

Klamath 4-H Club Sessions

WOOD RIVER WRANGLERS

The Wood River Wranglers, 4-H horse club, meets the first and third Thursday evenings at the large barn on the Puckett and Scherer 7-mile ranch, by permission of the owners. Practice riding is held under the lights at these sessions, and in addition a business meeting is held once monthly at the home of one of the member's parents.

Leader of the group is Jim Zeller of Williamson River. President is Barbara Nicholson; Linda Stanley, vice president; Kenneth Scott, secretary-treasurer; Mary Brattain, song leader, and Wayne Scott, news reporter. Other members include Donna Scott, Dora Lee Kenneally, Roger Nicholson, Kim and Randy Kizer, and Jimmy Bridge.

On Jan. 27, a horseback ride was enjoyed over Sun Mountain Pass, State Highway 232, east of Fort Klamath. Normally closed by heavy snow at this time of year, the beautiful scenic route has been open to travel all winter. Making the trip were the Wranglers' leader, Jim Zeller, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Scott, Mrs. Blaine Brattain and Hollis Kizer, comprising the adults participating. Horse club members were Wayne, Kenneth, and Donna Scott, Mary Brattain, Kim and Randy Kizer, and their younger sister, Alexine, a non-member who was a special guest on the ride.

At the Feb. 7 meeting at the Edwin A. Scott home, tentative plans were made for holding a play day sometime during June. The all-day session will include various competitive contests. Other forms of entertainment will be featured and reported later as plans materialize.

News Reporter.

BUSY BAKERETTES

Marie Angel and Janice Reid gave a demonstration on "How to Boil an Egg." Mrs. Porter Willis gave a demonstration on cooking breakfast cereal.

Our club decided to make and serve cookies for the next Bonanza PTA meeting on March 27. Julie Murphy.

MUSICAL MACHINES

The third meeting of the Musical Machines was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Hayes, 4-H clothing leader. The club didn't have a business meeting but instead learned how to make collars. We will finish them at home this week. We also discussed having a display in one of the store windows in Merrill and decided against it.

We had refreshments and went home.
