City Men's Meet Enters Singles, Doubles Action

The doubles and singles portion of the City Men's Klamath Falls Bowling Association Tournament got underway at Lucky Lanes Thursday night with the Class A and B bowlers again using their higher handicap to advantage to top the Class AA bowlers.

Cliff Smelcer teamed with S. Baldwin to take the early lead in the Class AA doubles with a total pinfall of 1160. J. Webb and Jim Webb were right behind with 1153.

J. Quinn and J. Dyer topped the Class A bowlers in doubles with a 1261 for the early lead. O. Musgrove and C. Peterson finished second with 1230 pins while P. Stemer and C. Stemer were third at 1217. W. Kurth and L. Thomas fourth at 1205 and H. Russell and C. Heim rounded out the top five with a 1203.

J. Morley and W. Casebeer topped the Class B doubles with a 1256. The early leaders were trailed by P. Hudson and J. Bothwell with a 1253, P. Loretto and R. Haskins at 1253 and Dale Bleha and Wes Gudarian in fourth at 1250. E. Hickman and E. Gordon rounded out the top five with a 1220.

B. Horton and J. Lundberg with 1195.

Bromo Smelcer took the Class AA singles lead with a 636 to out-distance Cliff Stemer in second with a 605. Carl Peterson was third with a 581 and Al Samples fourth with a 574.

Floyd Wynne took the early Class A lead with a 609 series, 18 pins ahead of A. Silani in second with a 651.

THE OLD COLLEGE TRY — Reno's Arthur Brown gives it the old college try as he dives for a loose ball during the game with Portland's Papposes at Chiloquin Thursday afternoon in the first round of the Pacific Coast Elimination Tournament. The winner and runner-up of the tournament will gain a berth in the National Indian Tournament, set for Chiloquin March 21-22-23. Portland downed the small Colony team from Reno, 97-58. Rusty Farmer (44) looks on at right while the Pappose at left is unidentified. Portland meets Toppenish, Wash., in tonight's top tilt.

Eppa Rixey, Hall Of Fame Star, Dies

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — Eppa Rixey, elected to the baseball Hall of Fame just a month ago after being bypassed several times during the 30 years after he quit playing, died of a heart attack Thursday at the age of 72.

Rixey, who won 266 games in a long major league career spanning from 1912 to 1933, suffered a heart attack at his home in suburban Terrace Park and died several hours later at Christ Hospital here.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Rixey passed up a career as a chemist to go directly off the campus into the National League as a lefthanded pitcher for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1912. But he spent most of his baseball days for the Reds.

Until Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves broke his record in 1959, Rixey held the major league record for victories by a lefthanded pitcher. He retired at the age of 42 and headed his own insurance agency at nearby Mariemont, Ohio, until his death.

Rixey admitted he was "very happy" when notified of his selection to the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., Jan. 27, but he also admitted he was "getting a little discouraged" over being passed over.

His record was 266-251, pitching for second division teams in 13 of the 21 years. His best season was in 1922 with the Reds when he won 25 and lost 13.

Pelican, Hornet Mat Teams In State Meet

CORVALLIS (Special) — The Klamath Union Pelicans and Henley Hornets' wrestling teams entered the state Class A-1 and A-2 wrestling tournaments here today with hopes of winning or finishing high among the finalists.

The Pelicans appear to have a good chance to finish among the leaders of the state. The preliminary rounds began at 12:30 today with the quarter-finals to begin at 7 p.m. The semifinals will begin Saturday at 1 p.m. and the consolation finals at 6:30 p.m. and the finals at 7:50. There are 106 schools and a total of 416 wrestlers competing for the prep championships at the Oregon State coliseum.

Grants Pass, the Southern Oregon Conference champion and defending state champion, leads the Class A-1 schools with 13 entries. Lebanon and Parkrose each have 11 entries and North Eugene nine. Then comes Klamath with eight qualifiers.

The eight qualifiers from Klamath are Jim McClung at 115, Grant Humphrey at 123, John Stilwell at 130, Tom Miles at 136, Ron Head 141, Ron Hitchcock at 157, Bob Ewing at 191 and Thurston Henzel at heavyweight.

An early draw brought about pairings. McClung takes on Larry Lietz of McMinnville in the first round, Humphrey battles La Grande's Rod Patton. Stilwell meets Bob Green of Dallas, Miles tangles with Mike Ward of South Eugene, Head fights Dave Metcalf of North Salem, Hitchcock grapples with Richard Wright of Lake Oswego, Ewing scraps with Dave Meyer of North Eugene, and Henzel matches holds with Dave Hankie of Tigard.

The Hornets have only four grapplers with which to capture a top position. The Hornets have Fred Rodriguez at 115, Phil Hale at 141, Chuck Milanovich at 148 and heavyweight John Riggs.

Rodriguez will meet Reedsport's Doug Smith, Hale takes on John Fexiner of Woodburn, Milanovich tackles Dan Hodges of Brookings and Riggs tangles Tom Kostic of Nestucca.

San Francisco Takes Lead In Western Hockey Loop

By United Press International The San Francisco Seals ended four weeks of frustration Thursday night when they glided into first place in the Western Hockey League's Southern Division, but the idyl could end tonight.

The Seals took over the top spot by slamming three goals home in the third period to trip Los Angeles 4-3 in a rip-roarer at the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

San Francisco thus went one point in front of idle Portland. But the lead could evaporate tonight when the Blades come up to San Francisco for a return match and Portland is at Seattle. Elsewhere tonight Spokane tees across the border to Vancouver and Calgary is at Edmonton.

The Seals trailed for the first two periods of Thursday night's clash, chiefly because of the scoring and all-around play of ex-Seal Bob Solinger, who tallied two of the three Los Angeles goals.

With the count 3-1 against them at the opening of the third period, the Seals scored fast with a goal by Duke Edmundson after 45 seconds of the period, Danny Belisle tied it up at 3:03 and defenseman Tom Turley got the blade-breaker at 12:41.

The Seals now have 36 wins, 20 losses and one tie for 73 points. Portland has won 34, lost 19 and tied four for 72 points.

Beavers Meet WSU Cougars

By United Press International Oregon State's Beavers, who have four games left on their regular schedule before taking on Seattle in the NCAA basketball playoffs, meet Washington State at Pullman tonight.

The teams play again Saturday night.

The Beavers, who have rolled up 15 wins in 22 games, are heavily favored against the Cougars, who have a 5-17 record.

Tim Campbell, a 6-6 senior forward out the past half dozen games with an ankle injury, may be available for limited action for Oregon State.

Seattle meets Portland at Portland's Memorial Coliseum tonight and plays Oregon at Eugene Saturday night. The Chieftains own an 18-5 mark.

Portland has an 8-17 record and Oregon is 11-12.

Beatty, Red Foxes Also Win

By JERRY WAGGONER Herald and News Sports Editor

CHILOQUIN — Portland, Toppenish, Wash., Red Fox and Beatty won opening round games in the annual Pacific Coast Elimination Indian Basketball Tournament here Thursday in the Chiloquin Gym.

The tournament continues today and Saturday with the tournament winner and runner-up gaining berths in the annual National Indian Tournament which is to be held at Chiloquin March 21-22-23, with the Sprague River Ducks as the defending national champions.

The double elimination tournament suffered a mild upset in the first round of action when a well-drilled and fast breaking group of Toppenish, Wash., Papposes drubbed a smaller but fighting Warm Springs quintet, 83-60, in the first day's feature.

Portland's Red Hawks appeared strong in stopping the Reno Colony, another small aggregation, 97-58, for the biggest score of the tournament thus far. A pair of Chiloquin teams battled in an afternoon game with the Red Foxes topping Carol-Shadley, 54-42, and the Beatty Lakers downed the Chico, Calif., team in the opener, 46-35.

Friday's games will have Chico going against Carol-Shadley in the opener at about 4 p.m., the Red Foxes mixing with the Beatty Lakers at about 5 p.m., the Warm Springs Magpies meeting Reno in the opening night game and Portland will battle Toppenish in the last game of the evening.

Toppenish and Portland, who meet tonight, appear to be the top teams and should wage a hot battle tonight. Toppenish was well balanced and had the big man in 6-6 Ron Olney who tallied 18 points to lead the Papposes. Rick Minthorn had 14, Clay Anderson 11 and Larry Ramsey 10 for the winners. Mike Clements led the losers with 21 points while Jim Macy had 13 and Lyle Rhoads 11.

The Papposes took quarter leads of 17-12, 41-27, 60-45 and the final of 83-60. The Papposes had too much height and bench strength for the Magpies who were a short team with every player at about 6-0 or under.

Portland drubbed Reno, 97-58, with Norm Redbird hitting a tournament high with 42 big points. He potted 19 baskets and four of five from the line. He was backed up by Buzz Nelson with 25 and Bob Tom with 14. Wayne Tobey led the short Reno quintet with 16 points along with Arthur Brown, Tim Cypher and Burke Brown each netted 11 markers. The Colony had only six players present.

The Red Foxes and Carol-Shadley, both teams from Chiloquin, had one of the closest battles in the opening day. Red Fox led most of the way while Shadley kept trying to pull up but couldn't make it.

John McCutcheon led the winners with 22 points and Jess McCutcheon had 12. Ed Case topped the losers with 20 points and was backed up by N. Jackson's 15.

The Lakers jumped to a 27-19 halftime lead and held on to down the Chico, Calif., team. Ray Riddle led the winners with 14 points while W. Brown had 11 and Phil Brown 10. The losers were topped by the Arnold brothers V. and K., with 16 and 11 points respectively.
