

Curly-Haired Pitcher Needs Good Right Hook

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: Your advice is fairly good most of the time but you are wrong once in a while. Recently you told a mother not to put curlers in her son's hair because children who are treated like members of the opposite sex sometimes develop homosexual tendencies.

I would like you to know that I've been putting curlers in my son's hair since he was 3 years of age. He is eight now and just loves to go to the beauty shop with me. When I make an appointment for myself I make one for him, too.

I'll have you know that my son is all boy. He's not a roughneck but he's no sissy either. He likes model airplanes and ships, and never misses a war story on TV. He also enjoys masculine sports and even plays on the Little League baseball team.

So, you see, Ann Landers, you don't know everything—A MOTHER WHO IS RAISING AN ALL-AMERICAN BOY.

Dear Mother: You're right. I don't know everything. But I do know that an 8-year-old son should not be sitting under the dryer in the beauty shop next to his mother.

If this All-American boy of yours goes to Little League practice with curlers in his hair you'd better teach him how to fight.

Tighter Tax Faces Fight

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Association of Homebuilders, an organization with 41,000 members, plans to fight President Kennedy's proposal to tighten up income tax deductions.

A spokesman said the association's executive committee discussed the President's tax plan this weekend, and decided that "the homeowner and home buying public will receive the least net benefits" from the President's proposal for a $10 billion tax cut.

The association could provide some of the toughest organized opposition to Kennedy's plan for tax reforms to regain part of the revenue loss from the proposed tax reductions.

The President's tax program calls for $13.5 billion in tax cuts, coupled with tax reforms to recapture $3.5 billion in revenue.

One of these would allow deducting itemized expenses—such as interest, charity, state and local taxes—only to the extent that they exceed 5 per cent of the taxpayer's income. At present, he can take the full amount.

It is this 5 per cent "floor" on deductions that has drawn heavy fire in Congress and is under criticism from the homebuilders.

Joint Study Scheduled On Boardman

SALEM (UPI)—A joint session of the legislature may be called Friday for a briefing on progress in the Boardman space age development project.

The possibility of a special joint session emerged after four-way talks between Gov. Mark Hatfield, Sen. Wayne Morse, Senate Speaker Ben Musa, and House Speaker Clarence Barton.

It was revealed that Morse had accepted Hatfield's invitation to join him here Friday afternoon for a discussion of the Boardman project with Army Engineers.

Musa and Barton indicated they would invite Hatfield and Morse to address a joint session if they felt progress had reached a point where details of the negotiations should be aired before the full legislature.

Barton said today the session probably would be held about 3:30 p.m.

Hatfield's press secretary, Travis Cross, said it might be the first time in Oregon history a joint session was called for a report from the governor and head of the state's congressional delegation.

Two pieces of federal legislation have been enacted on the Boardman project, and the 1961 legislature authorized nearly $1 million for land purchase, trade, and moving the Navy from its bombing site range.

Langell Valley Gets New Club

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 17 and live with my father and step-mother. I don't mind working around the house, in fact, every girl should do her share, but I don't think it's fair that I have the full responsibility for my 4-year-old step-sister, Betsy.

If I want to go anywhere after school or on Saturday or Sunday I have to take my little step-sister along. My step-mother says she is cooped up all day and needs some relief. I hate to plan for a date on weekends because if my folks decide to go out I have to cancel my plans and stay home with Betsy.

If you say I'm wrong I will change my thinking and never complain again. I'd appreciate your answer in the paper.

MOTHER TO MY SISTER
Dear Mother To Your Sister: An older sister should help with the younger children. It's part of being a useful, contributing member of the family. But "help" does not mean full responsibility.

You should not be expected to take the little girl with you after school nor should you be asked to cancel weekend dates to stay at home with her. In an emergency, teen-agers should be willing to make sacrifices, but every weekend can't be an emergency.

LANGELL VALLEY — A new 4-H Club was organized recently in Langell Valley. "The Sage Riders" are led by Mrs. Bob Seater and Luther Noble.

The young people are enthused over the horse club which will teach them about riding, grooming, breeds, and diseases of horses.

Members of the club are Sherry Smith, Virginia Harris, Sharon and David Seater, Jeanie Mallock, Dale and Virginia Noble, Billy Brown, Kathy Stewart, Patricia Spillane, Diane Atwood, Chummy Eagle, and Terry Milne.
