In 15 dramatic minutes, a boy loses his baby locks—and enters on the long road to manhood

HIS MOTHER hated to admit it, but, at 18 months, Gregory Troy was no longer a baby—and that pretty, long, blond hair would have to go. Gregory hated to admit it, too, and struggled to the very door of Joseph Pagano's barbershop in Kew Garden Hills, N. Y.

In the chair, Gregory was at first apprehensive, then indignant, and finally forlornly resigned with big tears coursing down his rosy cheeks. Such dramatic talent may be inherited; his mother is singer-actress Georgia Kennedy, one of the Ray Charles Singers. Gregory's dad, Bill Troy, a free-lance photographer, took these pictures of his son's first haircut.
