

Adenauer Asked To Explain Plan To Revive Mart Talk

By JOHN A. CALLCOTT
 United Press International
 BONN, Germany (UPI)—The opposition Socialists today demanded Chancellor Konrad Adenauer explain clearly how he hopes to revive negotiations on British entrance into the Common Market.

Erich Ollenhauer was prepared to make the demands in debate on Adenauer's foreign policy statement Wednesday.

The Socialists want Adenauer to tell whether he is ready to ask French President Charles de Gaulle to ease up on his stand against British entry and how he intends to get the talks going again.

Adenauer told Parliament Wednesday West Germany wants continued close ties with Washington, welcomes reconciliation with France, wants Britain in the Common Market and supports the creation of a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) multi-lateral nuclear deterrent.
