

Farm Bureau Concerned Over Grazing Land Use

ALTURAS—The Modoc County Farm Bureau, in a statement prepared before the Public Lands subcommittee, has urged that a livestock grazing on public lands be considered a major use and not a secondary one.

Modoc County representative, Jack F. Tuteur of Likely, pointed out that the livestock operations in Modoc are 70 to 75 per cent dependent on Bureau of Land Management land. Siskiyou, 20 per cent to 25, and Lassen, 65 to 70 per cent.

Tuteur explained the farm bureau appeal: "We are agreed that the federal government should keep in ownership and control of the bulk of public lands and that multiple use can be practiced on these lands. Portions of this land, when properly classified should be turned to single use and private ownership."

"We believe that BLM should be administered under law instead of regulations."

"We believe that grazing should be considered a major use of these public lands and not a secondary use. The livestock industry in our counties is a major source of income."

Sore Throat

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John XXIII, suffering from a cold and sore throat he caught watching a rare Roman snowstorm, was reported feeling better today and continuing his normal work load.

A high Vatican source said the pontiff's voice was clearer this morning and he appeared to be in good spirits.

The pontiff, 81, who recently recovered from a serious stomach ailment complicated by anemia, spent the morning receiving Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, secretary of the Holy Office, and other aides.

Egg-Tossing Incident Investigated By Police

A Klamath Falls resident was arrested Tuesday for being drunk and discharging firearms in the city limits, and police are investigating an incident in which youths are suspected of pelting a man's residence with eggs against a grudge.

M. G. Martin, 527 South Fourth Street, was taken into custody Tuesday night after Israel Gladus, 409 Willow Street, complained that Martin entered his house, waived a .22 caliber pistol in front of his face making a threatening remark, and fired the pistol at a door knob and light bulb.

Police found one of the discharged cartridges in Gladus' home and found the pistol and investigating the matter.

Brown gave police a description of the car and they are investigating the matter.
