SATURDAY

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Loyola of Chicago won the NCAA basketball championship with a 60-58 overtime victory over defending titlist Cincinnati.

NEW YORK — Providence defeated Canisius, 81-66, to capture the National Invitation basketball Tournament.

SEBRING, Fla. — John Surtees of England and Lodovico Scarfiotti of Italy won the Sebring 12-hour endurance race as Italian Ferraris swept the first six places.

BOWIE, Md. — Kelso moved into third place on the list of all-time equine money winners when he drove to victory in the $109,750 John B. Campbell Handicap at Bowie.

LONDON — Former Yale student Duncan Spencer stroked the Oxford University crew to a five-length victory over Cambridge in the 109th renewal of the traditional boat race.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — Denver University edged Colorado by three points to capture its third straight NCAA ski championship.

HUTCHINSON, Kan. — Independence (Kan.) won the National Junior College Basketball title by beating Moberly (Mo.), 73-68, in overtime.

KENT, Ohio — The University of Oklahoma won the team championship in the NCAA wrestling tournament.

SUNDAY

MIAMI, Fla. — Dan Sikes of Jacksonville, Fla., outlasted Sammy Snead by a single stroke to capture the $50,000 Doral Open golf championship with a five-under-par 283.

OSLO, Norway — John Balfanz of Minneapolis set a hill record with a jump of 311 feet, 6 inches but still finished fifth behind Norway's Toralf Engan in the overall standings of the Norwegian ski jumping week.

READING, Pa. — A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., drove a competition engine ring special Chevrolet over 30 laps in 12 minutes, 52.48 seconds to capture Reading inaugural sweepstakes for sprint cars.

DETROIT — Veteran Gordie Howe clinched a record sixth National Hockey League scoring championship as he received credit for two points in the final game of the regular season.

HITS PAYDIRT — Dan Sikes, Jacksonville, Fla., shouts "Golly-gee" as he sinks a 30-foot putt on the 13th hole in the $50,000 Doral Open at Miami. Sikes, a former attorney, outlasted Sam Snead to capture the event. — UPI Telephoto

Dan's Friends, Inc., Declare Big Dividend

By OSCAR FRALEY
UPI Sports Writer

MIAMI (UPI)—"Dan's Friends, Inc.," declared a dividend today.

They're the 50 friends of 32-year-old Dan Sikes, the clouting counselor from Jacksonville, who put up $10,000 three years ago to form a syndicate which put him on the pro golf tour.

Sikes, who hadn't won a tournament in that period, hit the jackpot Sunday when he outlasted Slammin' Sammy Snead on the last four holes to pick up the $9,000 first money in the $50,000 Doral Open.

"I wish now," grinned the lanky drawling man, "that I had some of that myself."

"Friends" Lose Option

He'll have it all, come August. For that's when "Dan's Friends, Inc.," lose their option and Sikes will "go it on my own."

But they've done just fine already, thanks, by taking down 50 per cent of his earnings. Considering that Sikes won $7,000 his first year, $16,000 his second, and $14,000 already this year counting the $9,000 in the Doral, they've gotten back $18,500 on their investment.

There was an extra payoff for the 175-pound six footer who passed his bar examinations but "would rather practice golf than law." The points he earned winning the Doral gave him the second spot for young touring pros in the approaching Masters.

"I don't have a room up there because I never figured I'd make it," he said in his soft voice, "but I'll go if I have to sleep in my car."

Ties In Houston

Sikes, the 1955 all-Army champion and 1958 National Public Links king, previously had only one good shot at a tour victory. That was in the 1962 Houston Classic in which he tied Bobby Nichols and Jack Nicklaus. But Nichols eagled their first extra playoff hole to win after Sikes lost a three-stroke lead with three holes to play.

In his head-and-head race against Snead in the Doral's final round, Snead was three shots behind Sikes with five holes to play and then threw two straight birdies at his younger rival. It looked like the same old story, but Sikes matched Snead's pars all the way in from there for a two under par 70 which beat Snead's 71 and four under par 284 total by one shot.

"I was in trouble with my drive on the 18th," Sikes admitted. "I was in high grass and it looked like a bad omen."

But he knocked a three iron onto the green, 80 feet from the hole and ran it up to within six feet. Sam already had his par four when Sikes, who copies Arnold Palmer's putting stance, "knocked in that short putt."

Sikes, who started playing in high school, says he would like to continue "for about 10 years because with all that money out there a man might be able to fix himself for life."

The way he played at Doral, he just might, too.

PCL Training Camp Briefs

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (UPI)— The Tacoma Giants of the Pacific Coast League seem to thrive on the pitching efforts of front-line hurlers for the Cleveland Indians.

The Giants, who bombed Jim "Mudcat" Grant Saturday, blasted 17 hits off Barry Latman and Joe Cox Sunday to defeat the Cleveland "B" team, 12-7. Bob Perry, Tim Talton and Bob Barton had 2 hits apiece for Tacoma.

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — The Spokane Indians of the Pacific Coast League got some top-notch pitching Sunday as they defeated Salem of the Northwest League, 3-2, in exhibition play.

Nick Willhite went five innings for the Indians, allowing just two hits and Salem's two runs. Dick Cronk went the last four, blanking Salem on just two hits. Spokane's attack was sparked by Jim Barbiere and John Wheas, with two hits apiece.

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI)— The San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League opened their exhibition season Sunday with a 4-2 victory over Syracuse of the International League.

The Syracuse team, which had won five straight games, was held to six hits by rookie San Diego hurlers Andy Dustal, Teddy Davidson and Larry Dovel. Miles McWilliams hit a two-run homer for the Padres.

DELAND, Fla. (UPI) — The Seattle Rainers of the Pacific Coast League came up with two runs in the ninth inning Sunday to defeat the Toronto Maple Leafs 4-3.

Jimmy Williams drove in the winning run with a double. Russ Gibson paced the Rainier attack with a homer, double and two singles in four trips to the plate.

Sharman Denied Play Permission

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Bill Sharman, former star professional basketball player, has been refused permission by the National Basketball Association to play with the Los Angeles Lakers in a series of exhibition games.

Lakers General Manager Lou Mohs said Friday that the NBA would not allow Sharman to play in the games because of pressure exerted by the Boston Celtics.

Mohs said Sharman wanted to play in the games scheduled for Monday at Corona Del Mar and at Riverside and San Bernardino Wednesday and Friday.

Monday's Schedule

No games scheduled

For Portland's Buckaroos the magic number is one.

One Portland win or one San Francisco loss will give the Buckaroos their second straight title in the Southern Division of the Western Hockey League. Each team has three games left to play.

They met face-to-face for the last time in the regular season Sunday night. Portland took the opportunity to all but quash the Seals' hopes by racking up a 4-1 victory.

Elsewhere Los Angeles clinched the third playoff spot in the Southern Division by dumping Spokane 8-2, and Seattle pulled two points in front of Vancouver and gained the Northern Division lead by beating Edmonton 3-1.

The chief remaining issue in the WHL is who will be the third playoff representative in the Northern Division. Calgary and Edmonton are tied for third.

A crowd of 10,221 at Portland Coliseum watched the Buckaroos stretch their unbeaten string to nine. Portland scored two goals in the opening period and another in the second before the Seals got on the scoreboard late in the final stanza.

Harold White of Los Angeles picked up a hat trick in the Blades' romp over Spokane. White tallied twice in the first period and Los Angeles got another goal from Bruce Carmichael to move out to a 3-1 lead. The trio of White, Leo Labine and Marc Boileau accounted for five goals and five assists.

Seattle got third period goals from Wayne Hall and Bob Sabourin to break a 1-1 tie and down the Flyers.

Nothing is scheduled tonight.

BRUMEL CLEARS 7-FEET-2

LENINGRAD, Russia (UPI)— World high jump record holder Valery Brumel cleared 7 feet, 2.6 inches during the Soviet Union track and field competitions Sunday, it was reported by the Soviet news agency Tass.

Beavers Return Home With 1964 Host Spot

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Oregon State was back from the NCAA basketball championship tournament today and despite its lackluster showing it didn't come back empty handed.

The Beavers will play host to the 1964 NCAA Far West regional tournament next March 13-14. Provo, Utah, was the site of the four-team meet this season.

Slats Gill's Oregon Staters dropped an 85-63 decision to Duke's Blue Devils in a consolation game at Louisville, Ky., Saturday night. They were beaten by Cincinnati 80-46 Friday night in the opening round of the four-school playoff.

"We put so much into getting here that we didn't have anything left," the veteran Gill said of his Beavers' showing against Duke and Cincinnati. "But we're still Western champions."

The team was honored with a rally at Gill Coliseum late Sunday.

Oregon State upset Arizona State in the finals of the Far West tourney at Provo to gain a trip to Louisville.

Only bright spot in the Kentucky playoffs for Oregon State was center Mel Counts. The radar-eyed junior center hit 45 points in the two games — 20 against Cincinnati and 25 against Duke — and was chosen on the tournament all-star second team.

Gov. Mark Hatfield, who watched Duke bury the Beavers on the second night, said it appeared OSU had "tournament jitters."

Oregon State finished its season with a 22-9 record. Main losses next season will be playmaking Terry Baker, a guard, and 6-4 forward Steve Pauly, who will graduate.

OSAA OK's A-1 Entrant

EUGENE (UPI)—The board of control of the Oregon School Activities Association Saturday voted to admit Eugene's new Sheldon High School into District 5 A-1. The school opens next September.

The board turned down a coaches' request that baseball's enlarged strike zone be made part of the rules for the coming high school season.

The board scheduled further study on a suggestion that the Class A-1 basketball tournament be held one week earlier and approved a recommendation that state championship football games be played on nonschool days whenever possible.

It approved a request to allow schools to enter at least three men in each event in state track meets if they meet qualifying standards. It authorized OSAA officials in Portland to set up a makeup date for the finals of the state baseball tournament in case of rainouts.

The board tabled a motion by a Salem civic group to award the Class A-2 basketball tournament to the capital city and expand it from eight to 16 teams. The tourney was held at Coos Bay this year.

Klamath Falls Bowlers Top Moose Tourney List

Standings in the 19th Annual Oregon State Moose Bowling Tournament were turned upside down by bowlers from Klamath Falls, Corvallis, Springfield and Eugene over the weekend.

A Klamath Falls doubles combination of Bob Tesch and Ed McConnell toppled 1246 pins to take over top spot in that division. Pete Sheehy and Paul Heryford of Klamath Falls had a 1239 for second place, and Ted Buttler and Bus Jones, also of Klamath Falls, one pin less at 1238 for third.

In his doubles effort, Tesch rolled a 267, highest single game score in the tourney. Ron Pierce had a 256.

In the women's doubles, LaRayne Harris, Medford, teamed up with Tillie Mathis, Klamath Falls, to take over the top spot with a 1198 total. The Medford woman turned in a 675 series in her doubles with games of 234—216 and 225.

A Corvallis pair, Maxine Williams and Joyce Schilling, moved into second place with 1084.

Grant Helming of Eugene moved in front in the men's singles division with a 680 series. Al Woldt of Klamath Falls is in third place with 664.

LaRayne Harris also leads the singles division for women, having rolled a 625 scratch series. Edith Dyer, Klamath Falls, continued to hold second place in the division with a 607 series.

In the all-events, Lou Bevandich of Corvallis continued in the top spot with his combined total of 1898, but Ted Buttler, Klamath Falls, came within 10 points of that total with an 1888 to take second place over the weekend.

Audrey Smelcer of Klamath Falls leads the women's all-events with a combined total of 1633, followed by Maud Funk of Cottage Grove with 1617.

Oregon Girl Makes Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Sharon Shepherd, a former Linfield College and Mapleton, Ore., competitor, won a spot on the United States women's track and field team for the Pan - American Games Friday night.

Miss Shepherd finished second in the discus throw in the National Senior AAU Women's indoor meet. She had a throw of 144 feet, 7¼ inches.

The Pan-American Games will be held in Sao Paulo, Brazil, April 27-May 4. Miss Shepherd is now competing for the Cleveland Recreation Department.

Oregon Entry Out Of Tourney

KENT, Ohio (UPI)— The last Oregon entry bowed out of the national collegiate wrestling championships Friday night when Bob Keeney of the University of Oregon was eliminated.

Keeney lost by default to Gerry Franzen of Navy in the 177-pound class. Franzen, a former Oregon prep champion at David Douglas High School, later lost in the semifinals to Dean Lahr of Colorado.

Oklahoma raced into the team lead in the meet with 35 points going into the finals. Pittsburgh was second with 26 and defending champion Iowa State had 25.

CAMPBELL SUSPENDS BRUIN

BOSTON (UPI) — Guy Gendron of the Boston Bruins was suspended for the final game of the National Hockey League season Sunday night and fined $200 by League President Clarence Campbell for pushing referee Vern Buffey during a game with New York Thursday.
