Danger Seen In Overruff

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Looking at the opening lead, I came up with two distinctly different analyses. Either West had opened a short suit or he had led from the king to make me decide whether to finesse at trick one.

Assuming a short suit lead, how could I make the hand? I could play the ace of diamonds, cash my ace and king of hearts and discard a club from dummy, cash the ace of clubs, and then do a little crossruffing. Eventually, I could afford to let the queen of spades make, but if I could make eight of the nine trumps in my hand and dummy I would have the 12 tricks for a slam.

The only danger would be in getting overruffed by the queen. A second trump lead would hold me to seven trump tricks.

Therefore, I must plan plays that would be most likely to prevent this. Here is the one I worked out.

I won the diamond, led a heart to my ace and discarded a club on the king of hearts. Then I ruffed a heart, led a club to my ace and ruffed a club with dummy's ace of spades. This play looked silly, but I could afford it as I was trying for six, not seven. Next I ruffed a diamond with my king of spades and my last club with dummy's five of spades.

I didn't care if this one was overruffed. I had succeeded in trumping all my losers and it didn't matter when the queen of spades made.

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♦	Double	Pass	1 N.T.
Pass	2 N.T.	Pass	?

You, South hold: ♠8 7 6 5 ♥K 4 2 ♦A J 9 ♣8 4 2

What do you do?

A—Pass. Unless your partner is very conservative in his bidding you will have to struggle to make two no-trump and should not hazard a try for game.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two no-trump your partner jumps to three spades over your one no-trump. What do you do?

Gob Admits Sitter Rape

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—A young sailor confessed Tuesday night he strangled and raped a 14-year-old girl he had met through a baby-sitter ad the girl had posted in a self-service laundry.

Loren Neal Duffield, 23, Trenton, Mo., said he killed Gwendolyn (Connie) Padgett after picking her up Monday night at the automatic laundy where she waited for him with her older brother.

Duffield, who has a wife and a year-old son, was charged with murder, rape and grand larceny.

Connie's recently posted handwritten advertisement on the bulletin board at the laundry said:

"Babysitter available. Experienced. Phone: JU 8-9254."

Detective Capt. C.D. Grant said Duffield, stationed at Norfolk Naval Air Station was arrested Tuesday on a hunch. The sailor had reported he was assaulted and robbed Monday night. Investigating officers became suspicious when Duffield greeted them in clothes which fitted the description of those worn by Connie's prospective employer.

Theft Suspect Abandons Car To Elude Officers

Klamath Falls police investigated six thefts of goods valued at over $120 plus the theft of an auto Tuesday that was recovered by police the next day.

M. A. Ramsdell, Salem, reported his locked car was stolen between 7 and 9:30 p.m. while it was parked next to the Anchor Cafe.

The vehicle was spotted Wednesday near Worden heading toward Klamath Falls. City police followed the vehicle after spotting it at Riverside and Main streets and attempted to stop it by blocking the street at South Third and Main.

The driver, however, eluded the roadblock. While police were still hot in pursuit the driver jumped out of the moving car and fled on foot.

Rolling into a ditch, the driverless car came to rest at South Second Street.

Police were unable to catch the suspect, but he apparently left some of his personal belongings in the car when h fled.

A portable stop sign stolen about midnight Monday is still apparently on the loose. The three-foot-high sign was taken from the intersection of South Ninth and Main streets.

A .22 caliber automatic pistol was reported stolen from the glove compartment in a pick-up truck owned by Henry M. Stagner, 3032 Emerald Stret, police reported.

Stagner said the theft occurred between 5 p.m. Tuesday and 4:45 a.m. Wednesday. The thief broke out the wing window to gain entry into the vehicle.

Police said the gun could turn up at one of the local pawn shops and are looking for two men suspected of the crime.

Two tires and wheels were stolen from a car at the Thomas Dodge Used Car Lot, 4245 S. 6th Street, Tuesday night police reported.

The thieves jacked up the front end of the car to remove the tires. There are no suspects in the case.

Police received a report from Steve L. Durkin, Box 4472, Kingsley Field, that a $20 battery was stolen from his auto sometime between March 1 and 4 while the vehicle was parked in the city parking lot at the air base.

John Weir Phillip, 450 Michigan Street, reported his license tag was taken from his license plate sometime during the week.

Phillip's license number is 6B-4397.

Four hub caps (each initialed JRW) worth $30 were stolen from a vehicle owned by Dick Hart, Box 248, Merrill, between 8 and 10 p.m. Sunday while the car was parked at the Holiday Bowl parking lot.

The caps, obviously, will be easily identifiable.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Judiciary Committee approved a measure Tuesday to confer honorary United States citizenship on Sir Winston Churchill.

The proposal, sponsored by Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., would make Churchill the first foreign citizen to be given honorary citizenship by Congress. It still must be acted on by the House and Senate.

Army Finally Catches Father AWOL 11 Years

BRAINERD, Minn. (UPI) — "I sure hope I get him back soon, the kids have been asking for him."

Mrs. Frank Borders, 27, was talking about her 38-year-old husband. He was whisked off to a stockade a week ago to face a charge of being absent without official leave from the Army 11 years.

Borders is lodged at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., pending an investigation into his failure to report to Camp Atterbury, Ind., in 1952.

Borders, a father of five and an apprentice millwright the past five years at the Northwest Paper Co. here, was arrested at the plant Tuesday by two military policemen and a Brainerd policeman.

Mrs. Borders said the police appeared at the couple's home with her husband and asked him to produce his Army discharge papers.

When Borders could not produce the documents, she said, they took him to Ft. Snelling, in Minneapolis, and checked his records there. He then was taken to Ft. Sheridan.

Mrs. Borders said she had "no idea" her husband might have deserted the Army.

"He's always been a good husband and provider and I'm just sick without him. The kids have been asking me where he is. I sure hope I get him back soon."

The Borders' children include Bradley, 7, Brenda, 5, Belinda, 4, Bonnie, 2, and Baille Alaine, 7 months.

Mrs. Borders said she and her husband, both natives of Brainerd, were married in 1955. Shortly afterward, she said, they moved to Spokane, Wash., where he drove a truck for a construction firm for two years.

The 5th Army said Borders was "apprehended by order of the Adjutant General's Department in Washington. We still are investigating the background of the case. It's undergoing intensive investigation."

Klamath Highway Workers Honored For Accident-Free Driving Records

Three Klamath Falls employes of the Oregon State Highway Department's Maintenance and Traffic Divisions have been cited for attaining a record of 13 years of accident-free driving during their employment with the department.

Those cited were Joseph R. Monroe, 2736 Altamont Drive; Laurence A. Hoppe, 1420 Summers Lane; and Wilhem A. Rieck, 1440 Dayton Street.

Five other highway department employes of Klamath and Lake counties were similarly cited and include Samuel C. Wright, Alkali Lake; Roger W. Wright, Chiloquin; Floyd Chandler, Lakeview; Lewis G. Hadley, Paisley, and Frank E. Moran, Silver Lake.

Fifty three other government drivers in the two counties received awards for operating government vehicles without becoming involved in a chargeable accident for periods of from one to 12 years.

Throughout the state, 1,084 drivers in the highway department's two divisions earned awards for safe driving in 1962, topping the record high of 1,053 for the previous year.

Of the 1962 total, 129 men earned the 13-year award. Next in line for number of years free from a preventable accident were 76 men earning their 12-year awards.

"The safety record is remarkably good considering that much of it was attained by driving during foul weather, a time when most motorists prefer to stay off the road because of the added traffic hazards," the department stated.

To earn a safe driving award, a State Highway Department employe must drive 55 per cent of the time during the year and must do it without becoming involved in a preventable accident. The department's safe driver program started 13 years ago.

The 53 Klamath and Lake County drivers who received awards for driving safely less than 13 years follow:

Sheriff Finds Drifting Boat

A 16-foot runabout, adrift in Klamath Lake, was recovered by the sheriff's office lake patrol early Wednesday after it was found wedged among brush and rocks in shallow water northeast of Buck Island.

The craft, painted white with brown decking, is in custody of the sheriff's office pending return to its owners. A resident of Cove Point saw the boat adrift on the lake Wednesday and reported the fact to the sheriff.
