

Variety Show To Be Presented

DUNSMUIR — "Clown Capers and Footlight Fancies," a variety show, will be presented Friday, March 8, at the Dunsmuir Elementary School Auditorium under the co-sponsorship of the Canyoners and the Dunsmuir High School PTA.

Proceeds of the community fun show will be used to purchase lighting for the high school stage.

A tentative program of 10 acts has been selected. This includes band selections, skits, dances, vocal and instrumental numbers. Mrs. Reva Coon is directing the show.

Newly elected officers of the Canyoners are Mrs. E. E. Newlin, president; Robert Bectel, vice president; Mrs. Robert Wright, secretary, and Mrs. Ray Guy, treasurer. The Canyoners, a group of adult supporters of the school music departments, voted at the recent election meeting to co-sponsor the variety show this year with the high school PTA and support the PTA project of the year.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL
MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (UPI) — Mrs. Barbara Powers, former wife of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, has filed a motion for a new divorce trial. The earlier divorce action gave her $5,500 in cash but no alimony.

FEBRUARY BRIDE — Mrs. Robert J. Weber is the former Marsha Ann O'Sullivan, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Sullivan, Medford, formerly resided in Klamath Falls. The young couple will make their home in Portland. — Photo by Landis Studio, Medford

Marsha O'Sullivan Weds Portland Man

Of interest to Klamath Falls residents is the recent marriage of Marsha Ann O'Sullivan and Robert J. Weber of Portland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Sullivan, Medford, who lived for many years in Klamath Falls.

The Feb. 9 nuptial mass was read at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Medford by the Rev. Gabriel M. Weber, Air Force chaplain, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore for the ceremony a gown of ivory satin and Chantilly lace with crown of satin and pearls holding her veil. Her only jewelry was a diamond and pearl pendant, gift of the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and freesia, centered with a white orchid.

Janet O'Sullivan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Rose Mary Smith, Portland, and Judy Christensen and Jacqueline Creager, Medford.

The attendants were dressed alike in emerald green satin dresses with matching veiled satins and carried nosegays of white carnations and lily of the valley.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Andrew Weber and the late Andrew Weber of Portland. His best man was another brother, Charles Weber, Portland. Ushers were Edward Weber and James Weber, Portland, also brothers; Merlin Wald, Portland, and Terry O'Sullivan, brother of the bride.

Organist was Bruno Pellegrini. The Starlight Room at Rogue Valley Country Club was the setting for the wedding reception. Green and white decorations were arranged by Mrs. Richard Rementeria and Mrs. Francis Olds, grandmother of the bride, who also served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Olds, now a resident at Rogue Valley Manor, is a former Klamath Falls resident. The bride's paternal grandfather, Thomas F. O'Sullivan, San Mateo, and also former local resident, was present.

Stephanie Shaw, Eugene, cousin of the bride, registered the guests and Ann Rementeria passed rice packets. Serving coffee and punch were Mrs. Dennis Barr and Mrs. Robert L. Gallagher, Portland, and Mrs. Robert D. Shaw, aunt of the bride.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in San Francisco. For traveling the bride chose a gold colored wool suit with black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will reside in Cedar Hills, Beaverton. The new Mrs. Weber is a Medford High School graduate and attended Marylhurst College. Her husband attended University of Portland and is presently in business in Portland.

Bonanza Parties

BONANZA — Mrs. John Brown was hostess at a birthday party Feb. 5 in honor of the sixth birthday of Donna Gibney.

Contests were enjoyed with prizes going to Ty Miller and Steve Roberts.

Balloons, favors and hats were given the children, who were later served birthday cake, trimmed with pink and white.

Guests were Ty and Margie Kay Miller, Christine and Jeanne Simmons, Karen Watson, Debbie Schmidt, Mary Anne Bold, Daren and Damon Dye and Steve and Cindy Roberts.

Mrs. LeRoy Fernlund entertained her contract club on Feb. 19. High score for the afternoon went to Mrs. Claude Bechholdt. Mrs. Ivan Bold won the traveling prize.

Others present were Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Harold Williams, Mrs. Mabel Pepple, Mrs. Elsa Rueck, Mrs. Jesse McFall and Mrs. Lloyd Gitt.

Classmates of Linda Frazier enjoyed a Valentine party at her home on Feb. 14. Decorations and refreshments were in the Valentine motif. Guests were Deanna Scott, Joan Roberts, Anita Kenner, Donna Ralph, Twilla Hubble, Stacia Peterson, Patsy Spillane and Donna Schonchin.

In Langell Valley on Feb. 16, teenagers were invited to a party at the Langell Valley Community Hall by Patricia Spillane, Twilla Hubble, Christie Carr, Velma Clarke, Stacia Peterson and Donna Schonchin. Dancing and games were enjoyed during the evening.

reception included Mr. and Mrs. James Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schmidt.

DKG Has Meet

The February luncheon meeting of Alpha Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for women teachers, was held in the Pelican Party Room. "The Valentine theme using hearts and cupidus was carried out by Mrs. Isabelle Jackson.

Mrs. Gladys Herron presented the program. Her readings dramatically pointed out the many ways in which each one contributes to the creative arts. She noted that her committee members had done a great deal of research to make this contribution possible. Assisting Mrs. Herron were Vivian Alloway, Mrs. Jane Craig, Mrs. Velma Tenney and Mrs. Martha McLaughlin.

Members had an opportunity to view the results of many hours of endeavor which had been spent on the chapter's 1962-63 scrapbook. It was an interesting and clever work of art assembled by Mrs. Rose O'Leary, chairman, and Mrs. Marianna Kerr, Mrs. Margaret Heyden and Mrs. Lucille West.

Those present were interested to hear that Dr. Miriam Luten of this city is scheduled to appear on the March program dealing with international relations, according to Mrs. Dorothy Adams, president.

Mariners Elect Slate

MERRILL — The Merrill Mariners met Feb. 11 at the First Presbyterian Church for a business meeting and installation of officers.

The outgoing skippers, Dick and Ilyse Reeves, served as the installing officers. Taking the oath of office were Bill and Shirley Hill, skippers; Clovis and Chris Story, first mates; Dick and Ilyse Reeves, lookouts; Wes and Shirley Haskins, log keepers; and Irven and Ann Johnson, pursers. Lloyd and Val Henderson retained their position as chaplains, and the Haskins were appointed to serve as ship's doctor and nurse.

Following the business meeting, conducted by the new skippers, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lisk.

The Merrill Mariners were guests of the Malin Mariners at a dinner held at the Malin Community Presbyterian Church on Feb. 20.

FOR THE COOL ONES

Even during late spring and summer there are cool days when a girl needs a coat. A lightweight silk or cotton coat is a good investment for that time of year.
