

California Solons Eye Braden Pick

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The controversial reappointment of newspaper publisher Thomas W. Braden as president of the state board of education was in the hands of the Senate Rules Committee Friday.

A decision was not expected to be announced until the middle of this week. Braden said he had "no way of guessing" the outcome.

Braden, 45, who served with the British 8th Army before the United States entered World War II, appeared in person before the committee Thursday.

His major opponent, state Sen. Jack Schrade, R-San Diego, also appeared in person to ask the committee not to confirm Braden's appointment for his second four-year term ending Jan. 15, 1967.

Basically, their arguments went like this:

Schrade — Because Braden opposed Dr. Max Rafferty's election as superintendent of public instruction his presence on the education board "cannot be conducive to the cooperation and harmony necessary in providing an effective educational program for the children of this state."

Braden — Citing advances in teachers' credentials and basic education during the past four years, he said the state of California was "almost at the point when we can claim California is not only the biggest in education but the best."

An estimated 400 persons, split about equally between support and opposition of Braden's confirmation, packed the huge committee room of the capitol's fourth floor to hear testimony at the hour-long session.

Former Turk Chief Freed

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI) — Former President Celal Bayar, who was imprisoned for life for violating the Turkish Constitution, Friday was released for six months because of his ill health.

The government freed the 80-year-old former leader from Kayseri prison so he could go home to his family in Ankara.

Bayar was imprisoned in May, 1961, along with several hundred other members of the Democratic party after a marathon trial. Adnan Menderes, premier in the former regime, and two of his top ministers subsequently were executed.

WASHINGTON WINDOW

Foxy Norman Thomas Sees Kennedy As Missing Any Kind Of Frontier

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Foxy old Norman Thomas (he's 78) would have us believe that President Kennedy has hamstrung the liberal movement in the United States by recruiting the best left wingers into his administration.

Thomas spoke last week to the left wing political organization, Americans for Democratic Action (ADA). The occasion was ADA's celebration of Roosevelt Day. Thomas is a Socialist, five times Socialist candidate for U. S. president, twice for mayor of New York, occasionally for governor, and so forth. Socialist Thomas knows the liberal movement like the corridors of his own home.

He knows, therefore, that it was not the Kennedy Administration that kidnapped the left wingers.

The left wingers, including Thomas' own Socialist party, were kidnapped by Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal. So, when Norman Thomas told the ADA that at present there is no independent liberal movement of any importance in the United States, he should not have assessed blame against the Kennedys. He should have been talking about the Hyde Park Roosevelts.

Decline In Socialist Vote
The left wing stampede for FDR's New Deal became apparent and was first publicized in 1935 on the basis of political surveys in industrial northern New Jersey. Election statistics underwrite now the conclusion drawn then, that the left wingers were moving into the Democratic party in force. For example: The Socialist party has been relatively strong in New York state. New York Socialists cast 12,896 votes in 1960 for their presidential candidate, Eugene V. Debs. In 1964 they cast 36,883 votes. In 1920, the Socialist vote for president in New York state was 203,201. It fell to 198,783 in the 1924 presidential election when a third party, Robert M. La Follette's Progressives, offered left wingers alternate shelter.

Thereafter, the Socialist trend was down. In 1932, Thomas for president polled 177,397 New York votes against FDR and Herbert Hoover. Four years later, Thomas' vote was only 18,950 and in 1944 he got only 10,553 in New York. Against Harry S. Truman and Thomas E. Dewey in 1948, Thomas did better, 40,879 votes. The Socialist vote was down to 2,664 in 1952 when Dwight D. Eisenhower beat Adlai E. Stevenson.

It is estimated that Americans drink about 400 million cups of coffee daily.

Earlier, Brazilian authorities had said they would not ban the meeting but would seek to "block" it by denying visas to non-Brazilian Communists wishing to enter the country.

Brazil Okays Red Meet

BRASILIA (UPI) — Brazil Friday approved plans of hemisphere Communists to hold an anti-American conference in Sao Paulo starting next Monday.

Approval for the meeting was given personally by President Joao Goulart, according to presidential secretary Paul Rylf. A Brazilian economic delegation is presently in Washington seeking nearly $500 million in new U. S. aid.

Earlier, Brazilian authorities had said they would not ban the meeting but would seek to "block" it by denying visas to non-Brazilian Communists wishing to enter the country.

Teenager States Case For Use Of Makeup

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: It seems like every time I pick up a newspaper or a magazine these days there is an article on "The Plot To Abolish Childhood." Parents are being verbally tarred and feathered for pushing their children into a world of grown-ups before they are ready.

Why doesn't somebody write an article on "The Plot To Abolish Adulthood?" This would help us teenagers a lot. There are plenty of teenagers who are suffering at the hands of parents who are trying to keep us babies forever. Everyone needs a childhood, Miss Landers, but it shouldn't last until we're 50 years old.

My mother told me last night I can't wear make-up until I'm 21—unless I plan to go on the stage. This means I have to wait six years. She seems to think make-up is only for actresses. Dating is out of the question.

Please say something in your column about this unfair treatment.—A CHILD FOREVER

Dear Child: I don't know how old you are, but I've seen teenagers with make-up so heavy they look as if they're ready for the TV cameras. A 15-year-old should be able to use powder and lipstick, and she should be able to date once or twice a week if her grades are respectable and she can read a wrist watch.

The best way for a teenager to get "adult" privileges is by behaving in a responsible, mature manner which suggests he can handle them.

Dear Ann Landers: For many years I knew a married couple who did not get along well. They had three children.

The woman divorced her husband and the court awarded the children to her. The husband is a fine man and wanted to keep the children. In this state, however, unless the husband can prove his wife is an out-and-out tramp, the children are awarded to the mother.

I have indisputable evidence—precisely what the husband needs—proving the woman is an unfit mother. Now I'm unable to decide whether or not to turn this evidence over to the husband.

I am searching my heart for the answer and I can't find it. This woman once did me a very dirty trick and I'm afraid deep down I may be wanting to get even with her. Revenge is sweet but will I hate myself after I've had my revenge?—AN EYE FOR AN EYE

Dear Eye: Your decision should be based on what would be best for the children. Under whose roof will they have a better chance to grow up straight and strong? Who can give them time, attention, love, and discipline? I doubt that you are equipped to answer these questions objectively. Let your clergyman decide.

USFS Speeds Tree Planting

MOUNT SHASTA — The USFS has adopted a speed-up plan to its reforestation program on Mt. Shasta. Instead of using service personnel for planting all trees, contractors have been let for 537 acres this spring.

The planting will be done along State Highway 89 in what is called Big Canyon range. Contractors are Ellis Tree Surgery, Redding, 342 acres; and Elmer Beier, Eagle Point, Ore., 195 acres.

Steps are now being taken also to add speed to tree development. It is believed the year 2000, set for 80 per cent reforestation being realized, may see nearly 100 per cent suitable soils on the mountain growing forest trees.

Klamath YMCA Sends 20 To Salem Youth Legislature

Twenty youth from Klamath Falls will attend the annual session of the YMCA Youth Legislature in Salem, March 28-30. Eight bills have been prepared by individual clubs to be presented before committee and legislative sessions attended by HY and TriHY club representatives from throughout the state of Oregon.

State officers elected from Klamath County are Don Christy, speaker of the House, Rebecca Pierson, chaplain of the Senate, Mike Veatch, sergeant at arms of the Senate, Delores Savio, reporter, and Roy Marvin, legislative committee chairman.

Highlights of the session will be use of the floor of the Senate and House by youth delegates in presenting their bills, the drama of watching their own bills pass or be defeated, attendance at a Governor's Ball and an opportunity to meet several of the state officials.

Atlas Missile Fired Okay
VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — The newest and speediest of the Atlas family—an Atlas F intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) — rocketed 4,000 miles down the Pacific missile range Thursday in its third successful test here.

The Air Force fired the Atlas from a underground silo into a clear sky and veteran observers called it a "pretty shot" which went off as planned.

The Atlas F, stored in a 174-foot deep bomb proof silo, was raised 43 seconds before the launch. The last previous successful launch from this West Coast missile base was on Nov. 14.

The peregrine falcon is considered by some to be the fastest of all flying birds and observers have credited it with a diving speed of 180 miles an hour.
