

OFWC First District Directors Hold Meet

The board of directors of First District, Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs held an all-day meeting in Grants Pass, recently at the Riverside Restaurant which was attended by 45 women of Southern Oregon. Representing First District were members from Ashland, Talent, Medford, Rogue River, Cave Junction and Grants Pass. Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club, First District, were unable to attend.

A coffee hour from 9 to 10 preceded the business session. Mrs. William R. Harms, president of First District, opened the meeting with the club collect which was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. State officers from First District who were attending were Mrs. Roy R. Nye, Ashland, chairman of international affairs; Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Medford, chairman of projects, and Mrs. Ralph O. Chapin, Grants Pass, citizenship chairman.

Reports by the district chairmen were presented during the morning session. Under the CARE program, Mrs. Clay M. Lee made an announcement that the fifty-millionth CARE package has just recently been sent.

In the literacy program among the Yaqui Indians of Mexico it was noted that 24 teachers are employed and they work with a local physician and social worker. Books are supplied by CARE for the community of Yaqui Indians, reported Mrs. Lynabel Deck, district CARE chairman. Fine Arts chairman, Mrs. James Wells, of Medford commented on the Penny Art and Hallmark contests sponsored by the Oregon Federation, noting that there are no restrictions on the number of entries for the Hallmark contest and the deadline for entry is April 1. The art contests are open to graduating high school seniors. Mrs. Wells urged the club members to visit art galleries in their towns.

Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Lee gave a brief report on the board of directors meeting held in Portland Feb. 7. The Oregon Federation board adopted five resolutions, one of which urged legislation to "aid early identification and treatment of behavior problems of children" and asked that "consideration be given to the passage of legislation to make state funds available on a matching formula to local school districts to employ special personnel trained in the behavior sciences to work with these children and their teachers and parents."

The afternoon session began with the singing "God Bless America" led Mrs. Edward Burkett of Rogue River. The club presidents gave reports of the year's activities. Mrs. Harms announced a sewing contest for club members only which will be held at the district annual convention in Talent, April 3. The district winner will compete at the state convention which will be held in Eugene May 8 and 9. Contestants may select any pattern of their choice. The contest differs from sewing contests held heretofore when only Vogue patterns were acceptable. Garments may be formal wear, street or house dresses, suits or sportswear. They must have been constructed after Jan. 1, 1963. Mrs. Bernice Johnson, Talent Federated Woman's Club, was named chairman for the fashion show.

Attention was called to an article of General Federation which will be published in the March Post. Announcement was made of the Western States Conference of General Federation of Women's Clubs which will be held in Phoenix, Ariz., March 7 to 9. Mrs. Clay M. Lee will attend as a delegate. Any member of G.F.W.C. may attend the conference.

The afternoon session was concluded with the benediction given by Mrs. T. M. Stott, Grants Pass, district chairman of religion.

District chairmen not previously mentioned who attended the board meeting were Mrs. R. L. Hicks, Kerby, conservation; Mrs. Charles McCulmon, Ashland, education; Mrs. Marvin Inman, Grants Pass, scholarships; Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman, Gold Hill, international affairs; Mrs. R. J. Heidenreich, Grants Pass, Council of international clubs; Mrs. Edward Burkett, Rogue River, public affairs and Mrs. Barbara Tucker, Selma, community improvement.

In keeping with the suggestion of Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, president of General Federation of Women's Clubs that there be a week in February set aside when each club will think of the founding fathers and of their challenge to us, a patriotic theme was used in the decoration. Silhouettes of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln were displayed as was a facsimile of the Bill of Rights document. Small cherry trees, and miniature American flags placed upon streamers of red, white and blue crepe paper centered the long luncheon tables.

The Rogue River Civic Improvement Club members who served on the decorating committee were Mrs. Beryl Ingle, Mrs. Edna Paterson, Mrs. Robert Rowlinson, Mrs. Edward Burkett and Mrs. Ralph O. Chapin.

Mrs. Goldie C. Willamuth of Stirling, Idaho, a General Federation member was a guest. Hostesses assisting in greeting were Mrs. Lynabel Deck of Rogue River and Mrs. Fred Salvage of Cave Junction.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Crayon Erasure

POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY—Children sometimes get carried away while coloring with crayons and decide to color the walls. The solution is to apply toothpaste to the marks and let it set for 15 minutes. Then wipe off with a dampened cloth. Like magic, the crayon marks disappear.

GIRLS—Sally, my daughter-in-law, used this to remove marks made by non-washable crayons on painted walls and woodwork. However, she said the toothpaste should not be left on too long or it will harden.

DEAR POLLY—Young mothers who sometimes take their children to eat in restaurants should carry an eight-inch length of ribbon, spiked at each end with a clip clothespin. This, placed around the back of a child's neck and fastened to two corners of a restaurant napkin, will make a good bib in seconds. A little baking soda sprinkled into ash trays will serve as a fire extinguisher if any cigarettes are smoldering. Also makes the trays easier to clean.

MRS. C.V.S.
GIRLS—Soda is certainly less messy than dousing the butts with water to be sure every spark is dead.

POLLY
DEAR POLLY—Steel helmets, such as used by the Army, can be bought for very little surplus and secondhand stores. They make attractive hanging planters. Make two or three drainage holes in the bottom, spray with paint any desired color and attach wires or light chains. "Lo and behold," a hanging planter. MRS. L.D.F.

DEAR POLLY—When your children have their school pictures taken, do save one. Then, at the end of the school year, staple the picture to the back of the child's report card. This way you have a very nice record, from year to year, of the report cards and what the children looked like in the different grades. M.M.
DEAR POLLY—Prizes are always needed for a child's birthday party and most of us end up with the same old things. A good idea is to send a way throughout the year for the different kinds of games and prizes advertised on the backs of cereal boxes and so on. Put them away and when junior's birthday arrives, you will have an inexpensive variety of prizes that will delight the children. Saves on shopping time, too. MRS. J.K.

Share your favorite homemaking ideas . . . send them to Polly in care of Herald and News. You will receive a bright, new silver dollar if Polly uses your ideas in up with the same old things. A Polly's Pointers.

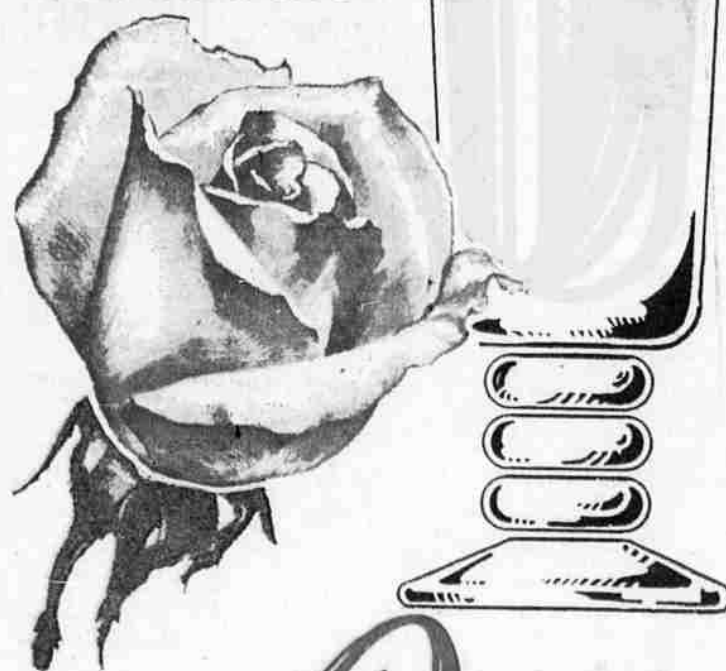

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS DOG?

He's a Sable Pekingese, tan color. He disappeared from 2521 Hope Street 2 weeks ago. GENEROUS REWARD! for information. Call TU 4-6061, TU 4-3590, or TU 4-5734. He's blind, and is probably as sad as we are at being lost. Please help us find him.
