

Klamath County 4-H Clubs Hold Regular Meetings

PIONEER SEWING CLUB

The Pioneer Sewing Club had a Christmas party at Mrs. Don McGhehey's home on Dec. 22 and we all had a very nice time. On Dec. 24, Christmas Eve, the leaders, Mrs. Charles Burt, Mrs. Alan Leonard and Mrs. McGhehey, took three boxes of toys to a needy family. They were very happy over the toys. This was a community project.

On Jan. 7, the club held a meeting. There was no new or old business so we returned thanks, had refreshments and sewed.

MALIN WOOLIES

The first meeting of the Malin Woolies was held on Jan. 3, 1963, at the home of Mr. Tofell. Vice President Jeanne Stastny called the meeting to order. Under old business we discussed our record books which we all did very well on. Our secretary's book received a blue ribbon.

New business was whether or not to elect officers. It finally passed with the votes coming out as follows: Jeanne Stastny, president; Linda Kirkpatrick, vice president; Kristi Ottoman, secretary; Patty Walker, treasurer; Linda Stastny, news reporter; Jimmy Ottoman, sergeant-at-arms; Sharon Micka, recreation leader.

At present there are 10 members. This year there are four new members: Sharon Micka, Kirk Kirkpatrick, Susan Derra and Margaret Ann Blohm. Our leader is Mr. Emil Tofell, with assistant leaders, Mrs. James Ottoman and Mrs. Walter Stastny.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served by Mrs. Tofell.

LANGELL VALLEY SWINE CLUB

The second regular meeting of the Langell Valley Champs Swine Club was held Jan. 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Art Struve to discuss per cent of gain on last year's 4-H market hog projects. Steve Botens, president, called the meeting to order.

It was announced that March is 4-H Month, and ideas for displays to show this were presented. Mr. Dick Botens, club leader, listed possible goals, and the club decided the ones they should achieve this year.

The importance of permanent records for members was stressed, and summer camp and summer school scholarships available for eligible club members were explained.

On Feb. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Albert Scott, the next meeting will be held.

YARN DOODLES

The fourth meeting of the Yarn Doodles Knitting Club was called to order by Jan Collins, president. Mrs. Fairfield showed us a sweater that she was knitting. We discussed the relationship of the size of needles used, to the size of your sweater.

The rest of the meeting was spent knitting on our projects. The meeting was adjourned at 4:30 p.m.

HENLEY BEEF CLUB

The main highlight of the December meeting of the Henley Beef Club was election of new officers.

The meeting was called to order by Sandy Woodard, vice president, at the home of Alvin Cheyne. For new business election of officers was held. They are as follows: Steve Cheyne, president; Kathy Helmer, vice president; Nancy Negrevski, secretary; Jean Thompson, treasurer; Sandy Woodard, news reporter; Greg Cheyne, sergeant-at-arms; and Rick Anderson leader.

Mr. Tom Wright and Mr. Bob Thompson were introduced as assistant leaders. They will help our leader, Mr. Cheyne, with the weighing of the calves and feeding problems. Judging cards and record books were handed back.

The club is purchasing rope for each member to make a rope halter. The club is purchasing rope for each member to make a rope halter. Cheyne, and Mike Negrevski were appointed as call captains.
