TWO IN THE FAMILY - A brother-sister team, Bill and Starla Beymer, have won honors and trophies in junior rodeo events and have silver belt buckles and trophies to prove it. Bill, 14, a Henley High School freshman, won his buckle for points gathered during the last year on cow cutting events. Starla, 15, holds a trophy for winner of the 1962 all-around-junior-cowgirl in events held in the Oregon, Washington, and Idaho Association. The associa-tion also awarded her two silver belt buckles for cow riding and calf roping. Bill and Starla have ridden at Klamath Falls, Redmond and John Day rodeos.
