OVER THE GARDEN GATE

The Greensprings Garden Club met in January at the home of Mrs. Norman Briggs. The Christmas party being postponed, an exchange of gifts was made at this time.

Mrs. Briggs showed lovely gifts she had received from relatives in Japan and India.

Mrs. Lane Smith Sr. opened the meeting with the poem, "The Old and the New."

Ways and means of making money for the club were discussed during the business session. The group also decided to apply for the Sears Roebuck grant given to qualifying garden clubs each spring.

Date of the rummage sale was set for Feb. 16 at Clyde's Towing Service.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bernard Fiegl.

Engagement Is Announced

During the holiday season in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Richardson announced the engagement of their daughter, Coralen Ann, to Frank Howard Lageson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Haakon M. Lageson of Klamath Falls.

The bride-elect is an elementary education major at Portland State College. Her future husband will be graduated in accounting in June from Portland State College.

The wedding will be in August.

Couple Wed In Minnesota

MOUNT SHASTA — Karen Ingebrigsten of Karstad, Minn. and Isadore Derkos of Mount Shasta were united in marriage Dec. 29 in the rectory of the Hallack, Minn. Catholic Church. The bridegroom is English instructor and football coach at Mount Shasta High School, and the bride is a junior at University of North Dakota.

She will join her husband here at the close of the semester.

Pinochle Party

MALIN — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gray were hosts Thursday evening Jan. 10, to a group of friends for an evening of pinochle.

Three tables were in play with prizes being awarded to William Hays, Mrs. Ken Wilson and Mrs. Marvin Shell.

Other guests for the social affair and refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. George Fabianek, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Evans, Mrs. Hazel Hundley, Mrs. William Hays and Marvin Shell.

Club Meets In Bonanza

BONANZA—President Jean McFall conducted the Jan. 8 meeting of the Bonanza Women's Club at the library. Madeline Ketcham and Veta Williams were hostesses. It was reported that $159.14 was cleared at the New Year's Eve dance.

Norma Haskins was appointed to be in charge of the Fun Night to be held this spring.

Dorothy Peterson and Alice Nork will be hostesses for a public card party at the library on Jan. 26. Bridge and pinochle will be played and prizes will be given the winners. Refreshments will also be served.

Madeline Ketcham won the special prize.

After the meeting, Florence Mc-

Cartle demonstrated making Christmas decorations. Alyce Haje will assist her at the February meeting and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Mrs. Anna Downing was greeted as a new club member.

FINDS SKELETON — A skeleton believed to be that of a Russian soldier killed during the Franco-Russian War of 1814-15 was discovered near here Friday, according to authorities.
