

Three Champions Lose To Challengers

Spahn, Wynn Show Top Form On Spring Day

By United Press International

Warren Spahn and Early Wynn, who can be excused for eyeing the calendar carefully, picked the first day of spring to demonstrate there's plenty of life in their aging arms.

And the results of their efforts Thursday probably will be that Spahn will pitch the opening game of the National League season for the Milwaukee Braves and Wynn will be carried by the Chicago White Sox at least long enough to achieve the 300th victory of his career.

Spahn, whose 18 victories last season increased his career total to 327, allowed only one run and three hits in seven innings as the Braves beat the New York Mets 2-1. Wynn, whose seven triumphs last season lifted his career mark to 299, went three innings and permitted just one run in the White Sox' 7-6 loss to the Cincinnati Reds.

Spahn, who will be 42 on April 23, thinks he'll again be able to take a regular starting turn and be good for 17 to 20 victories this year. He failed to make 20 last season for the first time since 1955.

Harper Hits Homer

Wynn was hit hard in early spring trials but now has turned in two consecutive strong three-inning stints. He was tagged for one hit — a homer by rookie Tommy Harper — Thursday. Only last Sunday he had pitched three scoreless innings against the Mets.

The Pittsburgh Pirates dealt the Minnesota Twins their fifth straight defeat, 5-4, in 10 innings, with Dick Schofield collecting four of their 12 hits.

Three-run homers by Wes Covington and Frank Torre came off 25-game winner Don Drysdale and enabled the Philadelphia Phillies to shade the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-7.

Al Kaline hit two homers and Norm Cash and Jake Wood also homered to lead the Detroit Tigers to an 11-4 romp over the Baltimore Orioles, who suffered their second loss in a row after 10 victories.

George Altman and Duke Carmel drove in two runs each with a single and a triple each as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Kansas City Athletics 6-1. Ray Sadecki limited the Athletics to one run in four innings and both he and Bob Gibson struck out five men in their stints.

Yanks, Nats Tie

The New York Yankees and Washington Senators struggled four hours and 25 minutes to a 7-7, 17-inning tie ended by darkness. The Yankees had 21 hits, including a homer by Elston Howard, while the Senators had 13 hits, topped by a homer by Don Lock.

Rookie right-hander Floyd Weaver pitched five scoreless innings in the Cleveland Indians' 7-2 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. Weaver was backed by a 13-hit attack that included homers by Fred Whitfield and Tito Francona.

The Los Angeles Angels scored their eighth victory in 11 exhibition games when they beat the San Francisco Giants 5-3. Bob Turley yielded only one earned run in six innings as the Angels soared to their seventh straight victory. Albie Pearson had two singles and two stolen bases for the winners.

Eddie Bressoud and Carl Yastrzemski humored to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 4-3 victory over the Houston Astros. Ernie Fazio tied the score for Houston with a homer in the sixth but Dick Radatz struck out four of the six men he faced in the last two innings to gain credit for the Red Sox' sixth win in 13 exhibition games.

Head Injuries Threaten Moore

By JACK CUDDY
UPI Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Boxing has three new world champions today and one ex-champion, Davey Moore, in a hospital with head injuries that threaten his life.

That's the harvest from the first triple-hitter fight show in a quarter century — a show in which Cuban Luis Rodriguez and Sugar Ramos became champions, along with Roberto Cruz of the Philippines.

It was 23-year-old Urtimino (Sugar) Ramos, a Cuban exile, who wrestled the world featherweight (126-pound) crown from 29-year-old Moore of Columbus, Ohio, on the 10th-round knockout that sent Davey to White Memorial Hospital.

Moore's Chances "Poor"
There Dr. Philip Vogel, a staff neurosurgeon, examined Moore and said "he is in a deep coma and his chances of living are poor."

That statement was made after a throat operation (tracheotomy) had been performed to assist the unconscious boxer's breathing.

Whether a brain operation will be necessary or of any use, the physicians at the hospital were not certain.

The Ramos-Moore fight was staged shortly after the star title bout in which Cuban Rodriguez, 26, took the welterweight (147-pound) title from slightly favored Emile Griffith of New York on a unanimous 15-round decision before a crowd of 26,142 paying fans at the Dodgers Baseball Stadium.

Won Earlier Fight

Griffith had won a split 10-round decision over Rodriguez in a nontitle bout in 1960.

After the Ramos-Moore bout, 21-year-old Cruz of the Philippines won the vacant world junior welterweight (140-pound) title by knocking out Raymundo (Batling) Torres of Mexico at 2:07 of the first round.

Cruz, a 3-1 underdog, captured the title left vacant when Italy's Duilio Loi retired early this year. Now, Cruz must defend against Eddie Perkins of Chicago within 90 days, according to an agreement with the World Boxing Association.

Copromoters Cal and Aileen Eaton and George Parnassus said they should "break about even" with the $262,452 gross gate, despite the $100,000 extra cost of postponing the fight show last Saturday night because of rain.

That shift lost the show a $70,000 television fee and incurred $30,000 additional expenses for the fighters' training and for setting up the stadium.

Griffith angrily told reporters at the stadium: "I was robbed by this decision. I won the fight beyond any doubt."

A United Press poll of 17 writers at the stadium showed eight for Griffith, including the UPI, seven for Rodriguez and two for a draw.

All six fighters received guarantees for Thursday night's show as follows: Griffith, $70,000; Moore, $40,000; Rodriguez, $15,000; Ramos $7,500; Torres, $7,500; and Cruz, $5,000.

It was ironic that Moore, 29, had won the featherweight crown four years ago last Monday in Los Angeles by knocking out Hogan (Kid) Bassey of Nigeria in the 13th round.

Father of Five

Thursday night Moore—father of five young children—was making his sixth defense of the 126-pound title and seeking his 19th straight victory. He weighed 125½ pounds, exactly the same as Ramos.

During his four years as champion, much of his fighting was in foreign countries. Some called him the "globe-trotter."

In the second round Thursday night, it seemed that mustachioed Moore would achieve his 30th knockout and 58th victory in 63 fights. He staggered young Ramos twice in that second session with head shots and seemed to have control.

But Ramos came back in the third with a swarming attack of repeated left jabs and solid hooks with both hands to knock Davey back onto his heels three times and begin a surge that carried on to the knockout at the end of the 10th session.

THERE SHE BLOWS! — The world must have looked like one big glove for Batling Torres (back) at Los Angeles Thursday night as Roberto Cruz knocked him out in the first round, at the 2:07 mark, at Chavez Ravine's triple title fight card. Cruz took the vacant junior welterweight title with the knockout. — UPI Telephoto

Giants Throwing Big Guns At LA

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants, taken two straight times by the Los Angeles Angels, throw their big guns at the Cherubs today.

Manager Alvin Dark named the classy lefty Billy Pierce and hard-throwing right hander Juan Marichal to toss against the Angels, who have now won seven exhibition battles in a row.

Los Angeles pilot Bill Rigney nonchalantly named three rookies to go against San Francisco. It will be Bob Leopold, Ed Thomas, and Gordy Richardson.

The Angel pitching staff, which has looked sterling all spring, got a real shot in the arm Thursday when ex-Yankee Bob Turley set the Giants down.

Control Is Enough

Turley's fast ball is a whisper of his former hammer, but he has picked up a lot of savvy in his decade on the hill in the American League. He stayed on the corners all day against the Giants.

He gave up two runs, one of them unearned, in six innings Thursday. Los Angeles went on to win 5-3 as the Giants reaped for their seventh loss in their last eight spring starts.

But this loss was perhaps more serious than the others from the Giants point of view.

Dark has been giving his rookie hurlers and holders plenty of action. But Thursday, he went with his best available lineup with only the sick Felipe Alou not in there. He also sent Jack Fisher to the mound and the chunky right hander surrendered five runs in six innings.

The Giants are combing the bushes for another starter to join Billy O'Dell, Jack Sanford, Marichal and Pierce. Fisher, Dark's number one hope, has not set the world afire this spring.

He surrendered but one run in five innings, but then was tagged for four more in the sixth as shoddy Giant fielding added to his woes.

Ken Hunt got a drive through to right field because Chuck Hiller got a bad jump on the ball. Harvey Kuenn lost Jim Fregosi's bloop double in the sun and so it went.

Albie Connects

Albie Pearson led the Angel attack with three hits and a couple of stolen bases. Bob Rodgers and Hunt added two hits apiece.

Kuenn, Tom Haller, and Jim Davenport each got two bingles for the Giants.

Davenport opened the ninth with a single. Then ace reliever Dan Oskinski of the Angels returned two men before Kuenn and Hiller ripped singles to make it 5-3.

That brought up Willie Mays, who worked the count to 3-and-2. Oskinski threw a shoulder high effort that would have been ball four last year, but was a solid strike three this season. The new strike zone had claimed another victim.

A crowd of 3,306 showed up for the battle.

Reames Golfers Kick-Off Year

Reames golfers will kick off the 1963 season at Reames Golf and Country Club with a "fizz-fuzz" breakfast Sunday morning, beginning at 7:30.

Co-chairmen Dick Kraneburg and Emil Berg pointed out that no entry fee will be charged to enter the tournament following the breakfast and prizes will be given at the completion of play.

Bowlers Entered Into Hall

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI)—Basil (Buzz) Fazio, 55-year-old bowler from Detroit, and Steve Nagy, 49, of Birmingham, Mich., joined the American Bowling Congress' hall of fame Thursday night during a break in the ABC tournament.

The two professionals were sworn into the ranks of the game's immortals along with the late Elmer Darnell Easter of Madison, Wis., who died at 76 in 1961.

At the ABC convention Thursday, Rochester, N.Y., was chosen as the site for the 1966 tournament by a unanimous vote of the 67 members of the congress' board of directors after Dayton, Ohio, the only other contender, withdrew its bid when a bond issue to erect an auditorium for the tournament was defeated.

Tournament action Thursday night produced no changes in the standings in either division. High team score was shot by Albany (N.Y.) Bowling Association No. 1, which turned in 2878. Hugh Simpson led his teammates with a three-game 678.
