Homemade Decals

By Garna Silke

Have a pile of comic cartoons on hand, plus several sheets of blank paper, a piece of white candle, and a spoon for each player. Players sit at the table, choose their cartoon, rub the candle over the blank paper, then press the cartoon on this paper with the back of the spoon. Each player can take his decals home.

The Unmovable Penny

By Betty Kahn

Place three pennies in a row. Then say, "Want to see me move the penny-in-the-middle from its place in the center without even touching it?"

This is the way to do this. Just move the penny on the end to the opposite side. See?
The penny-in-the-middle will now be a penny-on-the-end. And you never touched that one!

Kangaroo Jump—A Game for Boys

Hold a ball or a balloon between your knees. Hold it tight. Now jump your way to the other side of the room and back, still holding the balloon in place. If the balloon falls, replace it between your knees and continue your trip. Two players can play at once; first kangaroo to get back to the starting line wins the jump!

Tongue Twister

The big black bug bit a big black bear.

Picnic in the Snow By Clarence Biers
