Play Line Important

By OSWALD JACOBY

Take a look at the North and South hands only. How would you contract? Nine tricks are a cinch, with five trumps, three diamonds, and the ace of clubs. How about the 10th trick? If you can trump the third heart in dummy you will have it.

West has been unkind enough to lead a trump. If you win and return a heart the chances are that your opponents will lead a second trump and if you lead a second heart they will simply lead a third trump at you, whereupon you won't be able to ruff that last heart.

If they are going to adopt this decidedly unfriendly defense, you must find an alternate line of play.

The 10th trick is not in diamonds. You hold the ace, king and queen while dummy holds only three little ones. There is a chance in dummy's clubs and you must see what can be done.

Therefore, after you win the first trump you should play the ace and another club. Now if your opponents lead trumps you win the second trump in dummy, lead a club and ruff it. Both opponents will have to follow to that third club whereupon you will draw the remaining trump, winning in dummy and discard two of your hearts on the last two clubs and wind up making 11 tricks instead of only 10.

A—Pass. Your partner thinks he can beat four spades. Maybe he can, but you know that you can't make five hearts.

TODAY'S QUESTION
West redoubles four spades. North and East pass. Now what do you do?

Sale Announced

Scott McKendree, Klamath Falls, and Frank Hilton of Fresno, ranch brokers, have announced the sale of the Hankins Farms Inc., Swan-Lake Valley Ranch to Gilbert Oberman, general contractor, Los Angeles.

The Swan Lake Ranch is located in Swan Lake Valley, about 14 miles east of Klamath Falls on State Highway 66. The ranch is presently being farmed to potatoes, and grain and cattle are being run on the range lands.

THOMASON INTERVIEW

Chinese Need Russian Help To Develop Nuclear Weapon

TOKYO (UPI)—Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda said today Communist China is incapable of developing nuclear weapons or even waging a conventional war without help from Soviet Russia.

In an exclusive interview with Mims Thomason, president of United Press International, Ikeda, 63, said the Red Chinese cannot make "one fighter plane" without Russian aid.

He said the lack of oil on the mainland of China was a serious handicap, and would force the Chinese Communist government to rely on the Soviet Union for assistance in any major military conflict.

"The Communist Chinese may explode a nuclear device," Ikeda said. "We don't know when. But even if they do, it will take at least 10 years before they can develop nuclear weapons."

He said the effect of China's first actual nuclear test "will be psychological."

The Japanese leader said that if an international disarmament agreement is signed between the United States and Russia, Red China would not agree to any of the treaty terms because it is not a member of the United Nations.

But he said this would not be too important for world peace because the Communist Chinese have no independent military force "other than the human wave, the pouring in of manpower."

The soft-spoken son of a sake brewer discussed Asian world affairs with the UPI news executive in the prime minister's office in the Diet (parliament) Building. Thomason is on the final leg of a six-week trip around the world, during which he has met with the heads of state in several nations.

Ikeda, an economics expert, has been prime minister since the government of Nobusuke Kishi fell in mid-1960 during the bloody leftist-led riots against the Japan-U. S. security treaty which led to the cancellation of then President Dwight D. Eisenhower's planned visit to Japan.

During the interview with Thomason, Ikeda said: "I ask you, are the Communist Chinese capable of making one fighter plane? Have they got the capacity to supply petroleum for their planes?"

He said "I feel that disarmament is possible without the participation of Red China." He said it would be "many, many years before they can develop these sophisticated weapons," such as nuclear bombs and supersonic aircraft.

As to the long-standing question of Communist China's admission to the United Nations, Ikeda told Thomason that "Japan and the United States stand on common ground."

'Jet Tummy' Plagues Fly-Girls

LONDON (UPI)—Stewardesses on high-altitude transatlantic flights are being plagued by what they call "jet tummy" that swells them up like balloons, it was reported here Sunday.

It is painful, the girls say, and sometimes it takes up to 24 hours before their waistlines get back to normal.

"It starts when we are in the air and the swelling often lasts for the whole day," an Irish stewardess who works on the transatlantic jets explained.

"Some girls can't bear the pain and I have known some to slip off their girdles in the galley in the back of the plane halfway between London and New York," she said.

According to a Dublin doctor, loosening clothes is just what the girls ought to do to ease the trouble.

"Everyone swells to a certain extent when they fly, but hostesses seem to notice it more. If they are wearing a tight girdle, the chances are they will swell more," he said.
