WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Party Honors Future Bride

ALTURAS—A coffee honoring the engagement of her daughter, Judy, to Richard Phillips was given Jan. 24 by Mrs. Bert Larsen. More than 60 friends of the bride-to-be attended the affair. Receiving guests were Mrs. Larsen, Judy and Mrs. Neil Phillips. The tea table was centered with white chrysanthemums and pink carnations, interwoven with a pink ribbon bearing the silver lettered names of Judy and Dick. Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. Chris Starr, Mrs. Delman FETED — Judy Larsen, future bride of Richard Phillips, was the inspiration for a party given by her mother, Mrs. Bert Larsen at her home in Alturas on Jan. 24.

BIRTHDAY PARTY — Mrs. Charles Roberts Jr. gave a birthday party Jan. 27 for her son, Steven, who was seven years old that day. High light of the afternoon was the birthday cake made in the shape of a horse, served with other party refreshments. Attending were Steven, Rodney and Cindy Roberts, Daryn and Daemon Dye, George, Christine and Jeanne Simmons, Linda, Peggy and Robbie Roberts, Bryan, Danny and Gregory Hubble and Jerry Bradshaw.

Valentine Dance Set

DUNSMUIR — Saturday, Feb. 9, has been announced as the date of the annual Valentine Ball, the major social event on the calendar of Kappa Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

This event will be held in the Maple Room of the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple and will feature the music of Charles Barret's combo. Members of Xi Zeta Zeta exemplary chapter and sorority members in Mount Shasta are to be among the invited guests.

Crowning of chapter Valentine queens is a traditional highlight of the evening and a buffet supper will follow the dancing.

Committees are headed by Mrs. A. K. Jacobson, decorations; Mrs. Von Summers, decoration co-chairman; Mrs. Orville Chenoweth, supper; and Mrs. James Plank, bids. Mrs. William Febrero, social chairman for Kappa Phi Chapter, is coordinating the dance plans.

A new phone has proved an aid to the blind. It automatically dials by means of pre-punched plastic cards. By embossing names in Braille on the cards, a blind person can read the name he desires, insert the card and push a start bar to make calls easily.

Knits Ideal For Any Wear

NEW YORK (NEA) — The girl who plans a midwinter vacation in the tropics will find cotton knit playtime separates and suit ensembles ideal holiday companions.

Gaily colored hooded boating jackets, tennis-inspired pull-overs, trim three-part suit costumes and sleeveless knit sheaths will provide a carefree wardrobe that will take her through day and evening.

Today's knits, whether wool or cotton, are fashion miracles. Read the labels when you shop to be sure you are taking with you the kind of wardrobe that will give you around-the-clock chic, with little or no care.

If the hang tag says your knit will not wrinkle, it won't wrinkle. And if washing instructions are given, they can be followed with complete assurance.

Designed to span the seasons with the greatest of ease, knit fashions have become the mainstay of nearly every woman's wardrobe. And even the girl who won't be spending a winter holiday in the sun will find much to please her among the cruise and resort knits.

She can make the transition from winter to spring in separates that have a suit look. The color palette includes chunky pinks and blues and warm yellows which

POLLY'S POINTERS

End Soggy Sandwiches

POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY—To keep lunch-box sandwiches from becoming soggy, I use two thin slices of meat instead of one thick one and spread my sandwich "fixings" such as catsup, chili sauce or mayonnaise between the slices of meat.

"Finger foods" such as radishes, carrot sticks and celery that go in lunch boxes can be wrapped in aluminum foil and put in baby food jars with a small ice cube.

OHOLA
Girls—This is one to remember for summer picnics. POLLY

DEAR POLLY—Take a large or small sponge and hollow out a space in the center large enough to hold a bar of toilet soap. Keep it on your washboard and use it to clean the bowl.

A STEADY READER

DEAR POLLY—To prevent scratching the tenders of your car when backing out of the garage, tack a section of an old inner tube on each side of the garage entrance.

A clean dropper makes a fine kitchen accessory for measuring liquid food coloring. To clean it, squish the dropper in and out of hot soap or detergent suds. Follow with several warm rinses.

MRS. M. E. DEAR POLLY—A dressing in-ble drawer may seem like an odd place to keep the pliers. But that is where I have kept one for years. It opens nail polish bottles, presses that last bit of toothpaste from the tube and squeezes opened baby pins.

GIRLS—There is no reason for keeping things in the same old places if they are more useful elsewhere. All of us are looking for that everyday way to do the same old everyday chores.

DEAR POLLY—Ballpoint ink stains may be removed from materials, furniture or from the skin by using rubbing alcohol. To remove from materials, simply place the spot over a padded thickness of old towel. Then wet a small rag with alcohol and rub vigorously over the spot. You may have to move it about and wet a fresh rag if the spot is stubborn, but it will work even on shirts and things that have been laundered several times. Be sure to rinse well after using the alcohol. Just thought the girls would like to know that rubbing alcohol is good for something other than aches and pains.
