Duncan Named All-Star Wrestling Coach

Klamath High's wrestling coach, Delance Duncan, has received the top honor in Oregon High School wrestling circles. He has been named to be the coach of the All-Star team which will make the trip to Japan this summer—and possibly around the world. He will be joined in the coaching ranks by John Dustin of Marshfield who will assist him. This is the greatest honor bestowed upon an Oregon high school wrestling coach. The team which Duncan will take to Japan isn't yet known.

INDIAN TOURNAMENT BRACKET — This is the tournament bracket for the National Indian Tournament which opened at 1:30 today in the Chiloquin gymnasium. Lapwai, Idaho, met the Chiloquin Red Foxes in the first game with Phoenix taking on the Toppenish, Wash. Papooses in the second game at 3 p.m. The night games paired Lodgegrass, Mont., against the Fallon, Nev., quintet. The final game of the first round will pit the defending National Champion Sprague River Ducks against the Warm Springs Magpies. This should be one of the best games of the tournament. The Magpies have played several close games with the Ducks.

Grants Pass Humbles South Salem, 76-47

EUGENE (UPI) — Defending champion Grants Pass rolled over South Salem 76-47 and ambitious Milwaukee upset South Eugene 47-41 to highlight first round games in the Oregon high school basketball tournament Wednesday. Tigard defeated Franklin of Portland 61-51. Sandy breezed past Hermiston, 72-56. Astoria topped Tillamook 58-53 and Pendleton won over Molalla 61-46 to complete the opening round of the 16-team, five-day tourney. In overtime games Tuesday night, North Eugene edged Marshall of Portland and Medford got past Lebanon. Grants Pass plays Sandy at 7:30 p.m. and Milwaukee faces Tigard at 8:45 p.m. in quarterfinal games tonight. Medford met North Eugene at 3 p.m. and Pendleton took on Astoria at 4:15 p.m. in quarterfinal contests today. In consolation play today, Lebanon battled Marshall at 8:30 a.m., Molalla played Tillamook at 9:45 a.m., South Salem went against Hermiston at 11 a.m. and South Eugene faced Franklin at 1:45 p.m. The losers were eliminated. A record Wednesday attendance of 22,018 turned out. Broken down, the crowds were 9,618 for the afternoon games and 4,458 for the morning session. The attendance raised the number of persons who watched the tournament in two days to 32,160. Alan Hutchins, a 6-3 senior center, poured in 32 points and picked off 15 rebounds to lead Grants Pass to its surprisingly easy victory over South Salem. He hit 13 of 23 field goal attempts. Wayne Metzger led the losers with 15. Defending Champs Impress Grants Pass, which surprised everyone last year when it won the tourney, outscored South Salem 21-5 in the second period to take a 31-22 halftime lead after trailing 17-10 at the end of the first quarter. The winners were ahead 50-37 after the third quarter. Milwaukee came on in the second half to surprise South Eugene, which was ranked second in the final Oregon Journal Coaches' poll this season. Big Dave Green, a rugged 6-4, 210-pound senior center, scored 19 points and snared seven rebounds for Milwaukee. John Pinkstaff, star 6-6 center for the Eugene school, was held to four points. Jack Willis and Jim Lockard scored 11 points apiece for the losers. South Eugene was in front 12-9 and 22-21 at the end of the first two quarters but Milwaukee stormed ahead 36-31 at the third quarter break. Tigard Takes Franklin Tigard outscored Franklin 20-11 in the final quarter to pick up its win. The winners were ahead 41-40 after three quarters after trailing 29-25 at halftime. Bob Lamb and Bill Hastron sparked Tigard with 16 and 12 points, respectively. Mike Gimboil with 11 topped the Franklin scoring. Sandy was in front all the way in rolling past Hermiston. The quarter scores were 19-11, 31-21 and 49-33. The winners held a 57-38 edge in rebounds. Sandy's Dale Carpenter and Dan Nichols each scored 18 points. High for the losers was Bud Stratton with 23. North Catholic's Jack Petrina scored 16 points and snared 20 rebounds to help his team best Elmira, the pre-tournament favorite. Jerry Bushman hit 15 points and Ed Gorman tallied 13 points and picked off 18 rebounds for the winners. Elmira's Henry Drummonds came up with 15. A crowd of 3,399 watched the championship game to push the total attendance for the eight-team, three-day meet to 14,826, a new record.

Central Grabs A-2 Title By Downing Devils, 64-62

COOS BAY (UPI) — Central of Monmouth edged Coquille 64-62 in overtime Wednesday night to capture the Oregon high school Class A-2 basketball championship. Gary Neal's three-point play with 29 seconds left in the overtime period gave the Panthers their narrow win. Neal hit a five-foot jump shot from the key and connected on a free throw after being fouled on the play by Coquille's Tom Leatherwood. Vale defeated Henley 68-59 for third place and North Catholic of Portland topped Elmira 59-53 for fourth place in consolation games. In the championship contest, the score was tied 61-61 at the end of regulation play. Pat Shely of Coquille opened the overtime scoring with a free throw. Took Football Title Central, which also captured the A-2 football title this school year, was led by Neal, who scored 24 points. DeGeorge Hoerauf and Frank Peterson hit 10 apiece for the winners. Leatherwood with 28 and Dave Wood with 16 sparked the Coquille attack. Coquille held an 18-16 first quarter lead but Central was in front 33-31 at halftime and 49-48 at the end of three quarters. Grants 20 Rebounds North Catholic's Jack Petrina scored 16 points and snared 20 rebounds to help his team best Elmira, the pre-tournament favorite. Jerry Bushman hit 15 points and Ed Gorman tallied 13 points and picked off 18 rebounds for the winners. Elmira's Henry Drummonds came up with 15. A crowd of 3,399 watched the championship game to push the total attendance for the eight-team, three-day meet to 14,826, a new record.

weight division title. He won six matches and had one draw on his way to the championship. Grant Humphrey finished second in the 130-pound weight class. The other wrestlers competing in the tournament were Dave Davis, Gary Hawkins, Rich MacBeth, Ron Head, Tom Miles, Paul Wilson, Ron Hitchcock, and Terry Christiansen.

Also competing in the open division of the tournament were assistant KU coach Lee Allen, who was second behind Ron Finley, Oregon State University grappler, and Oregon Tech's Milo Crumrine. Crumrine, the Pacific Coast AAU champ at 115, was third in the 125-pound class in this tournament behind Oregon State's Steve Hashimoto and Oregon State's Gary Head, a former teammate of Crumrine at Klamath High. He defeated two Portland State grapplers and drew with Head. He was beaten by Hashimoto, 2-0, in the final.

Ewing and Humphrey are two wrestlers from Klamath Union who will be in the training camp for a shot at the Japan trip. Other grapplers from KU are not known if any more are to be in the camp.

Duncan has been a successful wrestling coach at KU, building the team back up to championship proportions. The Pelican team finished in second place this season in state, only one point behind Grants Pass and Lebanon who tied for the coveted title. Listed below are the results of the AAU meet in Corvallis.

DELANCE DUNCAN To Coach All-Stars

KENT GOODING Makes All-Tournament

Bob Boyd Chosen New Head Coach Of Seattle's Quintet

SEATTLE (UPI) — Bob Boyd, said Boyd, who hopes to look his new head basketball coach at Seattle University, says he plans a "fast break offense with reservations." Some of the reservations will probably be on planes in and out of Southern California. Boyd, a 6-foot-6 former center for the University of Southern California, signed for a three-year high as head man at the Chieftain wigwam Wednesday and the talk immediately turned to recruiting. "I understand there are a lot of good prospects here in the state."

Gooding Selected All-Tournament

COOS BAY—The Henley Hornets, who took the only undefeated record into the State Class A-2 basketball tournament here, dropped their second game in as many nights here Wednesday to Vale in the contest for third place, 68-59.

The Hornets had had the turn of bad luck Tuesday night when they met a red-hot Coquille team which shot the bottom out of the basket to pull the biggest upset of the season, 67-62. The loss that knocked them out of the running for the title left the Hornets flat.

Coach Jerry Johnson's crew jumped off to a tremendous lead in the game with Vale and led by 11-1 at one point. But the pesky Vikings, who the night before had given the champion Central team fits despite being a small team, came storming back while the Hornets hit a cold streak.

They held on to a 17-15 lead at the end of the first period. The second period again haunted the Hornets as they scored only 12 and Vale pumped in 13 points to slice the Henley lead to only a point at the half-time intermission, 29-28. It was all Vale in the second half.

The Vikings split the nets for a hot 22 points in the third frame to 17 for the Hornets as the Vics took a 50-46 lead into the final period. The Hornets just didn't have the steam to make that comeback again and were outscored 18-13 for the final 68-59 total.

Big Kent Gooding did his best to keep the Hornets' head above water. He pumped in 26 points to lead the Hornets again in hitting .324 per cent of his shots (11 of 34). He pulled down 17 rebounds but fell two short of the tourney record of 60. He had 58 rebounds in three games.

He made the All-Tournament team and paced the stars. He was both the leading scorer, with 63 points, and the leading rebounder with 58. The other four on the All-Tournament team were Central's Gary Neal and Dale Wildfang, Elmira's Henry Drummonds and Coquille's Tom Leatherwood.

"We were just very flat," said Coach Jerry Johnson. "I think we reached our peak too soon. I would say we were playing our best ball two or three weeks ago. Our best game of the season was the last game against Lakeview. I'm real proud of the boys. We at 6:30.

Harlem Stars At Tulelake

TULELAKE (Special) — Tulelake High's gym will be the place tonight when the Harlem Stars come to entertain against a group of Tulelake All-Stars in a game which is slated to begin at 7:30.

Some of the Stars include Showboat Buckner, a dribbling expert, Maurice Harris, tabbed as the greatest set shot artist in basketball, Ed Wallace, a peerless pivot man, Taylor Billingsley, a jump shot artist, and 6-7 Andy Shepard. They will be playing against a group of All-Stars from Tulelake and the game is sponsored by the Block T organization to help pay for the transportation the Tulelake teams had on chartered buses this winter.

There will be a preliminary game between the Key Club, a group of boys in the Kiwanis organization, and the senior Kiwanis Club men. That game begins at 6:30.
