

Reno Chapel Wedding Site

LAKEVIEW—At a candlelight ceremony on Dec. 29, at 2 p.m., in the Parks Wedding Chapel at Reno Sheila Maureen Gilbert and Ronald Woods were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Gilbert of Lakeview, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Woods of Alturas.

Attendants for the couple were his brother, Alton, and wife, Patricia, whose wedding ceremony had just been performed in the chapel. The clergyman for both weddings was the Rev. Warren D. Ward of Reno.

Baskets of pink and white roses with pink ribbon bows marking the pews made up the decorations for the chapel.

The bride wore a white chiffon street length dress, with white lace jacket. A short veil on a headband made up her headdress. Her corsage was a purple orchid. She later changed to a beige wool dress and coat worn with beige accessories.

The parents of both young people were among the 24 members who made up the wedding party.

The bride is a graduate of Lakeview High School and has been employed in the office of the district attorney. He was graduated from Modoc Union High School in Alturas. They are making their home in Alturas where he is a linotype operator for the Modoc Record.

Job's Bethel Installation

Nancy McClure was installed as honored queen of Job's Daughters Bethel 61, Dec. 29, at the Scottish Rite Temple. "Queen Nancy" in silver letters, red tapers and silver fern arrangements decorated the east.

Installing officers were Retiring Honored Queen Cheryl Ball; guide, Susan Parisotto; marshal, Susan Runge; recorder, Nancy Nicol; chaplain, Patty Bratton; musician, Janice LaGrande; soloist, Sue Ann Owens; senior custodian, Susan Cannon; junior custodian, Laurie Bruns. Candlelighters were Betty Holmes and Linda Warren. Steven and Teresa Lundgren were the Bible bearers. Janice McCornack was in charge of the guest book and programs.

All officers carried emblematic bouquets of lily-of-the-valley. Installed were honored queen, Nancy McClure; senior princess, Sally Hanville; junior princess, Jane Neece; guide, Suana Whytal; marshal, Annette Fredrickson; chaplain, Jody Bedard; treasurer Cheryl Ringham; recorder, Sharon Randle; librarian, Susan Douglas; musician, Nancy Clark; first messenger, Carol Westfold; second messenger, Susan Lusk; third messenger, Stephanie Guderian; fourth messenger, Cheryl Eccles; fifth messenger, Jacqueline Tesch; senior custodian, Pamela Keys; junior custodian, Myrna Lichtenstein; inner guard, Georgan Gates; outer guard, Carol Leeb; assistant recorder, Marilyn Whitney, historian, Janice Scholten; lady of the lights, Virginia Van Pelt; soloist, Sandra Ruonich; flag bearer, Linda Warren.

During the ceremonies, Sue Ann Owens accompanied by Janice LaGrande, sang "My Task" and "The Lord's Prayer." The Klamath Falls Chapter of the Order of the DeMolay under the direction of John Otterbein, master counselor, assisted in the installation ceremonies.

Introductions included Mrs. Geneva Salt, royal matron of Friendship Court, Order of the Amaranth, who presented Queen Nancy with her white Bible; O. E. Alley, associate guardian of Bethel No. 61; Thomas C. Barnes, who was making his official visit. He is a member of Oriental Chapter, Lakeview.

Henry Bergstrom gave a report on the Eastern Star Home in Portland for senior members and asked for continued support of the home.

Entertainment included numbers by guitar students from Klamath Music Center and an acrobatic ballet number by Geraldine Hartley, granddaughter of Larry Fitzsimons.

"Old Father Time" presented Verda Scribner with a "New Year Baby" and Mary Anderson provided a cake for officers to decorate with roses and candles in honor of Mrs. Scribner's birthday.

Refreshments were served by Ruth Hageman, Alice Malburn, Sarah McMillan, Joyce Lanphear, Glenn Hageman and Wayne Malburn.

All members are urged to attend the next meeting on Jan. 23, which will be initiation night.

DRIVE SETS RECORD

NEW YORK (UPI) — The national chairman for United Community Campaigns of America has announced the collection of a record $20 million in this season's United Fund and Community Chest drive.

Oliver G. Willis made the announcement at a meeting Tuesday during which volunteer leaders from various segments of the population were honored for their services in the campaign launched last September.

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

ALTURAS GARDEN CLUB

The new year 1963 finds the Alturas Garden Club looking forward to a busy year and looking back on a year of accomplishment in 1962.

The Christmas meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Carstens, which was beautiful in its holiday decor. Refreshments were flaming plum puddings.

Reports of the holiday festival in November told of a most successful affair.

Twelve members were present at the January meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Russ Enderlin. Reports were heard on the Christmas lighting program and thanks given to Pacific Power and Light Company, Copco Division for its sponsorship with the club. Club members urge all residents to plan in advance for next year so that the display will be even better than the one just past.

A letter was read from Ed Gasaway, former resident of Alturas now living in Texas. He told how he, as an employee of the NCO Railroad, had moved the building which is now the clubhouse to its present location.

Mrs. Robert Schluter showed slides taken by Kathryn Decker, past president, of flower arrangements shown in former shows staged by the Alturas Garden Club.

Plans were formulated for a card party late in February.

CHILOQUIN — A bridal shower honoring Cindy Martinez was given Jan. 17 at the home of Doris Kircher. Hostesses were Doris Kircher, Donna Kircher, Jimmy Lynn Doak, Dianne Haas, Judy David and Pearl Adamo.

Games were played by the 25 guests and prizes were won by Phyllis Bickers and Jo Chase.

The guest of honor was presented with a wishing well after each guest made a wish and dropped a penny into the well.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. David Bigby and Mrs. Harold Lipe of Klamath Falls.
