

School Head Bethel 61 To Be Speaker

Marjorie G. McBride, superintendent of Hillcrest School of Oregon, will address the luncheon meeting of the American Association of University Women Saturday, Feb. 16, at 12:30 p.m. at the Winema Hotel. At one time the youngest woman in the United States to hold such a position, Miss McBride became superintendent at Hillcrest in 1954. She had previously been a service club director for the United States Army in Japan. She was born, raised, and had her primary and secondary schooling in Billings, Mont. She has an M.A. from Syracuse University in Syracuse, N.Y., and a B.A. from Linfield College, McMinnville. Treatment of girl juvenile delinquents will be the subject to be discussed.

Results of the statewide community survey will be presented by State Legislative Chairman Mrs. A. H. Patterson at this time.

Oberlin College became the first coeducational college in the U.S. in 1837.

Honored Queen Nancy McClure and her new officers presided at the Jan. 21 regular meeting of Bethel 61, Order of Job's Daughters. A large number of parents were in attendance for the meeting which was designated to honor them.

Honored guests included Virginia McClure and Larry Whytal, past guardian and associate guardian, respectively.

Plans were discussed for a Hawaiian luau dance to be held in the near future.

It was decided to send a donation to Guam to help with repairs to the roof of the Scottish Rite Temple which was blown off in a recent storm.

Refreshments were served after the lodge meeting. Entertaining the guests with songs in a gay mood were Sandy Ruonich and Stephanie Guderian singing as a duet with Sandy playing the piano accompaniment.

A cakewalk was also part of the planned program.

Dennis Todds Have Girl

From Dreux, Germany, comes word of the birth of a baby girl, their first child, to Li and Mrs. Dennis Todd on Feb. 5. The new arrival weighed 8 pounds, 9 ounces at birth and will be named Elizabeth Ann.

Lisa, as she will be affectionately known to her family, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd of Klamath Falls, and is the first grandchild to Mr. and Lane Warren, Indio, Calif., former residents of this city.

Mrs. Todd will be remembered as the former Nancy Warren.

Mariners Meet In Malin

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard, Merrill, showed slides of their recent trip to South America at the Jan. 30 meeting of the Malin Mariners of the Malin Presbyterian Church. The Gerry Browns and Leonard Wills were hosts.

A discussion, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blohm, skippers, was held on publishing the Mariners' cookbook and turning the rug in the church sanctuary. It was voted to donate $50 to the church for necessary rewiring.

The Merrill Mariners will be dinner guests of the Malin group Feb. 20 at the church. Arrangements will be made by Mrs. Phillip Blohm, dinner; Mrs. Gerry Brown, Mrs. Leonard Wills, and Mrs. Ethen Whitman, entertainment; and Mrs. Norman Jacob and Mrs. Halbert Wilson, decorations.

Toketee Aux. Meets

The Ladies Auxiliary of Toketee Lions met Jan. 24 in the Green Room of the Winema Hotel with Mrs. Paul Suprenant as hostess.

The Klamath Chapter of the American Cancer Society provided a film, "Never Alone," and pamphlets on cancer detection.

Louis Corrigan from the Intercommunity Hospital speaker's bureau, gave an outline of the proposed hospital plans, cost and fund raising.

Following the program, members discussed plans for a potluck dinner to be held in February with husbands as guests.

RAILROAD PEOPLE MEET

MERRILL—The February meeting of Southern Pacific and Great Northern Railroad people was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Franco in Merrill. Musical entertainment was provided by members of the group and refreshments were served to complete the enjoyable evening.

Couple Wed In Medford

Virginia Ann Brown, daughter of former Bonanza residents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brown, living in Medford, and Douglas M. West were married Jan. 20 in Friend's Church in Medford. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. West of Arlington.

The Rev. Jack Wilcuts officiated at the double ring ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Orin Ogier and soloist, Mrs. Claude Lewis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace with chapel train. Seed pearls and rhinestones outlined the scoop neckline. A crown of pearls held the elbow length veil and she carried pink and white carnations with matching ribbon streamers.

Sylvia Adams of Gold Hill was maid of honor, dressed in a white sheath with lace jacket and small veiled hat. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Best man was the bridegroom's father, Alvin A. West. A reception was given in the Fireside Room of the church. Assisting were Mrs. Jack Wilcuts, Mrs. Richard Krupp and Mrs. Eula Adams.

The bride's going-away outfit was a gray suit with black accessories and carnation corsage. After a short honeymoon to the Oregon Coast, the young couple is at home on the A. A. West and Sons Ranch, Rock Creek, Star Route, Arlington.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hines, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown and Ben, Bill and Jim, Bonanza; Mr. and Mrs. Lynden Walker, Rhonda and Darrell, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Kyle

DONATE WOOLENS

NEW DELHI (UPI) — The Greek army today gave one thousand each of woolen sweaters, muffs and socks to the Indian army for use on the Himalayan frontier with China.

LEAVE MALIN

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Huffman left this week for Burns where they recently bought the Silver Spur Motel. He has spent the past 13 years in the lower Klamath Basin as serial applicator.
