

Owl Wrestlers Whip Red Raiders, 16-13

The Oregon Tech wrestling team trailed 2-0 throughout all the first and most of the second round when he received a one-point infraction. Moses was content to ride out the match and try to win on riding time and also keep his one point margin. Appleman gave Moses an escape point in the last 30 seconds after he had ridden long enough to nullify Moses' riding point time. He gave him the escape so he could shoot for the takedown and he got it with 22 seconds left to tie the match. He held on for the tie and the OTI victory.

Milo Crumrine won the opening bout when he used a pair of takedowns, an escape and one-point riding time to blank Douglas Smith, 3-0, in the opening 123-pound match. Crumrine still is undefeated in six matches. He has won one time and pinned two foes.

Dennis Sather gave the Owls a lead they needed when he won the second match to overcome the five-point forfeit the Owls gave SOC to open the match because of the heavyweight forfeit. He took a 4-2 decision from Gerry Holmes in the 130-pound class. He used a reversal and takedown for the victory. He is unbeaten in seven bouts.

Hank Isenhart lost the first OTI match when Trenton Douglas blanked the Owl 137-pounder, 6-0. Isenhart beat Douglas last week, 4-2. Douglas had a three-point near fall and a reversal and riding time. Isenhart is 5-2 for the season.

Ken Kinnear put the Owls nearer the victory column when he took a 6-4 decision from Jack McKay in a tough 147-pound bout. He had an escape, a takedown, a reversal and riding time to McKay's takedown and a pair of escapes. Kinnear is 4-3 for the season.

OWL SCORES — Oregon Tech's John Norton is applying the pressure to Southern Oregon's Dave Buck as he flips the Red Raider in the process of gaining a reversal for two points. Norton won the match when Buck was injured and had to retire from the match. The Owls won the meet, 16-13.

THE WINNING POINTS COMING UP — Oregon Tech's Ed Appleman, a 177-pounder, is in the process of taking down Southern Oregon's Glen Moses which gained him two points and a 3-3 tie with the SOC wrestler. The tie enabled Oregon Tech to whip SOC for the second time in a row, 16-13. A loss would have tied the score at 14-14. Referee Delance Duncan watches the action.

Wittenberg Tops Small Team Poll Fourth Straight Week

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wittenberg's well-balanced Tigers, boasting the nation's best defense, topped the United Press International small college basketball ratings for the fourth straight week today.

Wittenberg, which took over as the nation's leading small college team four weeks ago, was picked No. 1 by 23 of the 35 coaches who comprise the UPI ratings board. That gave the Tigers a wide lead over Southeast Missouri, which moved up to the runner-up spot this week, swapping places with Grambling.

Wittenberg has been beaten only once in 14 games, while Southeast Missouri, the top choice of three coaches, has lost once in 18 games. Grambling (17-2) suffered its second defeat of the season last week—bowing to Prairie View A&M, ranked sixth, 92-89. Grambling was picked No. 1 by four coaches.

Evansville (14-3) held fourth place, Tennessee State (13-3) remained fifth and Prairie View (13-3) took over undisputed possession of sixth. Last week, Prairie View tied for sixth with Westminster (Pa.).

Akron, which joined the top 10 for the first time a week ago, continued its advance, adding victories over Hiram and Wooster during the week for a 16-record that earned the Zips the No. 7 ranking.

Westminster (9-3), which had led the ratings for six straight weeks before giving way to Wittenberg, was eighth this week, with Southern Illinois (11-6), in eighth a week ago, slipping to ninth and Fresno State (13-3) was 10th. Fresno joined the select group for the first time this season after leading the second 10 grouping almost every week of the campaign.

Making room for Fresno State's advance was Southeastern Oklahoma, which slipped from ninth to 11th. The Oklahoma school lost its fifth game in 18 starts last week, bowing to East Central State, 67-66.

Following Southeastern Oklahoma in the second 10 were Hofstra, Augsburg, Orange State, Regis, Santa Barbara, Pacific Lutheran, Lamar Tech, South Dakota State and Indiana State in that order.

Seattle's Vince Cazzetta Resigns Basketball Post

SEATTLE (UPI) — Vince Cazzetta, popular and successful basketball coach at Seattle University, kept his eye on an NCAA tournament bid for his team today despite the furor over his sudden resignation.

"I'm sure we'll continue our winning ways the rest of the year and we plan to make it to the tournament," he said Wednesday shortly after announcing his resignation. "I know the boys will battle hard."

"After that, I can't foretell the future. But I wish the school only the very best of success in the future."

Cazzetta in his statement charged the school's athletic director, Eddie O'Brien, a former Chief, with "interference" in the operation of the school's basketball program.

Before sending his letter of resignation to The Very Rev. A.S. Lemieux, S.J., president of the school, Cazzetta broke the news to his team.

"It was the hardest thing I ever had to do," he said.

Cazzetta's letter said in part that "O'Brien repeatedly erected roadblocks, either by accident or design, that have had a stifling effect and made my position both untenable and uncomfortable."

University officials denied such interference had taken place. O'Brien, who teamed with his twin brother Johnny to catapult the Chiefs into national basketball prominence, denied he had interfered in basketball recruiting and said scheduling always has been the coach's job, subject to the approval of the athletic director.

O'Brien said the basic problem was that Cazzetta had given the university "an ultimatum" to change its policies and set up the basketball coach separate from the athletic director.

The 37-year-old Cazzetta draws a salary of $8,600 and during his 4½-year tenure his teams have won 90 and lost 37. This year the Chiefs are 14-4 and appear on the road to another tournament bid.

Cazzetta's resignation stunned the athletic world here. He was immensely popular with fans, players and even referees.

Gill Indicates Starting Five

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Coach Slat Gill of Oregon State indicated today he would start Terry Baker, Jim Kraus, Mel Counts, Frank Peters and Jim Jarvis against the Portland Pilots in Portland Friday night. Steve Pauly would be the top-line reserve. These six players went all the way in last week's 66-60 win over Seattle.

Baker is expected to be able to play despite a sore toe.

The Beavers and Pilots meet here Saturday night.

Ducks Prepare For Vandals

EUGENE (UPI) — Oregon's basketball team held a light drill today in preparation for a two-game series at Moscow, Idaho, Friday and Saturday against the Idaho Vandals.

Idaho recently defeated Oregon twice here.

74.5% vote Valiant best in nationwide consumer survey

"Like to test-drive the 1963 compacts?" That's what Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute—a completely independent company—recently asked 3600 typical drivers in 18 cities across the country.

The people were asked to test-drive two compacts. Some picked Corvair and Valiant. Some picked Falcon and Valiant. Some wanted to try Rambler or Chevy II. The course included all kinds of normal driving.

Drivers circled the course twice (once in each car) with N.C.T.I.'s trained interviewers firing questions all the way. Which of these cars do you prefer for acceleration? Ride? Steering? Styling? Finally: which is the best all-around value?

The surprising results:

Compact preference	Rambler	Valiant	Chevy II	Valiant	Corvair	Valiant	Falcon	Valiant	Average four compacts - Valiant
Interior styling	25%	75%	30%	70%	27%	73%	44%	56%	33%
Exterior styling	24	76	48	52	39	61	41	59	38
Quality of workmanship	38	62	40	60	36	64	44	56	40
Acceleration	17	83	48	52	21	79	25	75	28
Passing power	17	83	45	55	21	79	24	76	27
Roominess	35	65	56	44	30	70	44	56	41
Steering	26	74	31	69	37	63	29	71	31
Ride	27	73	33	67	29	71	26	74	29
BEST ALL-AROUND VALUE	17	83	34	66	24	76	27	73	25.5

Two things were not tested—price and warranty. But remember that Valiant is just about the lowest-priced car made in the U.S.A. today. And that Valiant carries America's longest and best new-car warranty—5 years or 50,000 miles.* Ask your Plymouth-Valiant Dealer for your own independent test drive in The New Valiant.

*Your Authorized Plymouth-Valiant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 3 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential; and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Valiant Certified Car Care schedule.

Best all-around compact anybody has come up with yet... VALIANT!

In Dallas, 74% voted Valiant best value. In Syracuse, 78% voted Valiant best value. In Los Angeles, 77% voted Valiant best value.
