Society Fetes Past Presidents

MOUNT SHASTA—St. Anthony's Altar Society met Feb. 12 for a business meeting and social gathering honoring the past presidents of the society. Rev. Michael Myles was guest speaker and related events of the early days of the parish and the organization of the women's altar group.

The honored guests included Mrs. Kate Patterson, the first Altar Society president in 1925. Other past presidents attending were Olivia Theobald, Flora Riccomini, Darlene Cheula, Genevieve Rogers, Evelyn Pohl, Pia Ambard, Katie Roush, Marie Murray, Kathy Marin, and Ann Galletti. Each former officer introduced members who had served with her.

VALENTINE TEA

MALIN — The students of Merrill Home Living Class and their instructor Mrs. Edwin Petrasek, were guests of the Malin Home Living Class, Feb. 13, at a "Valentine Tea." The room was decorated in Valentine motif by the class. A social afternoon was spent with Janice McAuliffe, Joyce Mullanix and Ann Johnson entertaining with colorful dances. Mrs. Frank Paygr is instructor of the Malin class.

Tina Fignani. Refreshments were white angel cake and red jello decorated with shipped cream in a heart motif.

During the business meeting, plans were made for the annual St. Patrick's Day dinner, March 17, in the parish hall. The baked ham dinner will cost $1.75 for adults, 75 cents for high school students, and 50 cents for grade school children. Serving will be from 2 to 7 p.m. The society also made tentative plans for a Mother's Day bake sale.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Lick And Promise — Plus

POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — When packing lunches for my school children, I always include a damp paper towel in a small plastic bag. This helps to clean sticky fingers and smeary mouths.

Our son, who attends a military academy, carries an old nylon stocking in his pocket to give his shoes and brass a "quick shine" before daily morning inspection. — MRS. T. G. S.

GIRLS — One good idea often suggests another. Mrs. T.G.S.'s last hint led me to the discovery that an old nylon stocking makes a wonderful polishing cloth for household brass.

POLLY

DEAR POLLY — If newly baked muffins stick to the pan, have a wet towel ready on the sink and put the hot pan on the towel. The muffins will drop right out. — MRS. A. H. L.

GIRLS — It is my turn to offer you a tip. When removing a spot from a dress, I stretch the soiled area over embroidery hoops and the job is much easier. Use an old toothbrush to rub the spot. Its small size allows me to note progress.

POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I have two small boys, ages 3 and 4. I loved the bib-tying routine at meal time by simply removing the original bib strings and replacing them with 1/2-inch elastic, long enough to slip over the children's heads. This eliminates tying and untangling, the boys' impatience

TOOTHsome TILE TATTLE — No matter how often the tiles in a bathroom are scrubbed, there often appears to be some residue. This usually is dirt accumulation where ceramic tiles join. This is easily cleaned and whitened by scrubbing with a well-lathered toothbrush. A little bleach may be added to the suds.

while I am doing it and torn strings and knots. — MRS. J. S.

DEAR POLLY — I have a problem. What can be put on the backs of throw rugs to keep them from rumpling up when the commercial preparation has worn off the back? — MRS. R. M. V.

Mrs. R. M. V. and the rest of you girls who have the same problem: I would try a piece of burlap the size of the rug, sewed on the back with a loose stitch and rug thread. Several thicknesses of newspaper, stitched together might help, too, for a leftover piece of rug pad. Do any of you have any better suggestions?
