Americans Top Russian Team In Los Angeles Track Event

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The international stars, including the much publicized Russian track and field performers, were on their way home or to other meets today after most of them went down to defeat Saturday in the Los Angeles Indoor Games. Two members of the Russian team of three tasted defeat as Valery Brumel was beaten in the high jump by John Thomas, and Valery Buhilnev finished fourth in the 1,000-yard run. Only Igor Ter-Ovanesyan was victorious in the broad jump—and only by inches. New Zealand's Peter Snell departed with the expressed hope he could return here in May and not only take on his mile conqueror, Jim Grelle, outdoors but also test Sullivan Award winner Jim Beatty. Lesser foreigners who failed to gain victory in the indoor games included Finland's Olavi Salonen in the mile, Poland's Witold Baran in the 1,000-yard run, and a pair of women sprinters, Dorren Porter of New Zealand and Teresa Ciepla of Poland, in the women's 60-yard dash. The paths of most of those other than Snell probably will cross later this month in the national AAU indoor championships at New York. This Friday, Thomas and Ralph Boston compete in the Golden Gate Games at San Francisco, while the Russians take part in the New York Athletic Club meet at Madison Square Garden. Thomas and Brumel Saturday night both jumped 7 feet 3/4 inch, but the Russian had more misses before clearing the height and was placed second. It was Thomas' first win over the world record holder in eight meetings. Grelle beat Snell in the mile in 4:04.7, but the manner in which he did it was more impressive than the time. The U.S. runner took the lead at the three-quarter mark and Snell could not gain on him, finishing about 15 yards back. Ter-Ovanesyan's win over Boston in the broad jump proved more exciting than the high jump competition. Boston got off the first leap of 26 feet only to have the Russian jump 26-feet-3. The Olympic champion then got off two more 36-foot jumps but still fell 1 1/2 inches short. In the women's 60-yard dash, Marilyn White proved her victory over Wilma Rudolph a few weeks back was no fluke as she won in 7.6. Three other Oregon or former Oregon athletes did not fare as well as Grelle. Ray Van Asten of the Emerald Empire Athletic Association ran second to Bill Crothers of Toronto in the 1,000-yard run. Van Asten was timed in 2:14.7, nine-tenths of a second behind Crothers. George Kerr of Corvallis trailed Jack Yerman to the tape in the 600-yard run. Kerr's time was 1:11.2 and Yerman's 1:10.3. Former Oregon Stater Darrell Horn, competing for Oxnard Air Force Base, finished fourth in the broad jump with 24-1/4. fending champion Joe Joseph of Lansing, Mich., 236-103, purposefully didn't tell his wife that he won the Saturday night tournament. Marzich told newsmen he wanted his wife to "find out for herself."

Archer Meets Richardson On Boxing's Weekly Menu

NEW YORK (UPI)—A nationally televised middleweight fight at Madison Square Garden and a world junior lightweight title bout at Manila will feature this week's boxing. Joey Archer of New York, sixth ranking middleweight (160 pound) contender, meets baby-faced Blair Richardson, knockout specialist from Sydney, Nova Scotia, in Saturday night's television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Archer, 24, is favored at 12-5 because of his ranking and his experience against a generally better brand of opponents than those faced by unrated Richardson. Canadian Blair, 21, making his first Garden start, knocked out four of his last six opponents, including former British Empire champion Wilkie Greaves. Richardson's 36-3-1 record includes 31 knockouts. Archer lost but one of his 34 bouts and scored seven kayos in his 33 wins. Also on Saturday, at Manila, southpaw Flash Elorde of the Philippines will attempt his fifth defense of the world junior lightweight (130-pound) crown against 24-year-old Johnny Bizzaro of Erie, Pa., in the Rizal Stadium. Elorde is favored at 3-1. On Tuesday, at London's Royal Albert Hall, Brian Curvis of Wales defends his British Empire and British Isles' welterweight (147 pound) titles against Tony Smith, a grave digger of Bootle, Eng. Curvis is the 9-5 choice. The week's boxing schedule includes: MONDAY: Oakland, Calif. — Henry Hank vs. Sixto Rodriguez. Hollywood, Calif. (Moulin)—Curtis Cokes vs. Johnny Newman. Philadelphia (Cambria)—Gene Jackson vs. Lee Batts. TUESDAY: London (Albert Hall) — Brian Curvis vs. Tony Smith (British Empire welterweight title), New York (Sunnyside)—Joey Mangiapane vs. Tommy O'Connor. WEDNESDAY: Union City, N.J. — Jimmy Gorman vs. Baby Beau Jack. THURSDAY: Philadelphia (Horizon)—Dick Young vs. Dave Russell. Salt Lake City, Utah—Don Fullmer vs. Eddie Andrews. FRIDAY: Los Angeles (Olympic) — Danny Valdez vs. Licho Guerrero. SATURDAY: New York (Garden)—Joey Archer vs. Blair Richardson (TV), Manila — Flash Elorde vs. Johnny Bizzaro (jr. lightweight title).

Weather Stops Action In Phoenix Golf Meet

By HAL WOOD UPI Sports Writer PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer goes to the tee today in an attempt to win an unprecedented third consecutive Phoenix Open golf championship — weather permitting. The fourth round of the $35,000 event was scheduled to be played Sunday, but a combination of rain, wind and hail swept over the Arizona Country Club course in mid-afternoon, cancelling all scores. Several others, including Tony Lema, also were enjoying good rounds when the storm broke. Lema was three under par after two holes and only two shots back of Palmer. The storm broke out with such suddenness that thousands of fans were caught on the fairways and scattered in all directions. Some huddled under palm trees for protection from the biting sting of being hit by the large hailstones. The powerful wind caught up lawn furniture along the fairways and smashed them into fences. Trees came toppling down. Concession tents were uprooted and sandwiches and other food tossed about in the wind. When it was all over the whole course was pure white, covered with hailstones. An hour later the hailstones still were visible lying on the ground. One man died of a heart attack after running to the safety of the clubhouse. The telephone company estimated that damage to their equipment on the course would run close to $20,000. The tower for the television station covering the tournament blew down and the damage there was $2,000. Palmer goes into this round with a 54-hole total of 203 strokes — the same number he had when he teed off Sunday. He went only two holes before the storm broke and was even par. But Gary Player, who had started the day one shot behind him with 204, had finished four holes and was two under par, and theoretically in the tournament lead. Jack Nicklaus, winner of the Palm Springs classic last week, also was even par for the two holes he played Sunday. He is tied with Player.

Liston, Clay Stage Battle Over Words

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Heavyweight boxing champ Sonny Liston engaged brash Cassius Clay here Saturday in verbal battle that almost landed in the ring. Clay, No. 2 contender who predicts knockout rounds, was working out in a gym here Saturday night when the champ walked in unannounced. Clay, never at a loss for words, yelled, "Throw that guy out of here. This is my training headquarters. This place isn't big enough for both of us!" Sonny shot back, "The only reason it's not big enough is because I can catch you in here." Then the champ offered Clay $100 a round to spar with him. "Spar," Clay screamed. "You get in the ring now and we'll fight for nothing."

Miss Hanlon Wins Figure Skate Title

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—The new U.S. figure skating queen, pretty Lorraine Hanlon, 17, said her performance in winning the women's crown at the national championships Sunday was "disappointing." Miss Hanlon, who was second to Barbara Roles Pursley last year, fell down once during her free skating exhibition. "It was stupid," she said of her fall. But she impressed the five judges at the four-day event with her display, which included a double lutz and two consecutive double axels to earn three firsts, a third, and a fourth. She began the free skating with a lead attained in the compulsory school figures. Runner-up Christine Haigler, 15, Colorado Springs, was very pleased with her showing in the free skating. She was in third place behind Karen Howland, Seattle, after the compulsory figures judging. Miss Howland wound up third in over-all standing. Misses Hanlon and Haigler were automatically placed on the U.S. team that will compete for the North American championships Feb. 14-16 in Vancouver, B.C., and the world championships in Cortina, Italy, at the end of February. Other winners in the nationals were senior men's champ Tommy Lutz, 17, Hershey, Pa., who put on a dazzling free skating performance that brought the crowd to its feet, and the gold dance pair of Bostoner Salley Schantz and Stan Urban of Buffalo, N. Y.

Big College Basketball Evil Is 'Home Court Advantage'

By BOB RULE Newspaper Enterprise Assn. Too often college basketball coaches who take their teams on the road and run into some real "home cooking" from the officials are reluctant to speak out. They fear being labeled crybabies. But the so-called "home court advantage," to my way of thinking, is becoming the greatest evil in college basketball. Actually, it isn't a home court advantage. In reality it's a home officiating advantage. There is little difference in today's gymnasiums. A good team will play just as well on a strange court as it does at home under normal circumstances. The support of a home crowd, I would guess, should be worth four, five or six points. But the home court advantage doesn't end there. It isn't at all uncommon to see points at home, then go on the road and lose to that same team by 15. That's a difference of 30 points. Call it whatever you wish, but I say it's home court officiating. And college basketball goes right ahead doing nothing about it. And the game is suffering. Certainly the officials must be blamed, but I believe the coaches created the monster and they're the only ones who can do anything about it. A great majority of coaches are wild men on the bench. They scream like a wounded goose very time a foul is called against one of their players. Frequently they go storming to court's edge to berate the officials. This serves to incite the crowd against the officials. The end result is that the poor officials, who would call a foul against their grandmothers, can be swayed. Some conferences have taken steps to correct it. The Atlantic Coast Conference a few years ago came up with a ruling that a coach getting off the bench to storm at an official would be subject to a fine. I don't know how it worked, or whether it's still in effect, but to my way of thinking such a rule is a step in the right direction. Unfortunately, the undesirable conditions are beginning to prevail down to the junior high and high school ranks. The pressures of coaching and the necessity for winning have turned a great many coaches into wild men.

Senator Raps Lobby Secrecy

SALEM (UPI) — Sen. Edward Fadelley, D-Eugene, Saturday rapped the "need for secrecy apparently felt by some paid lobbyists in Salem." Fadelley said Thursday night he was barred from the lobbyist's portion of a two-day legislative seminar being held here for students. He said the lobbyists' remarks to students were officially listed as a "closed session" of the seminar. Fadelley said he was told it was necessary for the session to be closed so that the lobbyists could be candid in discussing their work. The seminar is under the direction of Dr. Donald Balmer of Lewis and Clark College. Fadelley is the sponsor of a bill to require paid lobbyists to register and report their interests and expenses. At a meeting Saturday with a group of students from the Univer-
