The 80th birthday of Ernest M. Bubb, longtime Klamath County and Klamath Falls businessman before his retirement, was the incentive for a party hosted by Mrs. Bubb and their two daughters, Mrs. Robert Payne and Mrs. Robert Mainhardt. The delightful affair attended by the Bubb's many friends was held Jan. 6 in the Pelican Party Room.

Others presiding at the coffee urns during the 3 'Til 6 o'clock party hours were Mrs. Guy Merrill, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Harold Campbell, Mrs. Mae Anderson, Mrs. Maude Hosley, Mrs. James Hilton, Mrs. Carl Hagel, Mrs. Jack Insley and Roberta Blomquist.
