

OBSERVE SPECIAL DATE — Mr. and Mrs. Loren Binney celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Feb. 17 at a reception arranged as a surprise to them by Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Silani at the home of the latter.

25-Year Date

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Silani entertained at the Silani home on Sunday, Feb. 17. The occasion was a surprise 25th wedding anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. Loren Binney, who were married in Klamath Falls on Feb. 19, 1938 and have made their home here since that time. Both are originally from Kansas.

The Binneys have three children, Susan, a sophomore at KUHS, Larry, KUHS junior, and Stephen, junior at Oregon State University.

Marriage vows were repeated again with the Rev. Quinn Hawley conducting the service. The original wedding party consisting of the bride, Mildred and Loren Binney, his sister, Mrs. Mary Kirkland, and Arthur Johnson took part in the ceremony.

For the occasion, the Silani home was decorated with pink and silver. An unusual V-shaped arrangement of pink spring flowers and pink tapers in silver holders was placed on the refreshment table with the wedding cake. The three-tiered cake, decorated in pink and silver and topped with a bride and groom, was made and decorated by Mrs. Lyle Cook.

Andrea Silani served at the punch bowl. Linda Jones took charge of the silver and gift tree, and Susan Binney attended the guest book. Terri, Lyn and Becky Huddleston assisted about the rooms.

Over 100 friends called during the afternoon to greet Mr. and Mrs. Binney. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Sarah Tralton, Ulysses, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kellhofer, Caldwell, Idaho; Mrs. A. M. Kirkland, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Huddleston and daughters, all of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Abernathy and Mrs. Sid Elliott, Medford; Fred Miller, Vancouver, Wash.; Dean White and Laura Lee Sykes, Portland.

Naomi Shrine

The February meeting of Naomi Shrine No. 5 Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem featuring "Men's Night" was held Saturday, Feb. 9, at the Masonic Temple. Lois and Lloyd Murphy, worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds, were presiding officers in the east.

Verda Scribner, worthy matron, Manzanita Chapter No. 172, Order of Eastern Star, was introduced and honored from the side lines.

Following the business meeting, members adjourned to the dining room to enjoy a carnival, complete with games, booths, wild animals in captivity and curios. Madge Brown delighted and entertained members as the sagacious lady with the crystal ball. Tables were gaily decorated with balloons, confetti and peanut and candy arrangements. Guests enjoyed "Soup Burgers" prepared by committee members with the assistance of Paul Hanna and

H. A. Nitschelm. In charge of decorations and refreshments for the evening were Helen and Frank McCormack, Charles Lieb and Levoy Longmire.

The next regular meeting will be March 9 with the election of officers for the coming year, the main item of business. All officers and members are invited to attend a dinner given by Lois and Lloyd Murphy, worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds, preceding the business meeting at 6:30 p.m.

Alturas Pair OF Day Set Recite Vows For March 5

ALTURAS — Maureen Milligan and Carl Edward Friberg, both of Alturas, exchanged wedding vows Feb. 2 at St. Michael's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Hugh Mercer officiating.

The bride wore a gown of peau de soie with overlay of embroidered Chantilly lace and chapel train. Seed pearls accented the gown and also formed a crown which held in place the shoulder veil of illusion. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Smith and was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Simmons of Woodaire, wore a ballerina frock of rose peau de soie with matching accessories and rose veil fastened with a satin bow. She and the bridesmaids, Michale Griswold and Kathy McKernan, who wore identical pale pink dresses, carried basket arrangements of roses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Friberg, was attended as best man by John Baker. Ushers were Richard Friberg and Michael Milligan.

Mrs. Smith wore for her daughter's marriage a tan suit with ivory accessories and deep pink rose corsage. Mrs. Friberg chose a pink afternoon dress with black accessories and corsage of pale pink roses.

The reception was held in Turnbull Hall after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Mount Shasta, Sacramento and Reno. They will make their home in Alturas.

Among the guests was the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Tom Bright, Coeur d'Alene.

The bride is a graduate of Automation Business School, Sacramento, and Reno Business College and is employed at the Forest Service office in Alturas. Her husband, also a forest service employee, has studied three years at University of Nevada and will complete his senior year in engineering starting next fall term.

March 5 has been set as Oregon Federation Day by the Oregon legislature in Salem and all member of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs are invited to attend several functions planned in observance.

A tour of Salem is planned for member visitors, who will also attend legislative sessions.

At noon, a no-host luncheon will be served at the Marion Hotel. Reservations for this should be made by Feb. 27.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Mark Hatfield has invited OFWC members to tea at her home from 2 until 4 p.m.

Luncheon reservations may be made and information obtained by calling Mrs. Walter Brown, TU 4-4357 in the evenings.
