Rainbow Installation

Ginger Hubbard was installed Jan. 26 as worthy adviser of Klamath Falls Rainbow Assembly No. 57 at the Scottish Rite Temple. Andy Anderson gave the welcoming address.

The new worthy adviser chose faith as the theme for the year; the dove as the symbol; pink and white colors and the pink carnation as her flower.

Installing officers were Virginia Battis, worthy adviser; Darlene Gentry, chaplain; Susan Leiser, recorder; Diane Meade, marshal; Anita Campbell, musician. Myr Anderson was installing officer for the mother adviser and advisory board. Each wore a pink carnation corsage.

Virginia Battis introduced Diane Meade, grand representative to New York, Mrs. Verda Scriber and Andy Anderson, worthy matron and patron of Manzanita Chapter, OES, and Tom Barnes, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge No. 211.

Line officers wore floor length white formals and carried white Bibles with corsages of pink and white carnations. They are Donna Colahan, worthy associate adviser; Sheri Meade, charity; Janet Samuels, hope; Donna Cummings, faith.

They were followed by Carol Shufelt, treasurer; Rose Marie Wolverson, recorder; Jerri Oliver, chaplain; Linda Green, drill leader; Helen Davis, confidential observer; Mary Jane Britton, outside observer; Sandy Lawson, musician. These girls carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Large white doves with colored streamers were carried by Jackie Crume, love; Sharon Davis, religion; Mary Thompson, nature; Joyce Badker, immortality; Janice Britton, fidelity; Diane Gossett, patriotism; Lyn Wandell, service.

Mrs. Lucille Crawley was installed as mother adviser. The advisory board members are Mrs. Sarah McMillan, Mrs. Edna Koehler, Mrs. Nina Hall, Mrs. Ann Vinson, Mrs. Norma Richardson, Charles Filtz, Ernest Wallin, Gus Vlahos, A. J. Thompson, Lawrence Fitzsimmons and O. E. Thompson Jr.

Lights were dimmed as Ginger Hubbard entered the hall as Mrs. Darlene Blackman sang the theme song, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee," accompanied by Mrs. Anita Campbell. As she passed girls knelt in the form of a cross.

The crowning ceremony was performed by members of the Lost River Chapter of DeMolay and Ernest Wallin, Rainbow Dad. At this time, Mrs. Blackman sang "I Believe."

The worthy adviser presented her Bible to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hubbard, and introduced her brothers, Billy and Larry. Also present were her sister, Mrs. Marilyn Walton; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harris; her fiancé, Henry Holliday; and aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert James, Mrs. Eledia Kenyon and Mrs. Audree Lund. Ginger presented a bouquet of carnations to her grandparents.

The new adviser named the Rainbow dog, "Henry." An addenda was presented for Virginia Battis, who was given a treasure chest and seven keys to represent her year's work. In addition, she received a gift and the past adviser's jewel from the Assembly.

Mrs. Susie Harris was honored for serving five years as an advisory board member. A reception and dance followed the ceremonies.

Prineville Girl Weds Donald Lee Westfall

In a recent ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Bend, Donald Lee Westfall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Westfall of Klamath Falls, took as his bride, Diana Gayle Aeschliman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Aeschliman of Prineville. The Rev. Ronald M. Lundy of Bend and the Rev. Mack P. Jones of Klamath Falls officiated at the double ring rites.

White satin bows marked the bouquets and also accented the bouquets of white chrysanthemums at the altar, which was lighted by tall white tapers in candelabra.

David Ham, Klamath Falls, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Carol Snyder, Bend, was the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her full length gown of white Chantilly lace over tulle was fashioned with full skirt, Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. The veil of French illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried two yellow throated white orchids on a white Bible, gift from the First Baptist Church of Klamath Falls.

Bridal attendants wore red velvet sheaths with matching satin slippers and carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums and red rosebuds.

Shirley Blake, roommate of the bride at OTI, Harper, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Austin Vaughn of Bend and Mrs. Donald Lancaster, Klamath Falls, sister of the bridegroom.

Candlelighters were Jayne Underhill, Bend, and Cynthia Jacquot, Eugene, cousins of the bride. Phil Chamberlain, Klamath Falls, was best man and ushers were Tad Evatt, Klamath Falls, and Chester Aeschliman, Prineville, brother of the bride.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall, where the bride and groom cut their three tiered wedding cake which had as a base, three heart shaped cakes. It was made and decorated with red roses by the bride's mother. Serving cake were Mrs. Robert Preboger of Prosser, Wash., and Mrs. Larry Platt, Prineville.

Mrs. Paul Brookings, Bend, served coffee; Mrs. Ken Underhill, Bend, punch; Susan Westfall, sister of the bride, passed the bridegroom's cake; Joan Boone and Nancy Allen attended the gift table, and Donna Leagjeld had charge of the dessert book.

Assisting were Mrs. Max Hackett, Mrs. Walter Douglas, Virginia Douglas and Mrs. Robert Plummer, all of Bend. For the occasion, Mrs. Aeschliman wore a red faille afternoon dress and Mrs. Westfall chose a light brown two piece suit. Red and white corsages were worn by both mothers.

In addition the bridegroom's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Westfall, Raddy and Susan, other Klamath Falls guests were Betty McQueen, Rev. and Mrs. Mack P. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lancaster and daughter.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Preboger and Tom, Bruce and Ann, Prosser, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hopkins, Oceanside, Calif.; Jim Keller, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Platt, Donna Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Tyley Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jacquot, Prineville.

For going away, the bride changed to a red plaid wool dress with black accessories and

CDA Reports Busy Season

Catholic Daughters of America, Court Klamath 1293, led by Grand Regent Marion Walker, is a busy court.

On Oct. 22, Court Klamath initiated 23 new members into the court.

In November, the court heard a speaker for the Presbyterian Intercommunity Hospital, Glen Terrace, at the social meeting.

Members are also taking an active part in Klamath County's Layman's Crime Prevention Conference.

The annual Christmas party in December was attended by more than 125 members who exchanged gifts and heard the Madrigals of Sacred Heart Academy and Christmas readings by the lecturer, Mrs. Norma Walrath.

District Deputy of Eugene, Marie Mull, made her official visit in January. She brought with her the ideas and activities of CDA at state level.

Resignation of trustee, Doris Adams, was accepted and election of a trustee to fill the vacancy was held. Lorena Schmitz was elected to the office for a period of three years.

Social affair of January was the annual potluck dinner for members and their husbands. Mrs. George Sprague was chairman of the dinner. Following the dinner, members and their guests were entertained by the Crater Court Quartet. Cards followed the quartet. Dorothy Zwienen was in charge of entertainment.
