

RECENT WEDS — The former Mary Margaret McCullough, daughter of Mrs. Viola McCullough of Merrill, and W. Robert Dearing Jr., son of Mrs. Helen Clyde, Merced, were recently married in Sunset Wedding Chapel in Carson City. Mr. and Mrs. Dearing are both employed by Lockheed, Sunnyvale, Calif., and are at home at 959 Harmon Street in San Jose.

MERRILL PAIR WED — Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wesley Roller were married Feb. 16 at the Merrill Presbyterian Church. She is the former Kay Ann Abbott.

Soroptimists Have Guests

MOUNT SHASTA — Soroptimist Club of Mount Shasta at its meeting March 13 had as its guests, Lee Ahlstrom, winner of the Soroptimist $2,500 Citizenship Award, and his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Layton Ahlstrom of McCloud. The papers submitted by the students are sent to the District and then Regional office for competition with other students in Soroptimist Federation of the Americas.

Also a guest of the club was H. T. Kachhi of Bombay, India, a chemical engineering student at College of the Siskiyous, who was introduced by Jack Criegel, dean of student personnel at COS. Kachhi is among 12 foreign students at the college and has been in the U.S. for two and one half years, part of that time as a student at Purdue University.

Other guests at the breakfast meeting were Mrs. Lillian Rose, Mrs. Lola Porter, Mrs. Sophie Hill, Mrs. Nina Kelley, Mary Codr, Kitty Codr, Shawn Scott and Gail Ferraris.

ENGAGED — Linda Marie Spini is the future bride of Michael Dean Granger of Sacramento. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Spini of Mount Shasta, she is a graduate of that city's schools and is attending Heald's Business College in Sacramento where her future husband is an employee of Aero-Jet Corporation. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Granger of Tacoma. An October wedding is planned.

POLLY'S POINTERS

In Time For Spring

POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY—I use a small plastic squeeze bottle that held catsup or mustard for planting tiny seeds such as sweet alyssum or petunias. One light squeeze puffs seeds into a shallow indentation made with a trowel. A clothes sprinkler head on a bottle full of water moistens them just enough.

I always plant bright red flowers near doorways and around the patio. There never seems to be any fuss with stray bees. Perhaps they cannot see red and are not attracted to flowers of this color.

MRS. L.B.L. JR.

DEAR POLLY—I enjoy collecting old coins. To clean them my son rubs them with a pencil eraser. Now I have old coins that shine like new.

MRS. W.M.K.

DEAR POLLY—I recently worried over what to give a friend as a going-away present. I decided to give her $2.50 in postage stamps tucked inside a pretty card. People on trips often can buy cards, find time to write but have no idea where to get stamps.

MRS. C.F.R.

DEAR POLLY—Take a tape measure and sew it, upside down, across the hem of your sewing apron. It is handy to measure a seam, a dress hem or many things while you are still sitting at the sewing machine.

MRS. A.L.

DEAR POLLY—When preparing your bath water, sprinkle a little talcum powder in the water. This seems to make the water softer

MRS. M.O.
DEAR POLLY—Do you ever get "butterflies" when an elevator drops or lifts rapidly? If so, try standing on tiptoes. If possible, brace yourself against the elevator. The main thing is to get off your heels.

GLADYS
GIRLS—This is certainly worth a try.

WANTED

All home owners, ranch owners, automobile owners, and boat owners are urged to be on the lookout for this man. He is Bob Jones of Southern Oregon Insurance Agency. Nobody wants to write your insurance as much as he does.

REWARD

Find this man and the reward is yours in the cash savings you get on low, low Safeco Insurance rates. This man may be found in the vicinity of 119 South 6th Street, or on the golf course. Warning — It is rumored that he is armed with a ballpoint pen and should be considered dangerous to all insurance policies carrying high rates.

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

MALIN GARDEN CLUB
Malin Garden Club will meet Wednesday, March 27, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Micka, with Mrs. J. Walter Browning assisting.

"Landscaping With Hearty Shrubs" will be the topic for the day by Mrs. A. G. Scott.

Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, Tulelake, accredited critic, National Council, will conduct a study on landscape design. Thumbprint sketches on compost making and garden helps will be given by Mrs. Loyal Loveness and Mrs. Joe Halousek.

In reviewing activities of recent months, Northside Garden Club reports an October meeting at the home of Mrs. Harvey Bowman, president. At that time, Mrs. Ray Peterson was recommended by the club to receive the horticultural award for her outstanding work in that field. A coffee was announced for November at the home of Mrs. Gary Price.

MIGHTY MITES

NEW YORK (UPI)—The National Notion Association said small items add up to big business. It estimates retail sales of all notions from buttons to beachwear bags will add up to more than $1,250 billion in 1963.

At the affair instruction was given on making poinsettia corsages.

The home of Mrs. Bowman was again the meeting place of the club in November. Theme of this meeting was "Idea Circus," displaying bazaar and Christmas items with instruction for their making. Hostesses were Mrs. N. Knauss and Mrs. H. Lester.

Hostesses for the Christmas party and gift exchange were Mrs. B. C. Johnson, Mrs. Earl Redman and Mrs. G. Thomason. Mrs. Bowman read a Christmas poem and Mrs. Lewis Kandra read the Christmas story.

After a recess in January, the club met at the home of Mrs. Bowman in February with 13 members present.

A rummage sale April 19 at Clyde's Towing Service was announced. Cooperation was asked in having clean marked sale items and also individually potted plants.

The therapy chairman asked
