

CONCERT TIME — LaMar Jensen again this year directed the popular Pops concert at Klamath Union High School. He is pictured at left after the concert chatting with Van Mellison.

Zuleima Club Meets

The Zuleima Nile Club met March 6 for a buffet luncheon at the Winema Hotel. The tables were artistically decorated with artificial roses, orchid candles and natural ivy. Barbara Mellison, the chairman for the day, introduced and thanked her committee.

The new president, Emogene Jones, called the meeting to order and introduced the new princesses, Mary Johnson, Micki Zigler and Alexis Runyon, who were invited to join the club. The new officers were also introduced and the new program chairman, Margaret Larkin, gave an outline of future programs.

Princess Nine Nyback introduced the speaker of the day, Rowena McDonald, who has been in the flower business for 17 years. When asked how she would like to be introduced she said, "I guess I am just an unclaimed blessing." She gave a most interesting talk and demonstration on the arrangement and use of flowers. She made several lovely arrangements which Mrs. Nyback gave to the club for use as prizes.

Queen Catherine Stonecypher thanked the club for its loyalty and generosity, especially for the gift of $200 to the convalescent relief, which was given in her name by the Zuleima Nile Club. This is the fund that supplies artificial limbs, arms and braces for crippled children.

After a short business meeting bridge was played.
