Bonanza Topples Bobcats, 52-41

BLY (Special) — The Bonanza Antlers closed out the regular season with a victory over the Bly Bobcats here Friday night, 52-41, by pulling away with a third quarter spurt and a cold Bobcat period.

The Antlers jumped off to a 12-4 first period lead, only to have the Bobcats claw back into contention in the second period with a hot 21-point period to Bonanza's 16. Bonanza had a 28-25 half time lead.

But the third period was all Bonanza needed. The Antlers pumped in 15 points while Bly again went cold and could notch only seven points. Each team netted nine points in the final period.

It was a close game from the field with the Antlers having only one more field goal than the Bobcats, 19-18. But the Antlers hit on 14 of 22 charity shots to only five of 12 for the Bobcats. The Antlers made only nine fouls to 15 for Bly.

Monty Burnett and Ed Simmons led the winners with 10 points each in a well-balanced attack. Fred Dearborn notched nine. Jim Watts led the Bobcats and got scoring honors for both teams with 18 points. He also pulled down 14 rebounds in a good effort. The loss left the Bobcats out of the Class B play-off tournament next weekend at Oregon Tech's gym. The Bobcats finished with a 2-12 league record and 5-12 season mark.

Bonanza's Jayvees also won, 39-35.

HOUSTON (UPI) — Johnny Meyer, a big lefthanded kid from Nesconset, N.Y., "who had to win something to get back home," won the Professional Bowlers Association's $20,500 Houston Charity classic Saturday.

The 23-year-old rookie had to borrow the money to make the trip from New York to Texas and came through with a $4,000 first prize.

Meyer had to beat Dick Weber, the all-star champion from St. Louis 191-174 to take the first prize.

"I didn't know how I was going to get back home if I hadn't cashed here," the 6-foot-1, 190-pounder said after the tournament.

Before beating Welu, Meyer disposed of Ed Bourdase of Fresno, Calif., in the semifinals 208-193.

In the three-game sets of the morning's finals, Meyer edged Bill Allen of Fern Park, Fla., 567-565 and then bested Harry Smith of St. Louis 661-654.

Weber made his way into the playoff with a 245-201 decision over Billy Welu of St. Louis. Weber pocketed $2,000 for his second place finish.

Doyle Briggs, the Houston "ety who led all the way in the qualifying rounds, lost in the second round of Saturday's finals to Welu 597-573.

Chiloquin Dumps Gilchrist To Grab KCL Crown, 81-70

GILCHRIST (Special)—The Gilchrist Grizzlies, playing one of their best games of the season, pushed the Klamath County League champion Chiloquin Panthers to the hit here Friday night but faltered in the second half under a torrid attack and fell, 81-70.

The Panthers thus wrapped up the league title with the win, but still have to prove their supremacy next week in the County League Tournament which is to be held at Oregon Tech's gym, starting Thursday and continuing through Saturday.

The Panthers will take on Malin in their Thursday game.

Coach Jerry Bennett of Gilchrist said that it was the best game played by Gilchrist this season and that the Grizzlies were in the game for all the first half, but that a cold third period and hot one by Chiloquin gave the Panthers the win.

Chiloquin jumped to a narrow 13-11 first quarter lead but the Grizzlies fought back to knot the game at the half time, 33-33. Then came the rush by the Panthers. The Grizzlies were ahead by seven in the second period when the Panthers roared back to knot the game.

The league champions put the game on ice in the third frame with 25 big points while the Grizzlies cooled off to only 12 points. That 13-point margin was too much to make up. The Grizzlies cut it to 11 points by outscoring the Panthers in the last stanza, 25-23. The game also was played before the biggest crowd of the season at Gilchrist.

Dan Hoff led the losers with 24 points while David Sporrer netted 10 along with Bob Mayfield and Matt Koski. Each team played only six boys. Tony Wilder got high point honors for the night with 25 points and teammate Don Taylor popped for 22 points. Al DeBortoli notched 12 and Tony DiUlio 10 for the winners.

Gilchrist hit 70 per cent of their charity shots and Chiloquin hit only 48 per cent to remain close to the Panthers. The loss left the Grizzlies with a 3-7 league record and a 9-9 season mark. Chiloquin has lost only one league game for a 1-1 mark and only one other defeat, to Class A-2 top ranked Henley.
