Reno Rites Unite Couple

LAKEVIEW — Cheri Irene Fanning became the bride of Daniel William Roush at a double ring ceremony performed at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Jan. 12, at the Mt. Rose Wedding Chapel in Reno. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Fanning and the bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Roush, all of Lakeview. The altar was banked by baskets of pink and white roses where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. William H. Herring. The bride's ballerina length dress of white chiffon featured a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her over-the-face veil of illusion was fastened to a satin tiana studded with rhinestones, and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis. The maid of honor, Charlotte Higgins, wore a pink lace dress, and the bridesmaid, Linda Fanning, sister of the bride, wore a pale green chiffon dress. Their bridesmaids carried bouquets of white and pink roses. The bride's shoes were white with pink bows.

Mrs. Fanning wore a two-piece shantung dress of burnt orange, with a corsage of gardenias. Best man was Elmo Eugene Angele of Lakeview.

For the wedding dinner at the Prima Donna the bride changed to a white sheath dress with gold accessories, and her bouquet orchid. Attending the wedding were the bride's parents; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harvey; her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Kuempel; Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Eugene Angele, all of Lakeview, and Blake Jones of Klamath Falls. The newlyweds will make their home in Lakeview.

Emmett Lahodas Note Golden Wedding Date

MALIN — Thermometers registered 22 degrees below zero and two feet of snow covered the ground on Jan. 22, 1913, when at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zumpfe in Malin, their daughter, Anna, exchanged wedding vows with Emmett Lahoda. Because there was no minister nearby in those early days of the community, the marriage ceremony was officiated by Justice of the Peace Wall Adams. The wedding reception and dance were held following the service in the Bohemian Hall. Attendants for the bridal pair were the bride's sisters, Helen, now Mrs. Helen Meyer of Gregory, S.D., and Marie, Mrs. Fred Drexel of The Dalles, and brother, Joe Zumpfe, now residing in Harbor. Fifty years later, on Sunday, Jan. 20, a day considerably warmer than the wedding day and without a trace of snow on the ground, Mr. and Mrs. Lahoda received the best wishes of their friends on the anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. Lahoda's sister and sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Petrik of Merrill and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe, poured punch.

Merrill Women of the Moose were in charge of refreshments. Mrs. Joe Lahoda and Mrs. Leonard Lahoda attended the guest book, which was placed on a table covered with an heirloom hand-crocheted cloth. With the book was a money tree and wedding pictures of the honored couple. During the reception Mrs. Jim Bunnell played incidental organ selections. For a program, Mrs. Halbert Wilson composed and read a poem, "When Anna and Emmett Were Married." Another original poem, "History of the Couple," was presented by Mrs. J. Walter Browning. Mrs. Browning also introduced the Lahoda's sons and gave a bouquet of gold chrysanthemums and white carnations to Wayne Lahoda, who in turn presented them to his grandmother. The couple has three other grandsons.

Approximately 200 guests were present at the reception in the Malin Community Hall, arranged by the couple's sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lahoda, Sprague River, Paul Lahoda, Malin, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lahoda, Walker AFB, Roswell, N.M.

Among the special guests for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe of Harbor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drexel of The Dalles, Frank Netik, Talent, and Mrs. Mamie Giacomini of Merrill, who was the organist for the Lahoda's wedding.

The hall was unusually decorated for the open house by Mrs. J. Walter Browning, who used the decor of the early 1900's as her theme. One side of the room was transformed into an "antique center" with chairs, lamps, tables and other items of the early era.

Mr. and Mrs. Lahoda were seated in lovely old chairs as they greeted their guests. A background was a white arch made by Paul Lahoda, which was a trimmed with red roses and bore the full names of the honored pair and the date, 1913.

The refreshment table, L-shaped and covered with gold tulle over white, caught at the corners with gold rosettes, was centered with a gold tree surrounded with an arrangement of gold roses, bells and gold wood forms. In the L of the table, facing the hall, four gold bells and gold ribbon were table covering.

The wedding cake was topped with gold numerals 50 in a heart shaped of gold roses. From four heart-shaped cakes forming the base of the elaborate confection were gold colonnades supporting three more tiers, each decorated with golden butterflies, swans, flowers and bells. Gold tapers and holders completed the table setting.

The cake was served by Mrs. Fred Drexel. Mrs. Lahoda's sister, and Mrs. Bill Gasser, a niece. Presiding at the coffee service was Mrs. Ray Kucera.

Beauty Note

If you apply a face cream and massage before going to bed—and it's a good idea to keep your skin supple and help it retain moisture—easy does it. A light helping of cream and a light massage are all you need.

But, there is no reason to retire with a film of cream covering your face. In 20 minutes, your skin will absorb all of the cream it needs. The benefit of 20 minutes is just as great to your skin as is 10 hours of cream. So, after 20 minutes or so, tissue off your skin. It'll eliminate that greasy, pig look and save your sheets and pillowcase.

FASHIONETTES

Romantic belle hair fashions will add the crowning element of grace and ease to the smart you look in the fashion picture for spring and summer, according to the official hair committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. The new fashions have a free and easy down line of bouncing waves and curls for daytime wear. For evening, the waves can be brushed up.
