Lodges Seat New Officers

Under a canopy of blue, carrying out the theme of "My Blue Heaven," joint installation of Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, and Lost River Chapter of the Order of DeMolay was held at the Henley High School on Jan. 13.

Carole Ziegelmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ziegelmeyer, was crowned queen of Henley Bethel. Crowning of the new queen was performed by retiring Queen Sue Kenyon.

Other installing officers were Nancy Nicol, guide; Karen Grimes, marshal; Chandelle Horsley, senior custodian; Cheryl Ball, junior custodian; Linda Lanphear, chaplain; Pat Bratton, recorder; Sue Ann Owens, soloist; Janis LaGrande, musician; Claudia Malcomb and Ann Marshall, candlelighters.

Taking office with their new queen were Linda Taylor, senior princess; Sue Behler, junior princess; Alice Horsley, guide; Lona Berry, marshal. Appointed chairs included Julie McCollum, chaplain; Ann Breithaupt, treasurer; Janice Payne, recorder; Pam DeLap, librarian; Karen Dixon, musician; Pam Millard, senior custodian; Sherry Breithaupt, first messenger; Lynn Johnson, second messenger; Dawn Hale, third messenger; Kathy Mitchell, fourth messenger; Connie Stone, fifth messenger; Donna Moffit, inner guard; Paula Saho, outer guard; Debbie Colman, lady of the lights; Lois DeLap, soloist; Janet Sandwick, historian.

Choir members are Georgia Kiger, Judy Jackson, Marlyn Reppe, Betsy Baldwin, Janet Ground, Deanne Barrett and Peggy Baldwin.

Immediately following installation of the new Job's officers, Lost River DeMolay officers were installed. The gavel of the master counselor was given to Kent Gooding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gooding, by retiring Master Counselor Don Breithaupt.

Other installing officers, all graduating members of the Lost River Chapter were Ben Stoehsler, senior counselor; Ray Black, junior counselor; Charley Thompson, marshal; Mike Beymer, chaplain.

Chair movers were Bill Breithaupt and Ross Lanphear.

Janis LaGrande provided music for the DeMolay ceremony.

Immediately following the joint installation, the DeMolay Mothers Club served cake and punch from a beautifully decorated refreshment table.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Library Party Time Is Near

With last minute details now being checked, all is in readiness for the annual benefit tea and card party of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club, according to Mrs. George Blanas, general chairman.

The party, which will benefit in part the intercommunity hospital fund, will be held in the Willard Hotel on Saturday, Feb. 2, beginning at 1 p.m. Mrs. Lee Yoder, chairman of cards, states that all card games will be in play and asks guests to bring their own playing cards.

As special entertainment, Mrs. John Lake has coordinated a fashion show with styles from the Bon Bazaar and Fashion Villa. The show will be presented at 2 p.m. during the card playing time with models strolling among the tables to give everyone a better view of garments.

The fashion revue was also planned to be of interest to women not playing cards, who are cordially invited to come to the show and enjoy tea which will be served at that time.

Background music will be played by Marie Obenchain.

Although reservations are not necessary, those wishing to do so may call Mrs. L. V. Leslie at TU 4-8802, or Mrs. Leroy F. Carter, TU 4-5881.

Mount Shasta Soroptimists

MOUNT SHASTA — Soroptimist Club of Mount Shasta, at its regular breakfast meeting Jan. 23 heard a review and explanation of the club's by-laws, by Olivia Thebolt.

Lucille Gardner, Bertha Lanthier and Wilhelmina Clement attended the Area Council meeting, Southwest Region, in Paradise Jan. 20, and Mrs. Gardner gave a report on it.

Bertha Lanthier brought up the citizenship award and Donna Krause volunteered to interview high schools in this area to determine a girl to sponsor as a possible recipient of the $2000 scholarship, which is awarded by the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas.

The Regional Conference will be held April 26-27-28 at the Wagon-wheel in South Tahoe.
