Burke Whips Fellow Texan To Win Lucky Golf Event

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Practice makes perfect for some people.

But it ruins the golf game of Jackie Burke—so he quit practicing and won the $9,000 Lucky International golf tournament Sunday.

Burke and runner-up Don January, a pair of talented Texans, headed for the $50,000, 90-hole marathon Desert Classic at Palm Springs today with $13,500 in their pockets after finishing one-two.

Burke, closing with a great four-under-par 67 on the final round, had a 276 score and collected $9,000, January, who had started the final round one shot in front of the field, had a closing 71 for 279 and $4,000.

"And we needed the money," cracked Jackie after the victory. "Between us we have eight kids to feed."

Burke, who will be 40 years old Tuesday, has been haunted by a hand injury for years. It finally forced him to give up the tour for about half of each year.

"It's so bad that I can't practice at all or it gets sore," said Jackie. "So I just quit practicing and take my chances in the tournaments."

He hasn't won since capturing the Buick Open at Flint, Mich., in 1961, when he also picked up a $9,000 first prize. But he played in only 21 tournaments last year, and he plans to play in even less this year.

Arnold Palmer, in a rut of pars, didn't get a birdie for 30 holes.

Driver Dies In Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Tragedy roared down the dirt track at Arizona State Fairgrounds again Sunday. Another racing driver was killed.

M. D. (Red) Seltzer, a 27-year-old father of two from Ontario, Calif., who drove only as a hobby, was killed during time trials for the 100-mile California Racing Association Western States Championship.

His car hit the crash wall on the backstretch, flipped over and over, and landed upside down across the track near the infield.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Good Samaritan Hospital. Billy Cantrell of San Gabriel, Calif., won the 100-mile race, which was marred by other accidents.

Last November, during the Bobby Ball Memorial Race—which except for this CRA event is the only race at the fairgrounds each year—a car rammed through a fence into the crowd, injuring about two dozen spectators.

And during the 1961 Bobby Ball race, the previous year, driver Al Keller was injured fatally.

So three of the last four events at the mile-long dirt track have produced accidents that ended in injury or death.

until the 18th Sunday. Even the fabled "Arnie's Army" deserted him and he finished with a 74 for a 265 and $500—far back of the leaders.

Charley Sifford, who four-putted the first green, George Knudson and Paul Harvey each wound up with 298 and each collected $2,633.

Dave Marr finished with a 65 for 281 to tie with Miller Barber, who had a 69, and they each collected $2,000.

Gary Player, who finished with a hot 64 for 283, won $1,262 and retained his lead as the tour's leading money winner with $10,702 with 298 and each collected $2,633.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sam Rice and Eppa Rixey displayed happiness mixed with bitterness and 87-year-old Elmer Flick said, "I figured I was too old for anybody to remember me."

That was the reaction of three of baseball's old-timers who were elected Sunday to the Hall of Fame along with John Clarkson.

Although Rice possessed the best credentials of the four new members, Rixey wasn't exactly a slouch. The six-foot-five southpaw, who was the tallest major league player of his time, pitched in the National League for 21 years, winning 266 games and losing 231.

Clarkson, a rubber-armed right-handed pitcher, won 53 games and lost 16 for Chicago of the National League in 1884. He pitched a no-hitter against Providence of the old NL the following year and retired in 1894 with a lifetime record of 328 victories against 176 losses. He died at the age of 47 in 1909.

Elsewhere, the weekend's action saw Spokane completely humiliate Edmonton Saturday. Spokane ran up a 12-1 massacre as Del Topoli and Steve Witnik both had hat tricks and Topoli contributed three assists for a fine six point evening.

Sunday, the medicine was the same but the dose milder as Spokane pulled out a 5-1 decision. Topoli hit another goal for the Flyers.

In another contest Sunday, mechanical Portland bounced Calgary 5-3 before another large crowd of 8,649. It was the Buckaroos' fourth straight and kept them eighth points ahead of the Seals in the Southern Division.

Bill Saunders hit his 22nd and 23rd goals of the campaign for Portland as the Stampede took their sixth straight loss.

HALEAH, Fla. (UPI)—Hitting away coasted to a two and one-half length triumph over Sunrise Flight in the $1,850 Royal Palm Handicap at Haleah.

DORTMUND, Germany (UPI)—Light heavyweight contender Erich Schoepner of Germany scored a 10-round decision over Von Clay of Philadelphia.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Baseball's playing rules committee voted to expand the strike zone to include the area between the batter's shoulders and his knees.

BELLEFAIR, Fla. (UPI)—Bruce Coffin of Marblehead, Mass., captured the 28th American Senior golf championship.

KANSAS CITY (UPI)—Dick Weber of St. Louis won the men's division of the $100,000 All-Star bowling tournament and Max Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., took the women's title.

IGLS, Austria (UPI)—The Italian pair of Eugenio Monti and Sergio Scotopoulos won the world two-man bobsled championship.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Veterans Committee of the baseball Hall of Fame elected oldtimers Sam Rice, Eppa Rixey, Elmer Flick and John Clarkson to the national shrine at Cooperstown.

PARIS (UPI)—Ozo of France captured the $80,000 Prix d'Amérique trotting classic at the Vincennes track.

Rixey, 71, former National League pitcher, also admitted he "was getting a little discouraged" after past rebuffs.

In addition to his advanced age, Flick attributed his failure to gain the Hall of Fame earlier to the fact that "I never had anybody pulling for me in these elections."

The former outfielder said he was informed of his selection by Branch Rickey, a member of the selection committee and a one-time American League rival.

"Rickey remembers me when I was good," Flick said, "and I'm sure he's the one responsible for my election."

San Francisco has finally inched ahead of Los Angeles in their fierce battle for second place in the Southern Division of the Western Hockey League.

The two teams broke attendance records in both cities in a weekend of action that produced a tie and a Seal win.

A Western Hockey League record crowd of 13,942 showed up at Los Angeles to watch the two teams skate to a 6-2 tie Saturday.

Al Nicholson of the Seals hit three goals.

Sunday, the Seals finally broke the point deadlock with a 4-0 win. Goalie Jim McLeod registered his second shutout and Ed Pangnabo hit a pair of tallies for the winners.

A Seal crowd of 10,209 flocked to the Cow Palace to watch that one.

The Seals are now 25-16-1 for 51 points and the Baldies 24-15-1 for 49 points.
