

Couple Wed In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW—The wedding ceremony uniting Sherrill Mae Banister and James O. Howard was performed at the First Presbyterian Church at two o'clock Saturday, Jan. 12, against a background of green boughs and baskets of aqua and white chrysanthemum and white stock.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elysa Tesche. Organist was Mrs. Wesley Dollarhide, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin F. Banister of Lakeview are the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Howard of North Little Rock, Ark., are the bridegroom's parents.

LAKEVIEW BRIDE — Mrs. James O. Howard was Sherrill Mae Banister before her Jan. 12 marriage. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin F. Banister of Lakeview. The newlyweds will make their home in North Little Rock, Ark., while the bridegroom attends University of Arkansas.

The bride's ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace featured a portrait neckline outlined with seed pearls, a basque bodice and bracelet length sleeves. Her fingertip length illusion veil was fastened to a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a cascading bouquet of yellow carnations and white lilies of the valley with a centerpiece of yellow rosebuds.

Maid of honor for her sister was Karen Banister. She wore a frock of aqua taffeta and chiffon and carried a nosegay bouquet of white and aqua carnations. Her headpiece was white with a short veil.

Best man was Lou Nowlin of Kingsley Field, Klamath Falls, and the usher was Wayne Weideman of Lakeview.

Mrs. Banister's costume for the wedding was a suit of cocoa brown and beige with matching accessories. Mrs. Howard chose a cream and gold lace dress with black accessories.

The banquet room at Hunter's Lodge was the scene of the wedding reception. Bouquets of chrysanthemums and silver and white wedding bells decorated the room. The cake was served by Mrs. Joe Banister. Mrs. George Elder served the punch; and the coffee was poured by Mrs. Julius Pauck and Mrs. Herbert Hadley. Karen Banister attended the guest book and Mrs. Lou Nowlin was at the gift table.

For traveling the bride changed to a winter white suit dress accented by a pin which was a gift of the bridegroom. Her accessories were cream and beige. The couple left for a wedding trip to Denver, Colo., and from there to North Little Rock, Ark., where the bridegroom is attending the University of Arkansas as a forestry major.

Attending from out-of-town were Mrs. Lester J. Howard, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Howard Pick, Mrs. Al Roberson, Mrs. M. Brazelton, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Lucy Sass, the bride's grandmother, Elaine Pick and Marilyn Hillhouse, cousins of the bride, of Redding; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hadley, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tillavou, all of Bly.

Soroptimists To Aid Project

MOUNT SHASTA — At its regular breakfast meeting Jan. 30, Soroptimist Club of Mount Shasta learned it has been invited to help host members of the International Travel Education Foundation, a non-profit body devoted to building better international understanding through the "People to People" committee. Approximately 400 English speaking European teachers will be visiting this country during the Easter holidays. This "People to People" project is the first within the Soroptimist scope which the "People to People" group headed by former President Eisenhower has invited Soroptimist Clubs to take part. In the other business a ravioli sale was tentatively planned for March, with Darlene Cheula, chairman. A name for the news bulletin,

"Mount Shasta Murmers," was selected. Aileen Summers and Bertha Lanthier comprise the editorial staff and the bulletin will be issued monthly. Rilla Petersen gave a report on her $150 vocational training scholarship committee's work. This will be the fourth scholarship awarded by this club.

Donna Krausse gave a resume of work being done by her committee on the Award of Merit project, in which all June, 1963, graduating seniors are eligible to participate. It is a $2,500 award, not a scholarship.

Most of the early school teachers in Ohio were men.

DRESS-UP POINTERS

When you shop for a dress, be sure to examine the hem depth and seams, and be sure that the dress is lined if the skirt is straight. The hem should be at least 1 1/2 inches deep, and seams should be pinked to prevent fraying.
