

Officers' "Advance Night" was the occasion for the meeting of Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, held at the Masonic Temple Saturday, Jan. 12. Noble Prophetess Myrtle Schieferstein and Associate Watchman of Shepherds Clyde Brown were presiding officers in the East for the opening and closing ceremonies with Lois and Lloyd Murphy, worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds in charge of business. Other line officers advancing were Chaplain Ruth Geiss as noble prophetess; Worthy Shepherdess Edith Mitchell as chaplain, and Guide Madge Brown as worthy shepherdess.

Impressive memorial services were conducted by officers in loving memory of deceased Sojourners Mina Hoff, Dr. Harry Scribner, Irene Markham, Philip Behm, Grover Motley and Arlos Andrus. Background music was played by Alma Cofer at the piano as Chaplain Ruth Geiss gave a choral reading of "Near to the Heart of God" and a group of officers placed flowers on a large floral cross placed near the altar.

Past officers honored and introduced from the sidelines were Ruth Rodenberger, Luella Chilcote, Blanche Marks, Blanche Schulze and Aura Mitchell, past worthy high priestesses, and Jim Hunter, Jack Schulze and Almon Geiss, past watchmen of shepherds of Naomi Shrine.

Ruth Rodenberger was escorted to the East and presented with a gift from the Shrine honoring her recent installation as worthy matron of Tulelake Chapter Order Eastern Star.

Members were entertained by a clever skit narrated by James Hunter with Almon Geiss depicting a lowly ditchdigger singing "I'm the Child of a King." The narration portrayed a happy ditchdigger, rich with Jesus in his heart being viewed by a woman rich only in material wealth.

Following the business meeting and entertainment, refreshments were served in the dining hall by line officers, Lois and Lloyd Murphy, Myrtle Schieferstein, Ruth Geiss, Edith Mitchell and Madge and Clyde Brown.

The Feb. 8 meeting will feature "Men's Night" with Helen and Frank McCornack in charge.

George-Wittwer Vows Solemnized In January

The wedding vows of Kathleen Ann Wittwer and Robert L. George were solemnized Jan. 5 at the Rainier Methodist Church in an eight o'clock double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Robert Dowrey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wittwer of Rainier and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. George of Klamath Falls are the parents of the bridegroom.

Lavender and white chrysanthemums and white stock were arranged in floor baskets and in altar bouquets for the ceremony. Candelabra held tall white tapers.

The bridal gown of silk organza was made with long sleeves and full skirt with butterfly bow at the waist back. Seed pearls and crystals outlined the neckline and accented the skirt at intervals. A crown of seed pearls held the elbow length veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of lavender, vanda orchids with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Ronald Ogren of Seattle, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, dressed in a frock of lavender satin brocade. She carried a cascade of Sterling Silver roses.

Bridesmaids Nancy Wittwer and Joy Rosebraugh were dressed like the honor attendant. Their flowers were lavender roses.

Candlelighters were Janet Kallunki and Jill Johnson.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. John Rauch, Deane Tuck, accompanied by Mrs. Tuck, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

For the occasion, Mrs. Wittwer chose a pink brocade jacket dress with corsage of cymbidium orchid. Mrs. George wore a beige satin brocade dress and green orchid corsage.

Henry Pitcock of Portland was best man and ushers were Larry Stennick and Adolfo Velasco.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors where decorations were Sterling Silver roses and white carnations with white bells and lavender bows.

Assisting were sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. James Creswell and Mrs. Garret Hilyard, and Charles Rosebraugh, Mrs. Floyd Stehman, Mrs. Robert Booth, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Leona McKay, Mrs. Henry Dunivan, Mary Ann Dunivan, Rick Vance and Ron Vance.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Northern California. Mrs. George wore for traveling a brown two piece wool dress with beige accessories and a white cymbidium corsage. They are now at home in Portland at 2575 N. W. Marshall Street.

FUTURE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt of the Henley District announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to Paul Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gray of Redlands, Calif. Both young people are junior students in education at Oregon State University. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority and her fiance is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Drama Group To Stage Library Club Program

The Woman's Library Club of Klamath Falls will have the privilege of special entertainment at the meeting Monday, Feb. 11, at 2 p.m. in the city library club-room.

The Klamath Civic Theatre will present "Scenes and Sketches." Actors will be Nancy Hagerman, Don K. Bohmann and Peter Langreen.

The Klamath Civic Theatre was founded about two and a half years ago. The members are now interested in drama mainly as a hobby, although many studied the art in college days.

Peter Langreen, president of the theatre, studied drama at University of Oregon and was graduated from Southern Oregon College.

Don K. Bohmann is a graduate of Northwestern Drama School in Chicago and has had some professional acting experience.

Nancy Hagerman is a charter member of the group and is presently vice president.

The drama group's last presentation was "The Man in the Dog Suit" and they are planning another comedy, "Light up the Sky," to be presented near the last of April.

Mrs. Walter Brown is program chairman for the day and Mrs.

Arch Proctor and her committee will have charge of tea.

Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Alvin Oldham will be hostesses. Admission for non-members, who are cordially invited, is 75 cents.

ZCBJ Lodge Plans Feed

MALIN—Discussion of a "Jaternice" feed was the main subject on the agenda of the Jan. 26 monthly meeting of the ZCBJ Lodge, conducted by Frank Paygr, president.

A potluck dinner was followed by games. The next meeting will be Feb. 17 in the Community Hall.

Frank Paygr was appointed delegate to the national convention in Chicago. Vaclav Kalina is alternate.

YELLOW IS "IN"

For spring and summer, yellow will be a prominent fashion color. You'll see it in knits, linens, cottons and blends. Not pale yellow, but a bright, sunny shade that's luscious to look at.
