"Every time Young makes a move, Udvari has his arm up eady to siap on a penalty," Abel claimed.

Young's first penalty was a fiveninute major for high-sticking Jean-Claude Tremblay at 4:26 of the second period.

Just 46 seconds after he re turned to the ice, Udvari called Young for spearing Jean-Guy Talbot at 10:12

Young, who went to the penalty box without a complaint after the first penalty, this time went straight for Udvari. Shouting at the referee, he faked a punch and then threw his glove at Udvari before being restrained by team-Udvari then ejected Young from the game by slapping on 10-minute misconduct and game misconduct penalties. That calls for automatic fines of $75.
