BOOTH BUILDERS — These men contributed time and effort and merchants contributed materials in construction of a special hospital booth in the showroom of Balsiger Motors. The booth will give Basin residents an opportunity to see actual equipment to be used in the new hospital in action. Left to right, Bob Belshee, Jesse Wheatley, Don Schortgen, Roy Plank and George Fawver.

$725,000 Hospital Fund Drive Opens

CAMPAIGN CABINET — These men will be guiding the various segments of the Intercommunity Hospital Fund drive. Seated, left to right, are A. M. Collier, special gifts chairman; James F. Stilwell, general chairman. Standing, same order, Dick Henzel and Mike Balsiger, campaign vice chairmen. These men have shouldered the responsibility of the fund drive to make a new hospital facility a reality.

Volunteer Force Of 250 To Conduct Fund Drive

NIGHT FIGHTERS — Night fighters for the new hospital might well describe this evening view of the campaign headquarters. Several nights each week many women have given up their evenings to lend a big helping hand with the reams of typing and other processing of campaign literature.
