

Offers Running $100,000 On Tiger-Fullmer Rematch

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—World middleweight champion Dick Tiger and challenger Gene Fullmer will tangle for a third time within the next four months for the biggest purse in the career of both men.

Following their controversial battle Saturday night, which ended in a draw with Tiger retaining the title he won from Fullmer five months ago, promotional offers have been pouring in.

Jersey Jones, manager of Tiger, said he didn't know for sure what he would do right now. There was no return clause in the contract—and another fight with Fullmer obviously would mean big money.

Norman Rothchild, co-promoter of the Saturday bout, came up with the most money among the early offers.

"I'll guarantee Tiger $100,000 for his share," said Rothchild, "and I hope to be able to come up with a comparable offer for Fullmer—if, for instance, it could go on pay-TV."

Both Tiger and Fullmer grinned ear to ear at this prospect.

George Parnassus of Los Angeles offered the fighter $150,000 to split up as they decided. Tiger's manager wants 40 per cent this time and Mary Jensen, pilot of Fullmer, claims his batter must get at least 25 per cent. They each got 30 per cent of the receipts for the battle here Saturday night.

Promoter Morris Gunderson of Edmonton, Alta., would like to stage the third fight there and promoter Jack Solomon of London would like to put Tiger in the ring with Terry Downes in a London match or Laszlo Papps in Vienna.

The two fighters are ready for rematches right now. Neither man can figure out how the judges could be so stupid as to call the Saturday night battle a draw.

"I thought I beat him," said Fullmer as he showed up at a press conference sporting a partly closed left eye, a deep gash on the top of his head, bruises on his forehead and a cut lip.

It was a bloody affair with Tiger suffering a deep gash near his left eye. He showed up the next day wearing a bandage and with his right cheek all puffed up.

There were no knockdowns, although Fullmer slipped to the canvas three times.

As late as the 11th round Fullmer was leading on the scorecard of Referee Vern Bybee and Judge John Romero, but Tiger pounded the Mormon elder viciously through the last two rounds to win them both.

That gave him a draw on Bybee's card at 69-69, Romero had it 70-68, for Fullmer and Judge Pat Diakin had it 71-67 for Tiger.

Each fighter collected approximately $60,000 for his share of the gate receipts and the $100,000 from television.

Pros Appear In Bowling Tournament

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI)—The first top pros to appear in the nine-day-old American Bowling Congress tournament swing into action tonight when the Helin Tackle team of Detroit opens its bid for the classic division title.

Led by such names as Billy Golembiewski and Joe Joseph, the Detroit pros will compete in the ABC for the first time as a group. All have rolled in previous tournaments but on different teams.

Billy "G" and Joseph are the national match game doubles champions. Individually, Billy "G" won the ABC masters tournament last year and in 1960 while Joseph last year won the Pro Bowling Association Tournament of Champions.

Also on the team are George Howard, Bob Crawford, Bob Strampe and Bob Kwolek. All were members of the National Bowling League which collapsed last year after one season.

The Helin team rolls three games tonight and returns Tuesday to complete its six-game stint.

Standings in the regular team division Sunday were shaken only slightly. Bob Waddell's Chevrolet of Decatur, Ill., moved into fifth place with 2976. The Certified Credit team of Columbus, Ohio, eased into ninth with 2943 and the Citizen Man team of Howell, Mich., tied for 10th with 2923.

In minor events action Sunday, William Palovick of Bryan, Conn. shot 703 to take first place in the regular singles division and became the first ABC entrant this year to roll in the 700's.

Jack Kreifels and his son, Val, slammed into first place in the classic doubles division. Jack rolled 691 and Val chipped in with 598 to give the pair a top of 1199 total.

Dodgers See Hitting Aid

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Prospects for a good hitting infield are better this year for the Los Angeles Dodgers, especially if a second baseman with the famous Dodger nickname "Peewee" makes the grade.

Coach Len Durocher marveled at Nate "Peewee" Oliver's hall rauding and fielding Sunday during the Dodgers' first workout.

But the Dodgers hope he can add some hitting punch to his fielding prowess in view of Oliver's .317 average last year at Spokane.

Oliver, if he becomes the regular second sacker, would be flanked by slugger Bill Skowron or Ron Fairly at first and Maury Wills at short, the latter having had a healthy .299 batting average last year.

And at third, National League batting and runs batted in champion Tommy Davis will be given another trial for the switch from the outfield.

Skowron signed his contract, estimated at $30,000, leaving only Frank Howard to come to terms. Pitcher Phil Ortega, who remained at home in Mesa, Ariz., because of illness in the family, was the only missing member. Walt Alston said that pitcher Sandy Koufax was his "biggest concern" at the training camp.

"If Sandy is sound all year, we have a right to be real optimistic," said Alston. "I know that's putting a lot of pressure on one man, but he's a mighty big man on our staff."

HEADLINES FIGHT CARD — "Chief" Ken Carothers, a middleweight from around Grants Pass and now fighting out of Portland, will be half of the featured main event Wednesday night for the first professional boxing card here in a long while. He takes on Ramon (Buffalo) Hernandez in the 10-rounder as the last of a five-card bout which will be held at the Klamath Auditorium.

Buckaroos Cling To Slim WHL Lead

Western Hockey League Roundup
By United Press International
Seattle and Portland held onto slender leads in the Northern and Southern Divisions of the Western Hockey League today despite being insulted by the league's bottom dogs.

The Totems remained two points ahead of Vancouver in the Northern bracket after their 4-2 defeat at the hands of fourth-place Calgary. Portland is a point ahead of San Francisco following a 2-1 loss to Spokane, which is fourth in the Southern Division.

The Seals whacked Vancouver 5-2 in the league's other contest Sunday.

Seattle was never in contention against Calgary. The Stampedes, who have won only 16 out of 55 games this season, had one of their hottest bursts of the year when they scored four times in the first period.

The Calgary defense held off the Totems for the next two periods, even after Seattle pulled its goalie in the fading minutes.

Spokane goalie Claude Dufour was the difference in the Spokane-Portland fray. Dufour blocked a shot by Portland's Jim Holdaway with nine minutes remaining when the Buckaroos came down on him in a three-on-one situation.

The Comets broke a 1-1 tie in the second period when Ray Brunel beat Portland goalie Don Head.

San Francisco gained two points on Portland by keeping the pressure on Vancouver goalie Gilles Villemure. The Seals tied 4-4 at Villemure and made five of them good.

Orland Kurtenbach, the Seals' late-season scoring star, tallied goals in the second and third periods and added an assist.

No games are scheduled tonight.

SMASHES RECORD — Jim Beatty, America's mighty mile of the mile, comes home the winner of the mile event in the National AAU Track Championships in New York. In the process of winning, he smashed the meet record with his second sub 4-minute mile in eight days. His time was 3:59.

Beatty Sets Meet Mark; Aims At 2-Mile Record

NEW YORK (UPI)—Next target for Sullivan award winner Jim Beatty — the world indoor 2-mile record now held by Murray Halbert of New Zealand.

That was the word from the 5-foot, 6-inch Beatty today after he expressed "Disappointment" at running "only" a 3:30.0 mile in Saturday's national AAU indoor track championships, and 2. pleasure at receiving the Sullivan Trophy as America's top amateur athlete of 1962.

Beatty was officially presented with the coveted Sullivan award Sunday less than 24 hours after his latest mile feat had flattened a supposedly classy field. Jim Grelle, his Los Angeles Track Club teammate, finished second in 4:00.0, but Beatty is the only mile in the nation who doesn't consider that too tough to beat.

So Beatty is ready for a big assault — an assault on Halbert's 3:44.8 record for two miles. Beatty will pass up this Friday's New York K of C meet and Saturday's Cleveland K of C meet to make his record attempt in the Chicago Daily News meet on March 8.

"There's still a chance that I'll decide to run it and then to run in the mile," Beatty said. "If I do, then I definitely will be out to break my 3:56.6 one-mile indoor record in that meet. I think I can do 3:57.6 indoors any time I get the competition.

"But the way I feel right now, it will be the two-mile in Chicago," he added.

American fans have seen the last this indoor season of Russian jumping stars Valery Brumel and Igor Ter-Ovanesyan. The Soviet stars are headed home, each now holding the upper hand over his chief U.S. rival.

Brumel whipped America's John Thomas again with a 7-foot, 3/4-inch high jump that set a meet record in the AAU games. Ter-Ovanesyan beat U.S. Olympic champion Ralph Boston for the third straight time with a 28-foot, 6 1/2-inch broad jump for another meet record. Igor's leap topped Boston's listed world indoor record by one-quarter inch, but was short of the 20-foot leap he himself made here on Feb. 1.

Wall Hopping Luck Begins

CARACAS (UPI)—Art Wall topper expressed the hope that "my luck has changed" after winning his first golf tournament since the 1960 Canadian Open.

"I feel now I have broken the barrier," the lanky Pennsylvanian stated when he walked off with first prize money of $1,300 Sunday in the Caracas open.

Wall turned in a one-under-par 69 on the final round that gave him a 274 total and a two stroke victory over George Knudson of Toronto. The Canadian posted the best score of the final day, a 66, to earn runnerup honors.

John Barnum and Ed Rubin finished with 279 scores to share third place. Don Whit, who eased into the lead with Wall entering the final round, finished fourth after taking a closing 75.

In the battle for the Seagram Cup, Knudson leads with 73 points followed by Jim Ferree (70.5) and Barnum (56). The golfers move on to Puerto Rico this week for another four-day tournament starting Thursday.

Pett topped Hawk scoring with 30 points and Tom Meschery had 24 for the Warriors.

With the Warrior defeat, the Detroit Pistons improved their chances to gain a berth in the playoffs by beating Cincinnati in a game at Baltimore. Detroit, in third place in the Western Division, holds a 2 1/2 game lead over the fourth-place Warriors. Bailey Howell had 33 for Detroit and Oscar Robertson 26 for the Royals.

In the Laker-Celtic game, Sam Jones scored 25 points, 22 of them in the first half. Elgin Baylor had 25 for the Lakers, although he sat out the last quarter which the Celtics started with a 102-77 lead.

The magic number for the Lakers, who have played four fewer games than the Celtics, is five to clinch the Western Division title. The Hawks are nine games behind in second place.

'No More Shenanigans' Says Jimmy Piersall

By DICK JOYCE

Jimmy Piersall, temperamental outfielder for the Washington Senators, says there'll be no more shenanigans from him in 1963.

The 31-year-old Piersall, who has been a big drawing card since 1952 because of his colorful and zany antics, said after signing his contract Sunday: "I'm tired of being a character."

"Fans are going to see a new Piersall this year," he said. "I'm going to keep my mouth shut and concentrate on playing ball. After all, that's what I'm paid to do."

Takes Pay Cut
Piersall, who had said he would not accept a pay cut this year, signed for $8,000—a deduction of some $4,500—after having one of his worst seasons in 1962. The controversial centerfielder, who had been holding out at his Newton, Mass., home, arrived at the Senators' Pompano Beach, Fla., training camp Sunday and declared, "I decided to come down in person instead of talking on the telephone. All I want to do is play ball and be treated like other ball players."

After reaching a career high of 322 for the Cleveland Indians in 1961, Piersall was traded during the winter to Washington for pitcher Dick Donovan and outfielder Gene Green.

Donovan won 21 games for the Indians last year while Piersall's average dipped to .244 with only 30 runs batted in. Piersall, hampered by injuries—some of last season's said, "I've been doing isometric exercises all winter and I think I'll be stronger this year."

Dick Stuart, another baseball character, served notice to the Boston Red Sox at their Scottsdale, Ariz., camp that he means business this year.

Brown Headlines Boxing Schedule

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Brown, former world lightweight champion, and Eddie Perkins, former world junior welterweight king, feature this week's boxing program.

Brown, of Houston, Texas, meets Dave Charnley in a 10-round bout at Manchester, England, Monday while Perkins faces Angel Garcia in a 10-rounder at approximately the same time in the Palais des Sports in Paris.

Brown, who got $50,000 the last time he fought, will collect about $8,500 for his fight with Charnley, former British champ who is ranked among the top 10 contenders in the lightweight division.

Perkins, meanwhile, hopes to use a victory over Garcia as a bargaining point for a title fight with the winner of the Battling Torres-Robert Cruz tussle.

Also on the crowded Monday schedule is a heavyweight bout at Montreal between Garvin Sawyer of Pittsburgh and Canadian champion Bob Cleroux.

There are two other better than average fights this week. On Friday, at Rome's Palazzo Delo Sport, Tony Hughes of Cleveland meets undefeated Italian heavyweight Francisco Depiccolo while on Saturday night in the weekly nationally televised ABC tussle, Kenny Lane takes on Vincent Derado.

The complete schedule:
MONDAY: Manchester, England, Joe Brown vs. Dave Charnley; Paris, Eddie Perkins vs. Angel Garcia; Montreal, Garvin Sawyer vs. Bob Cleroux; Jacksonville, Fla., Joey Giardello vs. Willie Greaves; Philadelphia, Pa., Anderson vs. Tommy Lowery; Sacramento, Calif., Joey Lopez vs. Jimmy Barrera; Hollywood, Calif., Henry Fletcher vs. Dave Purch.
TUESDAY: New York, Lenzy Mangiapane vs. Stonewall Bedelia; Oakland, Calif., Matt Goodwin vs. Rudy Bent and Charles Shipes vs. Mel Ferguson.
WEDNESDAY: No fights scheduled.
THURSDAY: Worcester, Mass., Dick French vs. Billy Backus; Philadelphia, Benny Briscoe vs. Joe Smith.
FRIDAY: Rome, Italy, Tony Hughes vs. Francisco Depiccolo; Los Angeles, Joe Rafus King vs. Don Johnson.
SATURDAY: New York, Kenny Lane vs. Vincent Derado (TV).

Tiny Lund Uses Draft To Win Daytona Classic

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Drafting scientifically to save fuel, hulking Dewayne 'Tiny' Lund rode into the auto racing record books today as winner of the grueling Daytona 500-mile stock car classic.

Drafting is following in the leader's wake at high speed and being towed along in his vacuum.

Lund, a cooperative rookie among the racing veterans who blasted off in the field of 50 which started the 300, proved himself an expert and it netted him a 24-second victory over Fred Lorenzen of Charlotte, N.C. Sunday with 30-year-old Newton, N.C., team broker Ned Jarrett a disappointing third.

They were running bumper to bumper. Lorenzen, Lund and Jarrett in that order, with only 13 miles to go when the pace-setting Lorenzen hid to hit the pits for gasoline. Lund immediately let Jarrett take over and set the pace. And with only three laps remaining, Jarrett, too, had to let go.

That was when the towering Lund, a 6-foot, 4-inch 270-pounder born in Harlan, Iowa, took over and drove it home through those last
