

AAUW To See Rotorua Slides

Slides of Rotorua will be featured at the Monday noon meeting of the American Association of University Women Monday, March 18, at the Winema Hotel. Mrs. Walt McIntyre, the featured speaker, will discuss her recent trip to Klamath Falls' sister city. All members and their guests are invited. A special prize will be given at the meeting. For reservations, call Mary Neitling at TU 2-5332.

Glove Styles Are Numerous

Short, bloused shirt sleeves; long tapered sleeves; wide, flaring sleeves and no sleeves at all are some of the fashions spring gloves must be prepared to handle. Result is a variety of glove lengths and, even more important, a variety of styles. Often the character of the glove, rather than the length, determines what glove should be worn. Generally, six and four-button lengths appear with cuffed and tapered sleeves, eight and ten-button types with short and no-sleeve styles. But newer and even more fashionable are such ideas as the wrist-length shortie with the sleeveless or short-sleeved fashion. Refreshing accompaniment for the short, tight sleeve is a wide-cuffed, long glove, pulled on over the sleeve. Understated colors, including a number of neutrals, glove the hand for spring. Amber to bisque tones, rich browns, subtle off-greens and pinks make news. In any case, hues are at hand to complement each and every costume.

Play Date Is Announced

The fourth and last of the Broadway Theatre League plays will be presented Saturday, April 27, at the Holly Theatre in Medford. Judith Anderson, considered one of the finest actresses on the stage today, will present excerpts from "Medea and Macbeth." Curtain time and further details will be announced later.

Season's Styles Inspire Jewelry

Jewelry design for spring takes its cue from the new highlights in fashion.

The sleeve returns, drawing interest to the arm and hand. Wide cuff bracelets and fluid chains around the wrist are only a few of the exciting jewelry ideas.

Rings, at the fingertip of the narrow sleeve, make a focal point in big dome shapes, in pearls and stones.

Pins pinpoint the base of V-necklines and show up importantly on the fashionable sweater suit—placed at the hip or the shoulder, on an ascot. Drop and pendant pins provide movement, in the graceful, feminine mood of the season.

High-rising jewelry collars in baroque or real pearl looks show off dramatic clasps.

More and more white, pretty pastels—yellows, blues and many, many pinks—are big for spring jewelry popularity.

'Cube' Toe Shoe Style

Dress shoes for a little boy's spring focus attention on the "cube" toe. Like the shoes his teen-age brother is wearing, the new style is blunted off at a tapered toe, and the shoe has walled, boxy sides.

For play or school, boys have a choice of the oxfords, slip-on moccasins and brushed split leather chukkas.

Black is still the favored color in smooth and grained leathers, but deep browns are a close second. In casual or school shoes, black and brown is joined by ivy green or bronzed leather. In the brushed leathers, lighter colors such as sand and gray are seen.

SMARTLY TAILORED — Always fashion-right is the navy and white combination. No exception is this stunning outfit worn by Mae Robin from Miller's. Of rayon, the full coat and matching dress are trimmed with white braid and chalk white buttons. The white pillbox hat is of lacy straw braid with gold ornament as interesting accent.

DRESSY CASUAL — Graff is the brand name for this very wearable Arnel and rayon denim two-piece suit worn by Delores Baggett. Easily cared for and washable, the suit features boxy jacket and pleated skirt in beige tones. With it, Delores wears white straw sailor hat with beige accent, short white gloves and white and beige Tweedies pumps. All items are now shown at Miller's.
