Orioles Take Eighth Straight Win; Cardinals Stage Terrific Comeback

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

In the spring hardly a major league manager pays much attention to exhibition game scores. Instead, the concern is over an individual player, the newcomers and certain veterans.

This spring, though, it's hard to pass up the play of the Baltimore Orioles without at least one serious glance. Sunday, the hustling and revamped Birds came from behind to beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 4-3, and gain their eighth straight exhibition victory.

Jackie Brandt was the hero, banging a 400-foot plus home run with Luis Aparicio aboard in the bottom of the ninth to pull it out. Aparacio, off to the best spring of his career, started the inning with a double off the wall in left field.

Brandt bluffed a bunt as reliever Ed Roebuck, Los Angeles' third pitcher, tried to jam him on the first pitch. Brandt then slipped his hands all the way down on the handle and ripped Roebuck's second pitch clean out of the park.

Orioles Reach Drysdale

The Dodgers had scored a run in the seventh to break a 2-2 tie on a double by Willie Davis, who stole third, and a sacrifice fly by Daryl Spencer.

Dean Stone, Baltimore's fourth pitcher, got credit for the victory. Don Drysdale worked the first six innings, and was touched for seven hits and Baltimore's first two runs.

Tom Brown rammed a two-run homer in the first inning and the Washington Senators took over from there to beat the Minnesota Twins, 8-5.

Cards Stage Comeback

The St. Louis Cardinals staged the strongest comeback of all Sunday, rallying from a 10-0 deficit in the fourth inning to beat the Kansas City A's, 12-11.

The Cincinnati Reds whipped the world champion New York Yankees, 6-3, on homers by Wally Post and Gordy Coleman.

Homers also helped the Detroit Tigers beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-3, and the Boston Red Sox down the San Francisco Giants, 9-6. Norm Cash and Chico Fernandez hit the Detroit homers and rookie Pete Jernigan's two-run swat during a five-run outburst in the fifth sparked the Red Sox to their win over the NL champion Giants.

Surrenders Four Hits

Jerry Walker gave up only four hits in five innings and rookie Vic Davalillo hit a triple, double and single to lead the Cleveland Indians to a 6-5, win over the Chicago Cubs.

Bob Friend and Tom Sturdivant, pitching at mid-season form, gave up just four hits between them to help the Pittsburgh Pirates down the Milwaukee Braves, 7-1. Warren Spahn took the brunt of the Pittsburgh attack, being raked for eight hits and three runs in four innings.

The lowly New York Mets, who usually lose ball games on errors, capitalized on a miscue by first baseman Grover Jones to score two runs and beat the White Sox, 2-1. Galen Cisco, Ken MacKenzie and Ray Daviault spaced seven hits with MacKenzie picking up the victory.

Pitcher Gene Conley finally agreed to terms by the Red Sox and said he would report to their spring base in Scottsdale, Ariz., on Wednesday. He said his injured ankle is mending rapidly and he would be ready to run next week.

Fixing Denied By 'Bama President

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)— University of Alabama President Frank Rose said Sunday Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant was innocent of charges that he conspired to rig the outcome of a football game.

Rose's statement was read on a statewide television program on which Bryant denied the charge. Rose said the charges made against Bryant in a magazine article were a "real injustice."

"After careful and thorough investigation, including the most favorable results of a lie detector test. . I have found no evidence of any kind that would implicate Coach Bryant in any way with rigging, or fixing, or betting on football games," Rose said.

Post Levels Charges

Bryant and former University of Georgia Athletic Director Wally Butts have been charged in a Saturday Evening Post article with conspiring to rig the outcome of the Alabama-Georgia football game last Sept. 22.

The Post, in an article scheduled to appear in its March 23 edition, quotes George Burnett of Atlanta as saying he overheard a telephone conversation in which Butts briefed Bryant on Georgia's game plans.

Butts has termed the charges "the most fantastic and ridiculous thing that I can imagine," and instructed his lawyers to file a $10 million libel suit.

Touches Off Inquiries

The charges have touched off a sweeping investigation involving university officials at both schools, Southeastern Conference officials, the Georgia attorney general's office, the FBI and the U. S. Senate.

Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook said he planned a "complete and thorough investigation" which include interrogation of "every person known to have been involved."

An FBI spokesman in Washington said investigators were making "inquiries" and Jerome Adlerman, chief counsel for the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee said: "Of course, we'll look into it."

Bryant currently has a $500,000 libel suit pending against the Saturday Evening Post for an article it published last October alleging that Bryant condoned brutality by his players.

He termed the current article "another malicious attempt to destroy me, my reputation for honesty and my integrity in order to attempt to affect the outcome of this (earlier) suit."

Floyd Wins In Florida Open Match

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) —Ray Floyd, a newcomer whose hot putter, tender age and blond crew cut could earn him the title of the golden boy of golfdom, has found out where they pay the winners.

So unfamiliar with the mechanics of winning was the 20-year-old youngster from Fayetteville, N.C., that officials had to chase him down to hand him his $3,500 top prize money in the $25,000 St. Petersburg Open he won with a 14-under-par 274.

"I've never been around one of these things," Floyd drawled Sunday when officials led him to the winner's stand after he won the tourney by one stroke over Dave Marr of New Rochelle, N.Y.

And Floyd never had. It was his 11th attempt at a PGA tourney and only the second one he had completed. Up until Sunday he never had won a red cent as a touring pro.

Floyd, a husky six-footer, started the final round three strokes back of Marr and whizzed through the final 18 with a three-under-par 69.

Floyd's putter was the hottest club in his bag and he made the 18 holes with only 27 putts. He collected five birdies and two bogeys.

Marr carded a 73 for the day to go with his earlier 67-69-66 for a 72-hole total of 275 which brought him $2,300.

A stroke behind Marr at 276 were Mason Rudolph and Tommy Bolt, who had led at the end of the first round.

Tied for fifth at 278 were Bob Goalby, Julius Boros, Doug Ford and Billy Maxwell.

Doug Sanders, second round leader, and Dow Finsterwald were next at 279 and defending champion Bobby Nichols had 280.

Heavy Title Fight Still Said Remote

CHICAGO (UPI) — The betting today was not who would win, but whether the Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson bout would come off as scheduled in Miami on April 10.

Chances of the heavyweight title match meeting its Florida date grew increasingly remote over the weekend. Jack Nilon, the champion's advisor, said it would have to be postponed because of Liston's knee injury.

Liston, limping slightly and obviously overweight, arrived in Chicago Sunday for a week's rest and a doctor's examination of his left knee. It was injured originally in swinging a golf club and Nilon said it buckled Wednesday when the champion threw a left hook at the punching bag.

"We're primarily concerned now with whether there will have to be an operation," said Nilon. "We just don't know and nobody could expect him to fight the way it is now."

Nilon hastily added that "this is no dodge."

"Certainly we're not afraid of Patterson, he scoffed. "We want to get this bout over with just as quickly as we can."

Nilon cast more doubt on the match when he said he will meet Wednesday with promoters to "determine where and when a fight will be held."

"It could be Detroit, Pittsburgh or Baltimore," Nilon said, shrugging off a return to Chicago with the comment that "I doubt if it would be wise to go back there."

Also in Miami, promoter Al Bolan said he has no choice but to work on the basis that it might be called off. "If we have a reasonable request we will accept it and arrange to postpone the fight," he said.

Seattle, Portland Ahead

Western Hockey League Roundup
By United Press International

Seattle's Bobby Barlow, the hottest thing on Western Hockey League ice for the last two weeks, almost single-handedly put his team into first place in the WHL Northern Division Sunday night.

Barlow scored four goals as the Totems whammed Spokane 6-2 to go two points up on second-place Vancouver. He has hit 11 goals in Seattle's last six games.

The Portland Buckaroos, meanwhile, glided farther in front of San Francisco in the Southern Division race by edging Los Angeles 3-2.

Gerry Goyer's winner with two minutes and 10 seconds left gave the decision to the Buckaroos, stretching their lead over second-place San Francisco to five points.

The Blades took a 2-0 lead in the first period, but goals by Bill Saunders and Tommy McVie tied it up. The Blades have lost their last six contests.

A fight between Portland goalie Don Head and Ed Diachuk of Los Angeles broke out at the end of the second period. Both were given major penalities.

No games are scheduled tonight.

Pilots Win

PORTLAND (UPI)— Portland's Pilots rolled over Pacific 93-36 in an opening season dual track meet Saturday.

TELLS OF OFFER

GOTEBORG, Sweden (UPI)— Swedish promoter Edwin Ahlquist says Tom Bolan of Championship Sports, Inc., has offered Ingemar Johansson $750,000 to fight Cassius Clay. Ahlquist said the sum is $250,000 above the original figure Bolan offered, Ahlquist said.

Russia's Lake Baikal is the world's deepest (5,315 feet) lake and Eurasia's largest body of fresh water.

Fans Pay Tribute To Cousy In Final Game With Boston

BOSTON (UPI)—"That was undoubtedly the greatest tribute in the history of professional sports."

So pronounced the dean of National Basketball Association coaches, Arnold "Red" Auerbach, after his prize player, Bob Cousy, officially completed his 13th and final regular professional season Sunday.

Remaining for the veteran Cousy, who next fall becomes basketball coach at Boston College, are the playoffs in which Boston meets the survivor of the Syracuse-Cincinnati preliminary series.

Cousy, who has written his name countless times into the basketball record books, drew ovation after ovation during the hour-long "Cousy Day" ceremonies before the game.

But a jammed-in Boston Garden crowd, announced at 13,909 though obviously far in excess of that, reserved its biggest ovation for the end of the game.

Auerbach used the emotionally spent Cousy only sparingly in the 125-116 victory over Syracuse.

The crowd cheered and applauded itself hoarse and sore-handed, and did not stop until a squad of policemen and ushers escorted Cousy from the auditorium after the game had ended virtually unnoticed.

Flanked by his wife Marie, their two daughters and his parents during the pre-game program, Cousy received trophies, plaques, pictures, a silver service, films of his career and the keys to a new Cadillac.

With his voice breaking and head bowed, he told the crowd and a regional television audience that "nothing has ever been as difficult for me as today . . . If I had it to do over again, I can't imagine playing anywhere but Boston."

Everyone who could get speaking time paid tribute to Cousy. NBA President Maurice Podoloff said there "is only one Cousy, there'll never be another, and none could attain your heights."

A letter from President Kennedy cited Cousy's "illustrious career," Mayor John F. Collins proclaimed Cousy Week in Boston and Gov. Endicott Peabody sent his greetings.

FINAL BOW — Bob Cousy of the Boston Celtics presses microphone to his face as he breaks down crying while giving a speech to an estimated 15,000 fans prior to his last regular season game at Boston Garden Sunday night. Cousy, the all-time wizard of professional basketball, closed out his 13th and final regular season career in an emotional hour-long ceremony.

Portland Bids For Olympics

NEW YORK (UPI) — Representatives from five cities deliver their presentations before the U.S. Olympic Committee today in a bid to host the 1968 summer Olympic Games.

Detroit, Los Angeles, Portland, San Francisco and Philadelphia are seeking to gain the Olympic Committee's backing as the United States' candidate for the games.

Detroit or Los Angeles are given the best chance of being selected.

The Committee chose Detroit to represent the United States last Oct. 16, but at a surprise meeting here Feb. 12, the committee decided to re-open the bidding to the original five cities because of pressure from Los Angeles.

"It's between Detroit and Los Angeles" an Olympic official said then. "The rest of the cities are coming along for the ride or looking toward the future."

The United States last was the site of the summer games in 1932 at Los Angeles and the main deterrent since then has been the United States' presentations of many cities before the international olympic committee. By putting the best single city in the international bidding, the U.S. Olympic Committee feels it can improve America's chances of getting the site.

Man Captured At Roadblock

NORTH HOLLYWOOD (UPI)— Police Saturday held Stanley Burt Parker, 29, on suspicion of robbery and disarming two policemen at the point of a shotgun.

Parker was returned here Friday from Madera, where he was seized by the California Highway Patrol at a roadblock on Wednesday.

The suspect was sought since Feb. 23 when he allegedly disarmed officers A. J. Gastaldo and L. E. Harvey following a clothing store robbery in North Hollywood.

Tribal Brawls Flare In Congo

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — One Katangese was killed and three Ethiopian U. N. soldiers wounded Friday night in tribal brawls in an African township near here.

The incident occurred a few hours after an unknown gunman fired into the villa of U. N. assistant chief representative Jaime Valdes, narrowly missing the 39-year-old Chilean diplomat as he sat on a couch.

The Ethiopian soldiers were wounded when their patrol tried to enter a house in Katuba, an African township, to break up the brawl. None was injured seriously.

Pro Cagers Enter Post-Season Tilt

By United Press International

Cincinnati and St. Louis finished the regular National Basketball Association season Sunday on winning notes and now start the post-season playoff grind.

The Royals, who defeated New York, 116-109, open a best-of-five Eastern Division first-round series with the Nationals at Syracuse Tuesday night.

The Hawks trounced Detroit, 119-105, as a prep for their Western Division playoff opener with the Pistons at St. Louis Wednesday night.

Boston, winning its eighth consecutive Eastern title, waits to play the winner of the Cincinnati-Syracuse playoff in a best-of-seven series for the right to enter the championship round.

The St. Louis-Detroit winner takes on Los Angeles for the Western sectional title.

The Celtics celebrated Bob Cousy Day Sunday and hoped to toast a fifth straight NBA title early next month as they defeated Syracuse, 116-109. Tommy Heinsohn led the Boston attack with 28 points. Cousy appeared briefly and scored eight points in his final regular season game. He retires after the playoffs to become head basketball coach at Boston College.

Bob Petit and Cliff Hagan combined for 51 points as St. Louis hoped to make it a winning habit against Detroit and Oscar Robertson tallied 34 points for Cincinnati as the Royals wound up a 10-2 winning season over New York.

Helicopters Rescue Crew

OPORTO, Portugal (UPI)—The 27 crewmen aboard the 7,161-ton Liberian freighter Silver Valley which ran aground and broke in half in rough seas were rescued by helicopters Saturday.

One half of the vessel sank, and the crewmen, all Greeks, huddled on the remaining half until rescuers were able to reach them. Vicious ground swells prevented surface rescue vessels from getting close.

Portuguese Air Force helicopters then were dispatched to the scene and succeeded in lifting the men to safety.

Sports Arena Bill Signed

SALEM (UPI)—Gov. Mark Hatfield Friday signed SB213 permitting cities and counties to cooperate in building athletic and exposition facilities.

The measure is designed to boost Portland's Olympic hopes by giving Multnomah County authority to help in a new sports center.

Hatfield also signed HB1 56 repealing the 1961 ambulance law.

Other bills signed into law:

SB62 — Revising scientific fish names.

HB1050—Vehicle dealer's licensing.

HB1093—School meetings.

HB2091, 2093 — Budgets for tax court, treasury department.

CAPPS RESIGNS AS PRO

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Howard Capps has announced his resignation as head golf pro at the Desert Inn Country Club, effective at the end of this year. Capps was the originator of the annual "Tournament of Champions."

"It's sure a good thing you told Pop to show me how before letting me try it!"
