena Saturday despite the absence of major college performers.

Weisiger and Bill Dotson.

A quartet of seven-foot high jumpers compete in that event led by former world record holder John Thomas. His competitors who have crossed the seven-foot barrier are Gene Johnson, Bob Avant and Joe Faust.

Canadian teenage star Bruce Kidd heads the field in the two-mile in which steeplechase star George Young is expected to vie with Max Truex in an effort to defeat the youngster.

The pole vault field is headed by two 16-foot jumpers—Ron Morris and Dave York while the incomparable Hayes Jones was expected to be an easy winner in the hurdles.

In the 1,000-yard run, former world record holder Ernie Coltrane meets Canada's Bill Crothers, Ray Van Asten and Oregon State's Hoffman. A pair of 60-foot performers, Dave Davis and Jay Silverster, are featured in the shot put competition.

The University of California at Berkeley was originally scheduled to send a pair of performers, sprinters Forrest Beaty and Dave Archibald, here but athletic director Pete Newell later indicated California would respect the NCAA voluntary ban on meets not sponsored by the United States Track and Field Federation although the NCAA is not penalizing athletes who appear in AAU-sponsored meets.
