DISTRICT BOARD MEETING — Mrs. B. C. Johnson, director of Klamath District Garden clubs, presided at the board meeting Jan. 25, at the city library. Alturas Garden Club will host the spring district meeting. It will be a conservation program and tentative date is set for May 1. Mrs. Charles Thurman is now wild flower and conservation chairman after the resignation of Mrs. R. Harkens.

District chairmen reminded clubs to get in their posters, essays, scrapbooks, and bird scrapbooks by the regular deadline so they can be judged. Mrs. J. Laird of Alturas asked all clubs to send in their year books to be judged by April 1.

Mrs. Earl Redman gave a report on "World Gardening" and urged clubs to support the program. Contributions must be in to her before May 1.

Mrs. Robert Baker has a few calendars left for those who have not gotten theirs.

Mrs. R. Flemming would like any garden therapy reports in by May 1.

Mrs. Elna Follatt gave a letterbug report. The clubs decided to again order 1000 litterbags to be given out by clubs.

The nominating committee's report was incomplete and they asked to be permitted to submit names again at the spring meeting.

Botanical Garden Fund has all they can use for the time being and clubs are asked to contribute to the Native Flora Conservation Fund instead.

There were five members from Big Valley Garden Club present. Mrs. Johnson reported that a Mount Shasta garden club is going to join this district. They have around 20 members.

District No. 1 in Portland will host the state convention this year, June 24 to 26. Mrs. C. F. Greggs, Eugene, asked all clubs to send her a copy of schedules of any flower shows they may have planned.

First Child Is Welcomed

Felicitations are being sent to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Humble, who became parents of their first child, a son, on Feb. 5 at Glendale General Hospital in Glendale, Calif.

The young man, weighing a husky 8 pounds, 4 ounces, has been named Steven Albert.

Maternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. George Chais of Sherman Oaks. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Humble of Klamath Falls, paternal grandparents, are in Southern California to greet their grandson.

Club Meets In Bonanza

BONANZA — President Jean McFall conducted the last meeting of the Bonanza Women's Club on Feb. 5 at which 14 members were present. Betty Rice was a guest. Welcomed as a new member was Esther Brown.

Discussion followed on the proposed community hall. Alice Nork and Dorothy Peterson reported on a recent card party. Clara Bold will stage a second card party Feb. 23 at the library. Norma Haskins was named chairman of the Fun Night scheduled for March 2.

At the next meeting on March 5, Alice Haley will demonstrate making clothes pin dolls.

BRIDE-TO-BE — A June wedding is planned by Marjorie Elaine Stewart and Wallace Kelleston, whose engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Bonanza. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kelleston, Bonanza, are parents of the future bridegroom, who plans to attend Barber College in Eugene. His fiancée is a senior at Bonanza High School.

BETROTHED — The engagement of Sheryl Waldrep and Ralph Williams is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waldrep. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Williams. Peggy Leppert Bride Of Terrance L. Jurief

Peggy Leppert, daughter of Mrs. Frank Dvorak and Louis Leppert, became the bride of Terrance L. Jurief, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Jurief of The Dalles, on Feb. 9 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church.

For the 7 p.m. ceremony the church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, gladioli and blue iris. Floor candelabra held tall white tapers.

Louis Leppert escorted his daughter to the altar where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Laing Sibbet.

Mrs. Ross Ragland was the organist.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace with chapel train. The Sabrina neckline was outlined with seed pearls and rhinestones. A crown of seed pearls held in place the elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations with blue and white ribbon streamers.

Myrtle McBride was maid of honor, dressed in a blue tulle frock and white veiled hat and white gloves. Her bouquet was of white carnations accented with blue ribbon.

Diane Jurief, sister of the bridegroom, The Dalles, was bridesmaid and was attired the same as the honor attendant.

Robert Wilkerson, Kingsley Field, was best man and ushers were Louis Leppert Jr., brother of the bride, and David Jurief, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Dvorak wore for her daughter's wedding a green wool dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Jurief chose a red wool dress with black accessories. Corsages of white baby hyacinths were worn by both mothers.

The blue and white theme of the wedding was carried out in decorations for the reception in the church parlors. The women of the church served.

Joyce Hale was in charge of the guest book.

Among the guests were Mrs. B. J. Gile, Portland, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Leppert, Portland, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Martha Jurief, The Dalles, aunt of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of KUHS and a member of Rainbow Girls. Her husband graduated from The Dalles High School and is presently stationed at Kingsley Field. They will reside at 2227 Biehn Street.

Library Topic Of WOM Meet Alturas Club Plans Party

Chapter night program for Women of the Moose was presented by Alice Z. Smith, library chairman. She introduced Mrs. Addie Mae Nixon, city librarian, who gave a talk concerning the local library and the state library.

Women of the Moose Chapter 467 donates two books a year to the city library and one to the Mooseheart library in Illinois.

Mrs. Smith was presented a gift from the chapter by June Hoover, senior regent.

Two new members were enrolled, Marie Fields, sponsored by Priscilla Horn, publicity chairman, and Vivian Francis Wilson, sponsored by Vanessa Butler recorder.

The charter was draped in memory of Sara Alice Chilcote. The library committee served refreshments after the meeting.

ALTURAS — Washington, Lincoln, and Valentine's Day will be honored at the Alturas Garden Club's bridge luncheon Wednesday, Feb. 20. The garden club members urge everyone in the Alturas area to attend this gala affair for an afternoon of bridge, pinocle, or pedro according to the player's own selection.

Prizes will be awarded to high scorers in each division. Proceeds from the party will be used for finishing the interior of the new clubhouse.

The luncheon will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the Federated Church Fellowship Hall with the card games following. A charge will be made of $1.25 per person.

Irma Schluter is general chairman for the club. Dorothy Carstens, co-chairman, and Helen Noviak, luncheon chairman.
